OUT OF EXILE.—The Kabaka of Nuganda (a province of south-east Uganda protectorate, East Africa) is shown in his London residence after being informed that he can return to his country subject to certain conditions, and if Uganda's parliament agrees. The Kabaka has been in exile in England since he was deposed by British in year ago. (Newspress J-10)

Raleigh YWCA Branch Scene Of Stirring Address By Tennessean

On Sunday, November 21, Mr. Winston Evans of Nashville, Tenn., who recently attended the World Council of Churches Assembly in Evanston, Ill. and who was instrumental in bringing to many of the delegates of that assembly the great message of hope enshrined within the Bahai World Faith, spoke on "The Promise of All Ages" at the Sojourner Truth YWCA Branch.

God down through the ages... usher in the Kingdom of God on Earth has brought the... print for the building of a... society based on the... God, the oneness of His... and the oneness of man... by which the nations... perfect unity and happiness.

Mr. Evans stated that the subjects most dealt with at the Assembly were "The Return of Christ," "Christ's Coming Again," "The End of History," and "The End of An Age," and that there was quite a difference of opinion over these issues between the European and the American Theologians. He went on to say that while those of us who are Fundamentalists are still looking for the literal return of the Lord and those who are Liberals have overlooked this point of view entirely, a great event in the history of mankind has taken place in the last century, which has brought to the world a new era of consciousness and religious unity. This event, the proclamation of Bahaiullah to be the One promised by all the Prophets of

The Bahai Teachers explain that the allusions made in all the Holy Books to the time of His and have meant the closing of one era, and the beginning of a new one. In the Bahai message, we are told, "Lift up your hearts above the present and look with eyes
