THE ZETA-SIGMA DANCE
The Zeta-Sigma dance last Friday night was one of the prettiest held in Raleigh Memorial Auditorium recently. That place is so huge and there are so many restrictions that decorating it is always a problem. But the Zetas and the Sigmas did an effective job anyway. The center of the dance area was a beautiful lawn with the grass, picket fence, flowers, lawn furniture, etc.

DEDICATION
Dedication ceremonies of the John W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School last Sunday drew a considerable audience. The dedicatory address was given by the Rev. J. H. Henderson, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The program as reported elsewhere in this issue. It is not mentioned here that Miss Ligon, for whom the school is named, made a stirring address in an orange colored suit and a blue feathered hat as she unveiled a picture of the late John W. Ligon, which was presented to the school as a gift from the 1932 class of the Washington High School.

METHOD NEWS NOTES

BY MISS DORA D. STROUD
METHOD—The services at Our Baptist Church were very good last Sunday. Rev. B. Thompson was in charge and he preached a powerful sermon on prayer. Everyone in the congregation seemed to enjoy the wonderful message from the young man of God.

The services of Berry O.K. School held a Baby Contest in the school auditorium Sunday, November 12. The contest was won by Mrs. K. Pender, who first prize and second prize went to Bessie Mae Hart. Other babies in the contest were Barbara Lee Jeffers, Edna B. Portford, Dianne Wadler, and J. A. Holaday, former president of Christian College, Franklin N. C. gave a launching ceremony at Durham, N. C.

WENDELL NOTES
WENDELL—Carver Elementary School held a pre-Halloween Festival on October 28th. It was a night of fun and enjoyment for everyone present. The patrons came out in large numbers.

The program opened with a grand march, which was a hilarious affair. Many novel and amusing costumes were worn on parade. Each class contributed numbers for the program.
