

600 Scouts Attend Camporee At Whispering Pines

QUESTION: Can forest crop diseases be controlled?
ANSWER: Yes, like other plant diseases, they can be controlled. The selection and breeding of forest legumes and grasses resistant to one or more diseases is the most effective method of control.

OFFICIALS SAY CAMPOREE WAS "BEST YET" ...

Around 1,000 persons were here last weekend to attend the Conecotee Council Divisional Camporee at Camp Whispering Pines. More than 600 Boy Scouts from the twelve-county Council spent Friday afternoon to Sunday morning.

Successful Men's Gallery Elects 18 Negro Members

There are now 18 Men of Distinction in the Lord Calvert gallery of "Successful Men."

The campaign inaugurated by Calvert Distillers Corporation almost three years ago now includes some of the most famous men in Negro America, each of whom began from humble beginnings to become tops in their respective chosen fields of endeavor.

Probably the currently best known of the "Men of Distinction" on the Calvert roster is Mr. Archie A. Alexander, builder of numerous powerhouses, bridges, and roads, as well as the Whitehurst Freeway and Third Basin Bridge in Washington. He was recently named by President Dwight D. Eisenhower as Governor of the Virgin Islands.

Other famous names among the "Men of Distinction" are: Mr. William C. Wingate, manufacturing chemist of Philadelphia; Mr. Fred Jones, engineer of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Mr. Norman Houston, President, Golden State Mutual of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. Edward Davis, one of the Walden Astors.

Kid Gavilan

People often wonder how a championship fighter can hold back enough strength to score a late-round knockout. The answer is simple: a good fighter paces himself. So does anyone else who wants to put his best into his job... and get the best out of it. Pacing is an important part of success. When you've been piling up the minutes and hours of steady work, good sense calls for a break. That's when people everywhere reach for frosty bottles of delicious ice-cold Coca-Cola. After "the pause that refreshes" with a bottle of Coke, they go back to work... or back to play... refreshed.

Follow the Champions. Have a Coke... and Keep Plenty at Home
