FATHER AND SON IN GUN BATTLE

LUCKY AUTO OWNER The lucky car last week was the one bearing the tag num-ber, X93-146. If the owner of that car took it to Dunn's Esso Service, corner Cabarrus and Bloodworth Streets, here in Raleigh, he received a free grease

This will happen every week. Watch for your tag number. If it follows the asterisk, you will get the grease job. The number will be taken from any car bearing a N. C. license The numbers this week are: 50-685: 945-675; *R54-605; 299-598; 300-930 and X76-020.

HE CAROLINIAN

10c

North Carolina's Leading Weekly ...

10c

VOLUME 14

RALEIGH, N. C. WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1955

NUMBER 28

Teachers 'Goat' In Contract Hassle

Missing For 6 Months:

Raleigh Backyard Yields Decayed Body Of Man

State News Brief

To Organize City Band Members of Fidelity Lodge No. 277. Elks, have launched a drive in Raleigh to organize a community concert and marching hand. This organization would be at the disposal of local groups desirous of sponsoring civic af-fairs. Interested persons with to contact L. S. Wilcox, Elks Home, 619 E. Davie Street, Rabe limited to men, but will wel-

Shot In The Eye. Dies MANTEO - John Davis Scarborough, local resident, was bound over to Superior Court last Friday after receiving a preliminary hearing on a charge of slaying Ephraim Daniels, Jr., with a .22 calibre rifle. Scarborough, who has been in jail since the shooting. March 2, pleaded not guilty. Daniels was shot in the eye and died almost instantly. The state introduced three witneses. Sheriff Frank Cahoon, who investigated, said that at the time of the arrest Scarborough admitted shooting Daniels and repeated that statement the following morning, when he added that he intended to shoot over (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

A typical detective story ending was written on police files here Sunday morning as to the whereabouts of James Wilson, 25, former local taxi cab driver of 608 Cumberland Avenue, whose decayed remains were exhumed from a shallow grave in a backvard as would-be church goers and sabbath strollers alike laid aside their current business to converge on this usually quiet neighborhood, located just outside the city limits off the Rock Quarry Road.

A murder investigation has been launched because a dog dug up a bone in the back-yard of 1104 Rock Quarry Road, which later turned out to be a portion of the skele-Wilson, who was reported missing last September 18. The beginning of the story, as leigh. Mr. Wilcox told the CAR- far as the police could ascertain, OLINIAN that the band will not was written on the above date when Wilson reportedly was in a come female members also. The fight with Edward Andrews, betdate of the first rehearsal will ter known as "Smokey", of 613 be publicized in the near future. E. Davie Street. The fight is alleged to have taken place at the home of Mrs. Sarah Curtis on the Rock Quarry Road.

Someone took young Wilson to Saint Agnes Hospital following the encounter where he was treated for knife wounds in his face. The man then allegedly returned to his residence and no further information as to his whereabouts were known until Sun-

Police are seeking Andrews for questioning in Wilson's death. The 35-year-old suspect has been heard from only once since the night of the fight. He is suspected in the shooting of John Wesley Barnes of the 400 block of East Davie Street several weeks ago. Barnes suffered only slight wounds.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

JAMES WILSON

To Baby Girl

MORGANTON - Diane Conley,

Burns Fatal

-The body of James Wilson, bottom left, 25-year-old former taxi driver, was dug up Sunday morning in the backyard of a home on the Rock Quarry Road. The crowd in the above photo gathered at Wilson's home, 608 Cumberland Avenue, shortly after news of the discovery was made. Police are seeking Edward (Smokey) Andrews, 35, bottom right, for questioning in connection with the death. Several hundred persons jammed the spacious backyard which is used by several

FIND BODY IN BACKYARD

Stop Beefing and Register

(An Editorial)

Talk in many quarters is that Carl DeVane can't win in the forthcoming May primary.

With this, we agree . . . if so many of us continue maliciously or unknowingly, to set up a defeatist attitude before Mr. 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Conley of Route 2, Ne- DeVane can get an opportunity to "run" or to present himself bo, was burned to death here to the Raleigh public as a councilmanic candidate.

Monday when fire of undetermin-Here in Raleigh, we need to give our Negro candidates a chance. ed origin destroyed their five-From what the CAROLINIAN has heard in other recent campaigns and in this one, Raleigh will never take its place among other cities in North Carolina, which have enjoyed the representation of a Negro on their governing bodies.

