N. C. Principal Dies

ROCKINGHAM-J. M. Hodge, since 1959, died Wednesday morning in a Chapel Hill hospital. He was considered an educator of statewide note. Mr. Hodge received his B.A. at Shaw University Raleigh, and the M.A. degree at the University of Iowa Funeral services were held in the high school auditorium Sunday at 3 p.m. He is survived by his wife, who teaches the first grade and a daughter, aged 12. The final rites were attended by the school board and city officials.

Prisoner Shot A Warren County prison camp fugitive, shot while attempting to evade recapture, was under treatment Monday at the Central Prison Hospital here. Willie Simmons, the wounded man, of Winnsboro, S. C., broke away from a Warren County road gang last Friday with Charles B. Wilkins of Harrisville. The camp superintendent and a guard came upon the pair last Sat-urday. As the officers closed in, Simmons ran. The officers allegedly fired twice, and Simmons was struck in the legs. Prison doctors told Prisons Director William Bailey Monday that Simmons was not seriously hurt. The prisoner was sentenced from Mecklenburg County last March to 15-20 years for arson and 30 days for assault on a female. His prison record shows that he is wanted in South Carolina. 1,000 At Band Festival
