
FAMEE HONOR SOCIETY INITIATES FIVE — Kappa Iota chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor society at The Florida A. and M. College recently initiated five new members. In this photo they are shown with five "old" members as they listened to the charge during honors convocation. Left to right, Lillian Hicks, Maitland, Fla.; Mrs. Alice Wright House, Lakeland; Samuel Russell, Tallahassee; Mrs. Mary T. Rogers, Deland, Fla.; George Robinson, Webster, Fla.; Melvin E. Triplett, Tallahassee; Augusta Edwards, Chiefland, Fla.; Mizell Triplett, Waukila, Fla., and Mrs. Bertha Blagrum, Tallhassee. Mrs. Louise Robinson, Roscoe and Melvin Triplett, and Miss Edwards are the newly inited members.

SHINE OF SPRING?

Stars of the theatre, screen and TV were very much in evidence at the Hemophilia Foundations' annual Spring Frolic, a most noteworthy charity. Here glamour guys and gals shined shoes at $50.00 per foot for a worthy cause. Pictured: TV commentator Arthur Little Jr. giving 3-foot tall Ivor Boden (major domo of the affair) a glamorous microsheen shine. The Griffin Mfg. Co. contributed the shine kits.

RECEIVES MEDAL

(Continued from Page 1)

been chairman of the board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, chairman of the medical board and director of the Cancer Research Foundation of Parent Hospital and from 1945 to his death had been a member of the New York Symphony Society.

The 15th annual Clement Cleveland Award for work in cancer control was given to Mr. Emerson Foote, executive vice president of McCann-Erickson Advertising Agency, who took a leading role in educating the public in the fight against cancer.

April hash been designated Cancer Control Month by Presidential Proclamation anad by Act of Congress. The New York City Cancer Committee has accepted a quota of $1,401,960 to be raised during the month, as its share of the American Cancer Society's national goal of $13,000,000. Funds raised will be allocated to local and national research projects, professional and public education, and services for cancer patients.

IN THIS OUR DAY

country opponents resorts to more extremely unfair practices. Apparently there are those who believe that in the romance all is fair in war and love" should be added and in politics and elections.

An example of these unfair tactics so very often used in political elections is when a candidate shows himself friendly and fair to all the people and especially if he is friendly and fair to minority groups, he is branded as a special lover of that group. Moreover, the cry is that that if this candidate is elected, the minority group "will take over", etc. And of course, the rank and file of ignorant and unthinking majority group immediately fall for such cheap propaganda.

It is real pitiful how easily the rank and file of any group may be deceived, and most especially in matters pertaining to governments and political elections.

Because of the foregoing many of the candidates for political elections hesitate to meet

Campus Roundup

JACKSON COLLEGE

Some 15 students at Jackson College, Jackson, Miss., will serve as interns at the United States Steel Corporation of Gary, Indiana, during the coming summer.

Meanwhile, the college announced that dedication ceremonies for the two new buildings and a barber will take place during Commencement week to be observed May [illegible].

The Roberts Hall, women's and the [illegible] Hall, are new buildings [illegible] to be occupied [illegible] Jacksonville [illegible] will have a [illegible] will give a [illegible] Jackson college [illegible] Miss. It was [illegible] the second [illegible] college.

NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE

North Carolina college now offers a special program combining science to educational courses within the area of the college curriculum.

According to Dr. George T. Kyle, chairman of the North Carolina College Graduate Council, the college will "lend emphasis to the sciences as they apply to community, county or district programs."

The program will stand as a service to interpret statistical data from science or otherwise.

NCC already has scheduled seven engagements for April.

LINCOLN U

Some 37 students at Lincoln university (Mo.) earned an average 2.2 points or more and thus made the honor roll for the fall semester at the institution. The honor students were in the College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Education at Lincoln.

Miss Norma Dennie, sophomore from Tampa, Fla., is the only [illegible] on the list.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE

A group of New York [illegible] will [illegible] some 70 Hampton Institute students and three faculty members.

