

Sister Gary Plans Gala 9th Anniversary For Chorus

The Reverend Mabel Gary, of church and radio fame, will bring to the Memorial Auditorium Sunday afternoon, the largest array of musical talent presented to Raleigh for a long time to aid in celebrating the ninth anniversary of the All-Girl Chorus of Grace AME Zion Church, of which she is the pastor.

The program will get underway at 3 p. m. and will feature the Davis Sisters of Philadelphia, Myrtle Jackson, Chicago and the FAYETTEVILLE GIRL FTA SECRETARY — Pictured here is Miss Dorothy Little, one of the most active students on the campus at the Fayetteville State Teachers College, Fayetteville, N. C. She is a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and was recently elected to serve as Recording Secretary of the North Carolina unit of the Future Teachers of America. Miss Little hails from Ruby, South Carolina and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Little of that city. She is a senior at Fayetteville Teachers College and looks forward to the beginning of her teaching career upon the completion of her work for the bachelor's degree in June.

Vicki Young, a popular singer featured on Capitol Records, was discovered playing drums in a San Bernardino, California, night club.

9. He speaks and men look up and live no other has this power; He lifts them from their morbid sleep and strengthens every hour.

10. Knowledge of Him is a priceless thing... it is the bridge spanning earth and heaven, and howling tempests must subside when His mastery orders are given.

11. His "Peace, Be Still" is that living voice even now controlling earth and sea... and when we have knowledge of Him that applies to you and me.

12. That knowledge then let magic charm; it can heal the us all get... it works a sin-sick and weary, yes, can protect every soul from all harm.

STATE TEACHERS AT SCIENCE MEET

FAYETTEVILLE — The teachers of Science at the Fayetteville State Teachers College, Fayetteville, N. C. attended the annual meeting of Eastern Regional Conference of the National Institute of Science held at Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C. on Saturday January 9, 1954. The theme of the meeting was "Science and Religion at Mid-Century".

Mrs. Mae H. Seabrook, first lady of the campus, and Professor of Biology at the Fayetteville State Teachers College was one of the symposium speakers. Other Fayetteville Science Teachers in attendance were Mrs. Cynthia S. Bond, Elwood W. Nichols, Robert

IN ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

The above group is the All-Girls Chorus, Grace AME Zion Church, pastored by Sister Mable Gary, dynamic radio preacher, which will celebrate their 9th anniversary in a mammoth musical program at the Memorial Auditorium, here, Sunday afternoon. The chorus has been a feature of the weekly broadcasts that have originated from the church, every Sunday, for 10 years.
