This teenage romance lasted only a few days, however, but it triggered her interest in the outside world. Did she really want to become with all its gayety, romance and fer the sheltered life of the convent which had now become a part of her? Understandably she was confused, Marilyn writes, so she sought advice from her father who suggested she renounce the life of a nun and also steer clear of snow business. Marilyn followed only half of her father's advice. She quit the convent but on and for more than a year toured the East appearing in the better With her enthusiasm dampened

NEW YORK GLOBALI-Paul Williams and his big band clicking on the current big Rhythm and Blues Show. Williams' band is now being sought to play a top New York Hotel. James' "How Important Can H Be" is now number 14 among the nation's top sellers . Nat Cole scored two weeks ago on the Colagte Comedy Hour Eartha Eitt's play "Mrs. Patterson" closing the end of this month. A short run. We call it Eartha's play because the critics and audiences alike agree that

Miss Kitt is the whole show. Bill Dogett is the man responsible for bringing the Hammond Organ into the popular realm in today's modern music, both on records and in person He stole the show in Pietsburgh two weeks ago, playing to an overflow crowd. He is slated for the West Coast the first part of May. Meanwhile he will play Walapuaje in Atlanta, Ga. April 19 thru April 24

Betty Madigan did a one-week stint on the Breakfast Club in Chicago ... Harry Belafonte is clicking at New York's Copa. He has been signed by Paul Gregory for a leading role in the film version of Eugene O'Neil's "The Emperor Jones" ... Tom Ed-wards, disk jockey of station WERE in Cleveland, Ohio, says, "The kids are burning my ears past couple of days, those who are home after exams. I refuse to play R&B tunes on my show. Housewives are with me and prefer the more sedate tunes I play. Biggest records in town are Earth Angel, Ko Ko Mo and Rock Love. I'm not having any, thank you." Cash Box (the music trade paper) answered by saving: "Tom, it's the kids burning your ears who are the record buying public." MGM showing the most excitement R&B-wise, in a long time with the platter of Claud Cloud and his Thunderclaps playing "Cloudburst" and Baby Dee's "When I Cry" Ruth Brown, proud mother of a new little baby boy, is all set to return to the night club circuit.