The group visited the headquarters of the United Nations, other international organizations, Greenwich Village, and Riverside Community House, and the Persian House.

Applications are now being accepted for the National Theatre Conference and Theatre Competition to be held at Hampton Sept. 3,000 in scholarships will be awarded.

H. C. Critchfield, chairman of the department of trade education, said entries must be in by April [illegible].

NCCU CONFAB

Students from 20 Central area colleges and universities will attend a College Conference on Human Relations Saturday, April 11 under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

This conference at the National College of Education in Evanston is concerned the progress being made in human relations and to discuss what they can do about prejudice and discrimination. This meeting is a sequel to a second meeting held last October at the George Williams Camp at Lake Geneva.

"Are We Really Getting Ahead on Eisenhower, hampered by the Old Guard reactionary Taft, or Stevenson, the man with a vision and with eloquent words to describe it.

Although this column was not still willing to see Eisenhower given a fair chance to make good, to date nothing has happened to inspire the conviction that this administration is anything but "another Republican administration" and thus is not saying much of anything.

If reactionary Robert Taft does not break his own and the Republican party's and Eisenhower's neck, it will be surprising. Taft is a rugged individualist in an age of cooperation. Taft is an incurable reactionary, who does not forget anything and does not learn anything. Watch Stevenson!

ALBANY STATE COLLEGE

Dr. George W. Gore, president of the Florida A. and M. college last week stressed the need to [illegible] well-rounded individuals if minority groups are to [illegible] contribution to mankind.

Dr. Gore spoke before an Education Campaign Program sponsored by Delta Sigma and Gamma Omicron Lambda chapters of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity at Albany State college.

Meanwhile, dedication ceremonies were held for the new Men's Dormitory, named in honor of the late Jerry M. McIntosh. The dorm represents the completion of one of several new buildings to be erected at Albany State college and is $350,000 building program.

Among those who attended [illegible] for the occasion were Dr. J. W. Holley, founder president emeritus of Albany State; Dr. W. Caldwell Jones, president of the University System of Georgia; [illegible] F. Pittman, president of Albany State; [illegible] Eastern Airlines; and [illegible] Atlanta.

ALCORN A. & M. COLLEGE

Dr. John J. Farber, Executive Secretary of the State Teachers [illegible] president of the association, and Dr. Crawford T. Gidney, of Tennessee A. and [illegible] were on the program of the Program Committee.

VT VALLEY STATE COLLEGE

Vet Valley [illegible] are busy with plans for their Fifth Annual Jabberwock to be given Saturday, April [illegible] in the college auditorium. "TV Miniatures", will be the theme of this year's affair.

The feature of the event will be the crowning of King or Queen of the Jabberwock. Eight little boys and girls from the local community will compete for coveted title.

Miss [illegible] A. Leigh's ballet team also will be seen.

Proceeds from the affair will go to maintain the Delta community [illegible] to award scholarships [illegible] at Fort Valley college.

A. & T. COLLEGE

Certain traits and courses were presented as important personal [illegible] for success in any field of [illegible] J. Kenneth Gray, president of North Carolina [illegible] Insurance Co., in an address before the [illegible] vocational [illegible] conference [illegible] A. and T. college in Greensboro.

[illegible] Gray [illegible] a [illegible] discussion on "Student Preparation for Present and Future Job Opportunities in the Field of Agriculture".

TALLADEGA COLLEGE

The Talladega college library has received a gift of 1,000 volumes of anthropology and sociology, a product of the library of the late Dr. Gladys Bryson, former professor of sociology at [illegible] college.

The collection includes a copy of "Man and Society", written by Dr. Bryson and described as a complete addition to the history of sociological thought".

Meanwhile, Talladega was host to Dr. W. Henry Greene, Washington, D. C. grand polemarch of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, who addressed students and faculty here.

The occasion marked the first time a grand polemarch has visited the college chapter.

POETS CORNER

THE NEGRO PEASS

By ANDY RAZAF for ANP

[illegible] a hundred years have passed
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]