

Trometown News And Views

Alamance County Round-up

By Miss Alma Ross Keck
44 E. Harden Street
Graham, N. C.

OBAMA — Final rites were held for Mrs. Mamie Ellen Pearson, 91, of Route 1, Mebane, Thursday, at Hunter's Chapel Methodist Church. Rev. S. C. Hopkins officiated.

Mrs. Swann was a native of Orange County and the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jasper DeWitt. She was a member of Hunter's Chapel Church.

Survivors include one son, Fred Swann of Route 1, Mebane; two daughters, Mrs. Lydia Moore of Mebane and Mrs. Cassie Mebane; one sister, Mrs. Ora Franklin of Elford and one brother, Arthur McDade of Elford.

PERSONALS

Joe John T. Ruffitt has returned to Camp Gordon, Ga. after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ruffitt of Hwy. 107, Road 2, Club News.

Mrs. Fossena E. Keck of 334 East Harden St. was hostess to the Blue Club recently.

A delicious plate dinner was served to guests before three progressions of pinocchle were enjoyed.

Members present were Messdames Conale Banks, Mary Shanks, Julia Brown, Ann Thompson, Leora Trollinger, Grace Whitted, Mary Mitchell, Elaine Thompson, W. I. Morris, Mabel Poole, Magdalene Harris, Miss Juanita King and the hostess.

Prizes awarded were first, Mrs. Shanks; second, Mrs. Grace White; third and fourth, Mrs. Magaline Harris.

PINE PARK

BY MISS DAISY WASHINGTON

PINE PARK—This is your report for the week of May 8 and is based on social and personal events.

You can depend on us at Pine Park Store as your one-stop summer pleasure place.

Our teen-age baseball team is now playing its regular games. So for your summer pleasure, drive straight to Pine Park. The phone number is 401-3.

Mrs. Pearl Foville of Kellumtown plans to give her open-air party in our park sometime during this month. We are unable to give you the exact date at this time, so for more information consult Mrs. Foville.

Some bills may be passed out concerning the party mentioned above.

Why worry yourself with backing your letters with pencil or pen when they can be typed here at our store for a very small price. We furnish everything but your address, so hurry and bring or send your material to us.

Mrs. Nora Ornel of Waterbury, Conn., spent a few days in our community visiting relatives and friends recently.

Mrs. Mabel Johnson and her school group recently visited our park.

To get your free local telephone call, simply call us here at the Pine Park Store. We are open from 11 a. m. until 8 p. m. Monday through Saturday. On Sunday we are open from 1:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Quite a few persons have been added to Mrs. E. Chadwick's and Mrs. Mamie J. Harris's hairdresser lists. These persons received their appointments by telephone.

Miss Belinda Humphrey has been appointed head coach of the girls' basketball team. Miss Humphrey is also a member of our florist committee.

When this report was copied, persons holding card numbers 2, 15 and 43 were our panel members for this week.

Lockhart School News

The Lockhart pre-school clinic was held Monday April 26 at the school. There were over fifty bright-eyed youngsters who eagerly awaited their turn to receive their examination.

The clinic was a success and we shall look forward toward seeing these beginners next fall. They are: Cordelius Troublier, Walter Artis Taylor, Christine Burnett, Maxine Rainey, Virdele Brides, Carol Ann Tyler, Lovetha Peacock, Deloris O'Neal, Margaret Ann Tyler, Lorine White, Edward Lewis Hines, Frances Cates, James Robert Lucas, Leon William Jones, Percy Leon Lane, Elijah Jones, Edna L. O'Neal, Sandra Fay Bryant, Phyllis Ann Ferrell, Frank K. Lucas, Catherine Champion, Ethel Mae Young, James Robert Todd, Dalphine Price, Walter Hinton, Jr., Otis Hiner, Patricia Ann Cannady, Mary Joyce Graham, Jimmie Holden, Hazel Marie Staten, Vernell Brides, Dwight O. Mitchell, Charles Darnell Robertson, Kelly I. Lewis, Priscilla Manning, Martha Lois Sanders, Charles Herbert Young, Neva Ruth Robertson, Tony Mial, Sarah Elizabeth Williams, Mary Ann Bridges, Donnie Beckwith, James Edward Asbury, Ethel Mae Young, Clifton Rufus Dunn, Cephus Robinson, Jr., Clifton Barnes, and Dorothy Ree Lane.

