

Dr. Louis T. Wright Receives Honor JOHNSON C. SMITH IN ANNIVERSARY

Johnson C. Smith U.
Marks 86th Anniversary

CHARLOTTE — The 86th Founder's Day in God has set an example for all Americans to follow. The University was highlighted by a Dr. Liston, president of the University, who spoke at the memorial service for deceased university president. Greetings were given by Honorable Victor Johnson, Mayor of the city, Dr. E. R. Elson, the pastor of First Baptist Church, president of the General Assembly, the Student Alumni Association and Dr. J. M. Purvis, pastor of the National Baptist Church, secretary-treasurer of the Presbyterian Church of Washington, Board of Trustees, Rev. J. E. L. D. C. told the over-flowing audience that "World Alliance offered the invocatory standards of the greatest nations."

Continuing he said, "The post-war moral breakdown and challenges of materialistic and atheistic Communism can only be met by robust Christian faith and life." The university press, 1891-1941, stands to the days in which we have lived. Prof. P. G. Grayson, assistant professor of English and principal of the school, 1899-1918, Yorke Jones, professor of English literature, of good service to quiet heart and professor of English literature, of ordered prayer. When Christ died, James Daniel Martin, kept their own soul they professor of Greek, 1899-1933; and Prof. J. Anderson, professor of Philosophy, 1902-1927.

It is of the opinion of many Americans that President Eisenhower's sincerity and Dr. L. B. West, Dr. A. H. George, and Moses S. Belton,

Cancer Medal Awarded To Late Dr. Wright

NEW YORK — The late Dr. Louis T. Wright was awarded the medal posthumously, for his research in cancer which he conducted for 33 years at Harlem Hospital before his death in October, 1952. He is the first Negro to be given the medal.

Mrs. Louis T. Wright, widow of the physician, accepted the award at a luncheon held at the Hotel Astor Sunday afternoon to launch the 1952 Cancer Crusade. Also participating in the ceremonies were the two daughters of the late physician Dr. Jane C. Wright and Dr. Barbara Penn Wright, both engaged in cancer research.

The medal, awarded for "most outstanding contribution to cancer control," was presented to Mrs. Wright by Dr. John C. A. Gerster, one of the founders of the New York City Cancer Committee, who lauds in his praise of the late Harlem physician.

In presenting the award Dr. Gerster said that the New York City Cancer Committee this year unanimously voted the award to her greatly beloved late member, Dr. Louis T. Wright.

In citing some of the activities of the cancer socialist, Dr. Gerster pointed out that "among numerous distinctions, she had

HOSPITAL TESTS IRON LUNG GIFT OF UNION — The Red Cross hospital of Louisville, Ky., recently received a $15,000 iron lung as a gift from the Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butchers Workers of North America. When it was presented to the medical center, union and hospital officials tried it out. Mrs. Georgia F. Smith, practical nurse, tested it. Looking on were Patrick Gorman, secretary-treasurer of the union, and Arthur Evans, Jr., secretary of the hospital board of directors. (AP Photo)

Personnel Deans Hold Meet At Virginia State College

PETERSBURG — More than 80 personnel deans attended the annual meeting of the Association of Deans of Women and Advisors to Girls in Negro Schools and the National Association of Personnel Deans and Advisors to Men in Negro Educational Institutions held at Virginia State College in Petersburg, from April 1-3.

The first general session convened at 9:00 a.m. on April 2 with Dr. Sadie Yancey of Howard University presiding. Devotions, conducted by Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, Director of Religious Activities at Virginia State College, included several musical numbers by Virginia State students. Marria Johnson, George McNamee, Evelyn Copack, Garland Butts, Ann Jordan and Samuel Cox.

Dr. Ann Arnold Hedgeman, of the Federal Security Agency, delivered the main address, stressing importance of the conference theme, "New Horizons in Effective Living."

The conference offered workshops in four areas: Moral and Religious, Cultural — Group Living, Vocational, Civic. Among those who participated in the workshops were Mrs. Thomasina Norford of the Department of Labor; Dr. Margaret Adams of Shaw University.

The highlights of the Friday morning session were: (1) the reports from the workshops and (2) a Student Panel which presented clearly and effectively views on "Student Expectations of Aids in Effective Living." Three seniors and one sophomore participated: Miss Vivian Vercell, Miss Felicia Loudermon, Mr. Isaac Peterson and Mr. Samuel Thompson, all of Virginia State College.

The final conference session was an All American Banquet at which Dean Valenta H. Bell presided. Mr. Samuel A. Madden was the main address.
