GREENSBORO — The seven member clubs of The Negro Council of Garden Clubs of Greensboro will sponsor a combination Horticulture and Arrangement Show at the Sears Roebuck Garden Center August 3.

Five prizes of $1.00 will be awarded the double blue ribbon winners. Blue, red and yellow ribbons for first, second and third places respectively will also be awarded.

Judging of the entries will take place at 10 a. m. and the show will be open to the public at 11:00.

Clubs taking part in the show are: The Garden Club of The Greensboro, The Fuchsia, The Rosebud, The Galena Bell, and The Planter.

SUNSHINE BAND
 Approximately 250 were feted at a dinner in the church basement following the closing of the New Light Baptist Church Bible School and Sunshine Band meeting at the Church Sunday afternoon.

The message of the evening was delivered by the Rev. James H. Harbert of the city.

METROPOLITAN COUNCIL OF NEGRO WOMEN
 The Metropolitan Council of Negro Women is sponsoring a "Parade of States" pageant to raise money for the mortgage on the Council-sponsored nursery home. The pageant, to be presented in October, has each of the 48 states represented by a "governor" whose duty is to raise money in the name of that state. Prizes will be given to the three representatives having the largest amounts of money over $700.

UNITED FELLOWSHIP
 The United Fellowship of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will hold its annual picnic Thursday in Burlington. The group will leave the city by chartered bus at 8:30 a. m.

COMMUNITY PROGRESSIVE CLUB