The first grade B pupils gave a short playlet, entitled "The King Who Was Sad" recently.

The second and third grades have a contest to see which one can sell the largest number of May Day tickets. Miss Mae Bass is leading now and everyone is wondering who will be May Queen.

The Second Grade A children gave two one act plays in chapel Friday morning. The titles were: "Father Comes Home" and "Telling Time".

The fourth grade pupils are enjoying making waste baskets. The baskets are made from egg pads. Two pieces are fastened together for a round basket and four pieces for a square shaped basket.

One group is designing beach hats. The materials used are tagboard, crayola, crepe paper and elastic. The hats are very colorful with pictures of birds, butterflies and flowers.

In the fifth grade A we are doing many things of interest. We are discussing the Amazon jungle and have found that many animals live there. Some of them are: anteaters, wild pigs, monkeys, foxes, skunks, wild cats, deer, raccoons, snakes, alligators and turtles.

We have enjoyed the Weekly Readers this year. We enjoyed most of all the story about Roy Rogers and his smart horse, Trigger. Roy Rogers and Trigger went to England on an airplane recently.

The Fourth Grade pupils have been making preparations for their May Day Activity. They have been busy making costumes and learning their steps in the flower dances.

The members of the Sixth Grade are busy learning their dance for May Day. They are: Claude F. Hinton, Jerry White, Mary H. High, Beatrice Mial, James T. Dunn, Julia M. Jones, Cesselia Wiggins and Dorothy M. Montague.

Goldsboro News

By Miss Eunice M. Whitted
426 Miller Street

GOLDSBORO — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearsall of Washington, D. C. are visiting their mother, Mrs. Lola Pearsall, 806 Slaughter St. Mr. Pearsall is employed in the mail service in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Swift of Washington were Easter guests in the city. Mrs. Swift is the former Miss Mozella Bass.

School Street School presented its annual School Closing Play in the Dillard High School Auditorium Monday, April 26.

The production was a three act opera entitled "The Heart of the Forest."

Little Miss Cora Ann Hoggans gave the story of the Operaetta.

Members of the cast were as follows: Henrietta Johnson, Lorena Thornton, Doris Lane, Beth Simms, Ernestine Howell, Ruth Williams, Norma Coley, Thomas Wooten, Thomas Arrington, and Kathryn Hicks.

The play was directed by Mrs. M. B. Coley and Mrs. M. M. Houston.

Costumes were designed by Mrs. A. P. Jordan, S. L. Simmons, A. S. Hoggans, and L. B. Frederick. Dances were under the direction of Mrs. C. P. House, Mrs. E. W. Wooten, and Miss A. M. Overby. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. L. J. Foster and Miss A. E. Bunn.

Miss Juanita Moore, registered nurse at Clinton Memorial Hospital has returned to her work after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Flossie Moore at 904 Carter Drive, who is ill.

Arthur Hall, of Baltimore, Md., was a recent visitor in the city. While here he was the guest of Mrs. Carrie Dixon on School Street and Mrs. Madessa Jones on Alvin St.

Mr. Hezekiah Sears, of Pikeville Community died April 22nd after a brief illness.

Mr. Sears, a lifelong resident of the Community, was an active member of the Hooks Grove Church where he served many years as sexton. Funeral services were conducted from the Hooks Grove Church of Pikeville, April 26, with the Rev. B. J. Daniels, of Goldsboro, officiating.

He is survived by his mother,

Mrs. Mary Sears, of Pikeville; 4 sisters, Mrs. Charity Mitchell and Mrs. Eva Howell of Pikeville; Mrs. Essie Simpson of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Mrs. L. P. Tucker, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; three brothers, Edward, David, Eugene Sears, all of Brooklyn, N. Y. Burial was in Hooks Grove Cemetery.

Henry Leo Stokes died recently in Philadelphia. His body arrived Saturday morning in Goldsboro. Funeral services were conducted from the Hamilton Funeral Home Chapel. Burial was in Princeton Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Stokes and four daughters, Misses Catherine, Dorothy, Laura Stokes, and Mrs. John Sherard all of Philadelphia, one brother, Robert Stokes of Portsmouth, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson of New York City are visiting his mother, Mrs. Eunice Thompson on Greenleaf St.

Luther Dawson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dawson, Sr., of 795 W. Elm St. is the newest Carolinian Carrier in Goldsboro. Young Dawson is 8 years old and is in the second grade at School Street School.

