Court News

RALEIGH — At a hearing before Magistrate H. A. Blank, Monday, four men were bound over to Wake Superior Court to stand trial on charges of breaking and entering and larceny. The defendants were listed as Robert Williams, 17; John Swain, 24; Tom Wilson, 24; and James Perry, 30. They were picked up Monday by Sheriff's deputies and charged with breaking into the cabin of Trint Bagdasarian, a Mercedes Township. The alleged crime took place on November 7, and a quantity of meat valued at $75 was missing from the Raleigh house.

The boards of Swain and Wilson were each set at $500 and $200 bonds were set for Perry and Williams. The Magistrate of Durham was presented to 12 months on the bonds by Judge Albert Doherty. The Magistrate of Durham was also ordered to return an over-
