19 Klansmen Convicted On Flogging-Kidnap Charges Notorious "Den" "WOULDN'THURTFLY"

IN RALEIGH BRAWL

Victim In Tovern Brawl Workien's Confab

To Twin City

RALEIGH-The 30th annual Negro Women's Conference, sponsored by the Presbyterian Women of the Syned of North Carolina, will te held at the Winston-Salem Tea !

Ordered Closed

lina's best - known 'sin pads' the total infamous "House of filme Lights' will have to change the lock on the door il they wish to engage in their regular activities, melading rostitution, gamilia, whis tey peddling and general fewdness this weekend and some

"The Judge" is High Point Municipal Court Judge Archie Myatt who ordered the tentment house at 530 E. High St. here padlocked this week on a complaint handed in by Soliciter J. V. Morgan.

Solicitor Morgan's complaint charges that confines of the rambling structure should be CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE | CONTINUED ON PAGE SEVEN Admits Shooting

Fort Jackson Pvt. Cornell Whitley faces a murder charge as result of shooting and fatally injucing Mrs. Ida Mae Collins, Raleigh woman, last week. He admils the shooting.

Hit-and-Run Rap Faced By Driver

LEXINGTON-Ernest W. Perry. 23, resident of Southmount Monposted a $500 bond pending trial in Davidson County Court on a charge of hit and run driving. Perry was arrested by State Highway Patrolmen Sunday night. CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE

Felled By Six Slugs

leigh died last week after having been shot six times at close rang by a soldier she allegedly accus-

sion of the United Negro College Fund, the Chief Executive said that he felt that any society in which there existed second class ciitzens, other citizens were less than first class ones.

Of segregation, the President pointed out his "passionate belief" in the guarantees of the U.S. Constitution which give equality regardless of incident of race or

He sad "I have preached against the theory that there can be second class citizens. I believe the only way I can protect my rights is to protect the rights of others." The President cited an instance in which he noted last Sunday that a Negro non-commissioned of-CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE an while in her presence. Fort Jackson Army Private Cornell Whittey faces a murder charge UNCF SESSION

HEARS IKE HIT

Of Constitution

(Special To Carolinian) WASHINGTON, D.C. - In no incertain words President Dwight Eisenhower Monday expressed his disgust with theories which cause the perpetuation of second class citizenship in the nation. · Speaking before the annual ses-

The President's speech was the keynoter of the sessions here of the UNCE, a group through which funds to support 33 private Negro colleges are derived.

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL XII RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1953

IS DISPLAYED

BY RACE PILOTS

Major Whitehead Had

Very Narrow Escape

FIFTH AIR FORCE, KOREA-

To the men of the 58th Fighter

Bomber Wing in Korea, who daily face death dive bombing Communists lines of supply and communication and blasting Red troops along the battleline in close air support of United Nations forces, flak riddled ships and harrowing experiences are nothing new. But the story told by one Thunderjet pilot with the 474th (.roup of the 58th will be remembered by the pilots at this Korean base for some

Shortly after dawn on a day ear-

Whitehead, Jr. of St. Paul's Institute, took off on his 82nd com-

F-84 Thunderjets on in armed re-conainssance mission against Red

CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE

bat mission, leading a flight of four last month, Major John L.

time to come.

Thugs Beat Man, Wife

Hope Dims For 4 On Death Row

are running precariously low for four men awaiting the pleasure of the courts and of the state's Cov-1 than it is impared as they fave a date with the executor in the lethal chambers at Central Prison here next Friday morning.

Two cousins, Lloyd and Bennie Daniels and two other men. Raleigh Speller and Clyde Brown, are o be executed Friday unless Ra High Attorney Herman L. Tavlor can perform another legal gymnastic and unless the Governor takes upon himself to commute the death sentences.

A setback was handed the Dauiels pair early this week when Attorney Taylor's piea for a rehearing of the charges against head of Fort Bragg-stationed them was refused by the State Pvt. Fauston E. Suel, who Supreme Court. Taylor had peti-Winston alleges had come into tioned for a new hearing in the the tayern after having been | Daniels case on the basis of distold several times to stay acovery of new evidence. The State high tribunal ruled.