Such expressions as "he belongs to the other crowd," "he doesn't represent the people," "who does he think he is?", "he cant' represent sociation ended last Saturday with me," "I'll fight him and his election" and many, many other deroga- the reelection of all officers and tory assertions, keep Raleigh so mixed up and so frustrated until the election of three new memone would believe much of the hogwash could continue throughout generations to come

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

NO-CONTRACT LAW AIMED AT OUR TEACHERS

The legislative proposal to eliminate continuing teacher contracts seeks primarily to reduce the number of Negro teachers in North Carolina, it was learend here this contract for one school year, but under contract unless notified of termination before the school year tracts was not conceived until af-ter the U.S. Supreme Court de-cision last May holding public school segregation to be unconstinowever, Dr. Chanes & carrol state superintendent of public instruction, revealed this week that he had sent out letters to county and city administrative unit head impending legislation to eliminate

Wants "To Be Sure" He said that he made the su pointments for the next se year are not midae before the islature acts upon the propo torney general's office explai that if integration is ordere following the U.S. Supreme Con hearings on April 11, it might "impractical" to hire all of t present corps of Negro teache He made no mention however of any possibility of not hiring any white teachers as a result.

or to the executive committee Dr. W. H. Watson, Raleigh:

D. Armstrong, Rocky

LAST YEAR'S WINNER

istam Craise Caratocci, Edmonth-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Sr., of 817 E. Lenoir Street won the first prize of $300 cash in the First Annual Carnation Bealthy Bahe Contest finals held at the J. W. Ligon Junion-Senior High School on December 6.

the big week when the Carnation Meanwhile, a resolution, spon- Milk Company starts its annual sored by the state administration, search to find Raleigh's healthies asserting that "mixing of the and cutest babies. To the heal races in the public schools within thiest one of all, Carnation wi the state cannot be accomplished award $300.00 in cash. Nineteen and, if attempted, would alienate other lucky sets of parents will public support of the schools to receive cash prizes, too. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8) (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

FATHER AND SON IN GUN BATTLE: BOTH ARE JAILED

Swept to fortune by a winning ticket in the Irish a weepstakes, Sanders Ray, 28, of Chicago enjoys a king-size cigar and flashes $140,000 smile at the news. The packing plant worker de-clared that he wasn't planning any big celebration or lavish spending spree. However, he admitted that he would buy a car, "but nothing big and fance." Newspress Photo)

He Has A $140,000 Smile

GOLDSBORO (MIE) lather and son, the father had a rifle bullet in a leg and the son a gun show bellet in his left shoulbound over to higher court for trial. According to the story told officers the son's alleged "kid-ding" his father about falling in the river led to the double shoot it shoul whi according to the sen the elder. Seav fell in the river and had to be fished out by his son, who began kidding him

Angered At Taunts According to the story told Denuty Sheriff Roy Precise, the investigating officer, the threatened to shoot the son after he was angered at the latters com-ments. The son took the father's rifle after the threat.

The son said that the father brooded over the comments and the fact that the rifle was taken and that a day later while he and a companion were at the (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

> GIVE GOD a chance

Attend Church Every Sunday

Offer Of Car Ride Traps Man Sought In Shooting

who has been sought by police in into the automobile and on the a near-fatal shooting which took place here on March 19, was in the custody of police Thursday as the result of a daring ruse by Carter, Chief Deputy Roy Pertains or sparks from an Country Workmen, from rescuing the baby girl.

Assistant Burke County coroner Harry Setzer said that defective wiring or sparks from an

John Henry Leggett was charged with shooting Edward Holt, of Princeton, Route 2, on the night of March 19 as Holt sat in a car in North Goldsboro.

Following the shooting, Holt is reported as having driven the car to the vicinity of the local City Hall, where he collapsed after garnering enough strength to summon aid. He is still said to be in serious condition at Wayne Meprison reported last weekend that morial Hospital from a gun-shot wound in the left side of the face

City Detective Archie Carter said that the shooting was the aftermath of an argument between Holt and Leggett at the home of Major Winn of North George Street. After the argument, Leggett left the residence.