Mr. T. C. Coley who has been ill at his home at 412 Canal St. is reported to be much improved.

Captain Marshall Bass, of the U. S. Army, and a former student of Dillard High School was a recent visitor in the city.

Rev. R. Irvin Hoone, pastor of Central Baptist Church of Wilmington was a visitor at Dillard High School recently.

Rev. J. A. Forbes, director of the Bible Training Institute, of Goldsboro, will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday May 23, at Carter High School. Mr. Olive, North Carolina. Commencement exercises will be held May 25th.

The president of the Dillard Alumni Association, Mrs. Madessa Clark Barnes, wishes to announce to all Dillard graduates that a tea is being planned for the second Sunday in May at 5 p. m. in the Dillard cafeteria. You are invited to come and sip tea and chat with other Dillard grads who are mutually interested in their Alma Mater. Dillard Graduates who live out of town are invited to return for an evening of pleasure.

OBERLIN SCHOOL NEWS REPORTS

Arthur Dunston, Reporter

On Friday morning, the boys and girls enjoyed a special play assembly program during their assembly period.

Dariene Andrews, first grade, gave a reading. The boys and girls of second and third grades sang two spring songs. Bernice Johnson, second grade, gave a reading. The tonette groups, made up of fourth grade pupils, played two selections. Robert Fryson and Doris Jenkins, fourth grade, sang a duet. Nellie Peables and Geraldine Caphart played instrumental solos. Barbara Turner also played an instrumental solo. Little Mae Harris, eighth grade, read a poem and Geraldine Joyner sang a solo. Juanita Blount gave a talk on "The Importance of Getting an Education."

Simon Edmondson, our delegate to the Older Boys' Conference at Charlotte, gave a very fine report.

On Thursday a group of patrol boys will leave for Washington, D. C. This is an annual trip sponsored by the Civitan Club and the Raleigh Police Department.

We are inviting parents and friends to attend our May Day exercises on Thursday, May 6th at 1:30 p. m.

to the above address for publication.

QUESTION: Can a forage crop disease be controlled?

ANSWER: Yes, like other plant diseases, they can be controlled. The selection and breeding of forage legumes and grasses resistant to one or more diseases is the most effective method of control.

Kinston News Notes

By HENRY C. MITCHELL

KINSTON (M18)—The Junior Class of Woodington High School honored the Senior Class with their annual Junior-Senior Prom, April 23rd.

Miss D. L. Moye, the Junior class advisor, directed the class in planning a most successful prom. Visitors from Adkins High School were present.

Mr. S. Carraway has been elected by the Lenior County Teachers' Unit, to represent the county at the N.E.A. meeting which will be held in New York in June.

The faculty members and the high school basketball team played a spell-binding game for the students Wednesday, April 21.

The following teachers played: Mesdames R. Outlaw, C. M. Gatling, M. Loomis, Misses E. Gray, N. Davis, E. Dove, Mr. G. Bethel, Henry and Howard.

The eighth grade class consisting of 20 students and their advisors, Misses N. Davis and E. Gray recently toured the Greenville Television station.

Mr. Eck Walls, production manager, conducted the class on the tour. The students were taken to the reception room, makeup room, the audition room and the other rooms in the building.

On May 1st, the Senior Class visited Shaw University. Seniors from all parts of North Carolina were on the campus.

Other classes have taken bus trips to various places such as the museum in Raleigh, the Planetarium in Chapel Hill, the State asylum for insane in Goldsboro and Camp Lejeune.

On April 27th the high school glee club under the direction of Mrs. Loomis presented a three-act opera, entitled "Bobby Lou".

On April 30th a very colorful May Day exercise was given at the school. Each class represented one month of the year.

On May 10th, the grammar grade department, under the direction of Mesdames C. M. Gatling, E. Patterson and E. Bryant will present a three-act opera entitled "The Season of Happiness."

On May 11th, the eighth grade graduation exercise will be held. Misses Davis and Gray are the class advisors.

May 12th will be senior Class Day.

On May 13th Commencement exercises will be held at 8 P.M. The speakers will be students having the highest scholastic averages: Marion Hawkins, Deloris Patterson, Francis Miller, Jerome Patterson and David Plummer.

The Adkins High School Hi-Y club which is supervised by E. S. Houston, attended the Older Boys 24th Annual Conference held in Charlotte April 23-25. The club carried 17 of its members to the

Wilson News

BY REV. G. W. LITTLE
624 E. GREEN STREET

WILSON—The Rev. E. L. Harky of Kinston was the guest speaker at the Wilson Chapel Free Will Baptist Church on the first Sunday night in May. He was accompanied by the choir and congregation of the Kinston church.