Winston, who surrendered to po- however, that all admissable evi-CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE CONTINUED ON PAGE SEVEN dence had been presented in the

PILOT GAMBLES WITH DEATH IN KOREA-WINS

They're Four Of A Kind SKILL, DARING

terest in the Capital City. They were photo-ed above with their official escorts and admirers at Reidsville's famed Fultz quadruplets were recent visitors in Raleigh where they not only appeared before the Legislature

Sheriff Probes Beating Of Couple By Two Whites

its Department operatives are The Sheriff's Department reports knowingly or inadvertantly got- route is indeterminate when it is this week attempting to determine that two unidentified men — on the reason two white men entered a ruse of wanting to use a teleof the most deplorable vices in is just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in is just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in is just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in is just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in its just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in its just half a block from the turn of the most deplorable vices in the property of the most deplorable vic the residence of a Negro couple in phone, — entered the home of the world.

The Little River Township Monday CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE

But Pegg

Students Prevented From Portraying "Race" Roles

Mystery Shrouds Case Of Girl, 14, Found "Doped" RALEIGH - A veil which only centrated investigation, the story

she can penetrate surrounds the stacks up in this manner: mysterious case of 14-year-old On Monday evening, May 11. Peggy Ann McCoy, Wake Forest Peggy Ann left her home on resident, who last week was a pa- White Street in Wake Forest to tient at the local Saint Agnes Hos- take a watch to a jeweler on pital for treatment of an "illness" Jones Street, some five, blocks awhich could only have resulted way. Even though she reportedly from dope—with a capital *D". left home before dark. Peggy Ann Extensive investigation by this did not make her appearance at the newspaper, by members of the jewelers until about 9 p.m. Wake Forest Police force and by Upon leaving the jewelers, the members of Peggy Ann's family girl relates, she started home by and interested friends point out way of the Seaboard Railway the fact that the young girl has Tracks. Just why she chose this the world.

But Peggy Ann isn't taking.

The Strange Case of Peggy Ann McCoy had its beginning last week Peggy says, she was accosted by when the 14-year-old girl was a "middle aged white man" who brought to the local hospital for observation. She was in a comadollars "Peggy says she told the tose condition not unalike that man that she could use the ten which is reached after use of a dollars to buy a new watch, and

By J. B. HARREN

Mrs. E. E. Bryant, to principal Aaron F. Wilder of the T. S. Instance of the Standard Cotton marketing town was agog last week as the result of a strong letter written by the Parlent-Feacher Association prexy,

Mrs. E. E. Bryant, to principal Aaron F. Wilder of the T. S. Instance of the T. S. Instance of the Standard County Supt. of Schools, heavy a superior of the T. S. Instance of the Standard County Supt. of Schools, heavy a superior of the T. S. Instance of the suddenly the man lunged of the rand she enuded him an description of the suddenly the man lunged of the rand she enuded him an description of the suddenly the man lunged of the suddenly the suddenly the man lunged of the suddenly the suddenly the suddenly the man lunged of the suddenly the suddenly about 12:45 a.m. Sunday morning that went through the n 20-year-old woman companion eausing her death last week.

RALEIGH - A local tavern owner fired three shots to put/a stop to a disturbance he thought!

would break out in his establishment early last Sunday morning.

One shot proved fatal to a 27-year-old soldier, father of a 10-

Edward T. (Eddie) Winston, operator of Katrina's Place, a

North State Street nite spot, has admitted that he fired a months-old child.

Pvt. Cornell Whitiey of Fort Jackson, S. C., who attended barber school here and then shooting which took place Tuesday night. Whitley, described as erratic in graduated from Harris' Barber pabits, but not believed to have College here in November, 1952, been "vicious," admitted to local CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE-woman, the wife of another soldier, six times with a 32 calibre pistol when she started an argument with him Tuesday night a. bout what she thought was a telephone call to another girl. The young soldier, who was

Faces Of Those Making The News

Army Private Fauston E. Suel (Eddie) Winston, Raleigh night was shot and fatally wounded club owner.

In Raleigh Nite Spot

Soldier Shot, Killed

JOHN W. MITCHELL

John W. Mitchell, a North Carolina native, this week received a U. S. Agriculture Department Superior Service Award, Mr. Mitchell is supervisor of agricultural extension work at Hampton Institute, N. C. Con-

CONG. CARL DURHAM gressman Carl Durham will be featured speaker at the annual field day being staged by A. & T. College Army and Air Force ROTC units Friday, Cong. Durham speaks at Harrison Auditorium at the College at 10 a.m.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER President Dwight Eisenhower took a back hand slap at the forces of racial intolerance this week declaring his dislike of second class citizenship for any person because of incidence of