A witness, Miss Pearline Filmore, told Carter that as she and Holt were later starting to leave in a car, Leggett approached with a shotgun which he fired through the window of the car at close

Carter said that Holt's jawhone was shot in two and wadding from the gun shell had to be picked from his ton-

Tuesday William Raynor, years old. ville and offered to bring him to rent pregnancy.

rell were on hand when the car the fire

The child was seated in a stroller while the mother was taking the family cow to pasture. Two other children, ages 3 and 4, ran from the house but the quickly spreading flames prevented efforts of the mother and two highway workmen, from rescuing the cise and Constable Hubert Har- open fireplace could have caused arrived at the store and arrested!

Besides the parents, seven brothers and six sisters survive.

Pregnant White Inmate Puts Blame Upon Trusty

she had been intimate with a Negro male trusty on the prison grounds and is now pregnant. State Prisons Director, William Bailey, confirmed the report that Miss Sue Penland became pregnant last November. The trusty the woman named, Nolton Young er, is being questioned at Central She was entered from Buncombe County in April, 1944 to serve 15-20 years for second degree murder. According to prison records, the young man is mentally disturbed and is said to have been a patient at Dix Hill, the state's white mental hospital. The prisor file states that she was pregnant when she entered prison and that child is now 11

She is reported as saying that last November 25 and 27 she slipped over to a men's restroom, adjoining a boiler room, and had relations with Younger, who is reported as having very fair skin and is a native of Richmond County. The woman has steadfastly insisted that she thought Younger was a white man. The prisons director said that Younger, who is a Central Prison inmate, was assigned to a boiler tending shift at the Woman's Prison laundry Every effort will be made to determine how they were able to carry on their affair, Bailey said. She said she made her arrangements with her tor has examined the woman and attests to her pregnancy. Younger was sentenced from Richmond County in April, 1942 to 18-25 years for manslaughter. Bailey said Miss Penland has His race is listed as Negro, but Goldsboro resident, located Leg- Bailey said Miss Penland has His race is listed as Negro, but gett at a house outside Fayette- told several stories about her cur- prison inmates and guards alike sometime take him to be caucas-lover by notes. A prison doc-

STATE PRESIDENT AD-DRESSES TEACHERS - Mrs. Ida H. Duncan, president of the North Carolina Teachers Association, is shown last Thursday night in a welcome address to teachers from all sections of I while Dr. S. E. Duncan, state the state. Approximately 3,000 delegates attended the 74th annual convention which lasted for three days. Dr. W. L. Greene, executive secretary of the body, is pictured at the extreme left.

supervisor of secondary education, is shown second from left. Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, psychologist of the College of the City of New York, served as expert consultant to the meeting.

Doomed, Teachers Told Mount, were named to the executive committee. Also approved by the convention was a budget of $58,-000, including a grant of 5,000 to the Hammock's Beach

Anti-Integration Moves

The sessions, which got under-way Thursday, were sparked with H. E. Brown, Whiteville and addresses by leaders in several Dariel E. Byrd of New Orleans. National Association for the Ad. Salisbury Ministeria vancement of Colored People, told voted here Monday. the approximately 3,000 delegates North Carolina's recentlypassed school law should not cause concern. The law empowers local to the various schools, Byrd con-

"There is nothing in such a law to become disturbed about (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

SALISBURY-An agreement o the Salisbury-Spencer Ministeria assistant director of teacher in- Association, white, to combine its formation and security for the membership with that of the National Association for the Ad- Salisbury Ministerial Alliance, was President of the association, the Rev. Thom Blair, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, said that while no roll-call vote was taken, a large majority of the membership favored the union. Approval of the merger had reviously been given by the al-(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

Leaders Ask Ike To Stop JC In U.S. Housing

teen prominent national leaders Among them are:

The leaders charged that some opponents of school integration have trankly stated that they hope to achieve their ends by using federal housing aids to set up ghettes on a large scale." The plea to the President was sent by the National Committee Against Discrimination in Hous-

WASHINGTON (ANP)-Eigh-ling and signed by the 18 leaders. of civic, religious, labor veterans Roy Wilkins, NAACP adminiand educational organizations strator; Lester B. Grainger, Na-called on President Eisenhower tional Urban League executive last week to bar segregation from director; Walter Reuther, presi-all federally-assisted housing pro- dent of the United Automobile Workers CIO; Irving M. Engel, president of the American Jewish

> American Civil Liberties Union. The message asserted that the government continues to grant funds to local housing authorities for the construction of segregated housing (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

Committee and Patrick Murphy

Malin, executive director of the