This service was sponsored by the Faithful Sisters Club of the local church. The Rev. C. C. Thomas is pastor. The public is invited to attend.

KENLY NEWS

Regular services were conducted at the New Bethel Holiness Church on the fourth Sunday in April. A surprise birthday supper was given in honor of Miss Christine Singletary recently. A delicious supper was enjoyed by all who attended.

Special Mother's Day services will be conducted at the Mizpah Chapel Free Will Baptist Church on Sunday, May 9, 1954. Ministerial services will be conducted at 9 a. m. on Sunday morning followed by Sunday School at 10 a. m. At 11:30 the regular worship will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Little.

The church secretary is L. W. Parker and the senior deacon is W. O. Barnes.

GREENVILLE NEWS

Mrs. L. R. Taylor
210 Tyson Street

along with rounded spelling devices and techniques for teaching more spelling.

She has been in Fleming Street School in the morning, and at C. M. Eppel in the afternoon.

Fleming Street School was favored by the Grade Mothers taking care of the classes while the mothers sat in on the spelling lessons.

Mothers and the grades they represented were: Grade 1B, teacher, Mrs. L. B. Gorden; Mother, Mrs. M. Daniels and A. Harker; 2B, teacher, Mrs. B. C. Taylor; mother, Mrs. Mary Moore, 2B, Mrs. B. H. Beckwith, teacher; mother, Mrs. Laura Barnes; 1A, teacher, Mrs. A. H. Armstrong; mother, Mrs. V. H. Williamson; 3B, teacher, Mrs. E. P. Cook; mother, Mrs. Anna Barnes; 4B, teacher, Mrs. L. J. Shanks; mother, Mrs. Minnie Edmond; 4-B Mrs. L. Taylor; mother, Mrs. Bessie Barrett.

The Greenville Chapter of the National City State Teachers' Association presented the "Cakes of Flavors of Mr. Olive in the Morning" at a three day symposium, by Margie Corbin Allen, on Monday evening, April 26 at C. M. Eppel auditorium.

It was full of dramatic interest and exciting fun from beginning to end.

The players are commended for their wonderful performance which every viewer enjoyed.

The director was Mrs. N. G. Washington. Student director was Miss Virginia Kelly. Properties were: James and Thomas Robinson.

The actors were: Robert Korogly, Emma Martin, Margaret Wain, Donald Faison, Betty Hunter, William Robinson, Mary Lane, Thomas Robinson and Donald Powell.

We hope they will come to us again next year.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Mary Viles of Baltimore was a recent visitor in our city.

She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Taylor. While here she visited her mother, Mrs. C. A. Rumbaugh. She returned last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fred Clarke of Philadelphia, Pa., were weekend visitors in Greenville. Mrs. Mrs. Maybelle E. Davis of Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

DEATHS

Mr. W. K. Shine and Mr. Isaac McCoy died recently and was interred last week.

SICK FRIENDS at Mrs. Winnie Corbett will be glad to know that she is improving after a fall last week.

This week brought Applied Water by the home will help bring happiness.

50-SECOND PROFILE

FRANK DAVIS—Tall, serious bass-baritone with the Fred Waring phenomenon. Frank is a native of New Orleans, where during a recent Waring appearance he was presented with the official gold key to that city. An ex-Navy veteran, Frank gained Waring's attention as a member of New Orleans's Xavier University chorus. Singing songs like "Jesus Walked the Loneome Valley" and "O! Man River," he drew the season's top mail during the Waring "Varsity Showcases" competition in 1951-52, shortly after signed a regular Waring contract. Frank sends home weekly reports on the "big city" to his family in Plaquemine, La., where his minister father has a small church. He enjoys movies, reading, theater and table tennis. You hear him on the Waring E! Show, Sunday nights, CBS-TV.

Method News

By MISS DORA D. STROUD

METHOD—Services at Christian Tabernacle Church were very good last Sunday. Rev. Haywood always brings inspiring sermons to his congregation.

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon a Mother's Day service will be held at Oak City Baptist Church under the supervision of Miss Susan Wilcox.

At 7 P.M. a program for Mothers Day will be observed at St. James AME Church by the Junior Church, followed by presiding services conducted by Sister Mary Frazier.

May Day exercises will be held on the Berry O'Kelly School campus Friday afternoon, May 7th. Parents and patrons are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith entertained for their dinner guests on Sunday. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Gaylord and Little son, Mr. and Mrs. George Clenshaw, Jr. and Little daughter and Mrs. Wilberine Sills. All present spent an enjoyable afternoon.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Lucy Lockhart has returned to her home. Even St. James Hospital where she recently was for treatment. Our other sick contribute about the same.

Mrs. A. C. Parrish and Little Karen Bethena have returned to their home from a visit in Washington, D. C.

They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson and sons.

Fuquay Springs News

By Roy C. Street

FUQUAY SPRINGS—The Fuquay Consolidated School presents "The Chorus Group" in a recital on Sunday afternoon, May 9 at 4:00 in the High School Auditorium. The chorus group will be under the direction of Mr. F. Raymond. Don't miss this feast of music and remember that young men who are performing and they request your presence.

The PTA of the Consolidated School of Fuquay will present the "Bible Young Center's Varsity and Minstrel Show" on Monday evening, May 10, at 8:00. This is a fast moving show filled with songs to come out for an evening of fun. Advance tickets can be obtained.

Sunday is pastoral day at Saint Augustines and Roberts Chapel. Go to the church of your choice.

The Fuquay Consolidated School presents "The Chorus Group" in a recital on Sunday afternoon, May 9 at 4:00 in the High School Auditorium. The chorus group will be under the direction of Mr. F. Raymond. Don't miss this feast of music and remember that young men who are performing and they request your presence.

The PTA of the Consolidated School of Fuquay will present the "Bible Young Center's Varsity and Minstrel Show" on Monday evening, May 10, at 8:00. This is a fast moving show filled with songs to come out for an evening of fun. Advance tickets can be obtained.

Sunday is pastoral day at Saint Augustines and Roberts Chapel. Go to the church of your choice.

William Penn Blended Whiskey

Retail Price
$2.10
Pints
$3.35
Fifths

86 Proof

The Longer I Live, the more I find that people are like coins—when life tests them, they bounce!

BREEZY

I DIDN'T KNOW I'D TAKE SO LONG AND IT'S ONLY HALF-FINISHED!

GOSH, I'VE GOTTA THINK THIS OUT—THERE MUST BE AN EASIER WAY?

HI, SPOT!

ON BOY! HERE COMES A BREEZY IDEA!

GOSH, IT'S LOTS OF FUN PAINTING, I NEVER KNEW IT WAS SUCH FUN!

—AND DIG THAT COZY ROUTINE 'LOTS OF FUN!' WOTTA LAFF!

WELL, SPOT! IT LOOKS LIKE YOU'RE THE ONLY FRIEND I'VE GOT... IF YOU COULD ONLY...

—AND DIG THAT COZY ROUTINE 'LOTS OF FUN!' WOTTA LAFF!

WELL, SPOT! IT LOOKS LIKE YOU'RE THE ONLY FRIEND I'VE GOT... IF YOU COULD ONLY...

Asbury

By Mrs. Bertha Rogers

ASBURY—The rally held at Lincolntonville A. M. E. Church May 2, was quite successful. Rev. C. W. Parker was the speaker for the occasion.

Regular services will be held Sunday May 11, beginning at 11:00 o'clock. Music will be rendered by the senior choir. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this service.

Mrs. William Hicks was honored with a baby shower May 2, at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Calso Hicks. She received many lovely and useful gifts.

Mrs. Della Hooker, also Mr. Nathaniel Hooker, Sr., will celebrate their birthday this month.

Pvt. Cleveland Hicks was home last weekend. He is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Let us not forget to visit the sick. Miss Emmanuelle Hooker is ill at her home.

KONGOLENE IS THE ORIGINAL HAIR STRAIGHTENER AND STILL LEADING AFTER 40 CONSECUTIVE YEARS...

For straightening shorter strands up to 4 inches

6 OZ. TUBES 65¢
4 OZ. TUBES 50¢
2 OZ. TUBES 35¢

Leaders for 40 years!

With KONGOLENE STRAIGHTENER BE SURE TO USE... KONGOLENE PRE-CREME 35¢ KONGOLENE BLACK RINSE 45¢

If your druggist cannot supply you order direct from KONGOLENE CHEMICAL CO., INC. 204 WEST 125th Street NEW YORK, N. Y.