

MARK BASTILLE DAY—Parisians by the thousands and vast numbers of summer tourists lined the Champs-Élysées on Bastille Day as 3,000 soldiers, including units of the colonial Colonial troops and French Army equipment were put in parade. From left: African kings and tribal chiefs (above) who came to Paris as guests of the French government, witnessed the parade from the Distinguished Visitors' stand. (Newspress Photo)

Eleven Children Survive:

Mrs. Pattie Hines Is Dead At 85

BY J. B. HARRIS
BATTLEBORO—Eighty-five years of devoted service to God and humbly ended here last week with the burial of Mrs. Pattie Hines, wife of William Hines, Route 2, Rocky Mount. The deceased had been a resident of the Cold Brook Community most of her adult life and a member of the New Hope Baptist Church for fifty years.

Her children, all of whom survive, Mrs. Hines had spent an active life of service to her community having been "Mother" of New Hope Church for the past eleven years. She was known to be a supporter of all worthwhile community activities. Funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Thomas V. Keady, Sr., in the absence of the pastor, who was ill. A national organization had tribute to Mrs. Hines.

Her children, all of whom survive, Mrs. Hines had spent an active life of service to her community having been "Mother" of New Hope Church for the past eleven years. She was known to be a supporter of all worthwhile community activities. Funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Thomas V. Keady, Sr., in the absence of the pastor, who was ill. A national organization had tribute to Mrs. Hines.

NCC PROFESSOR IN GERMANY

TAT REEL SPEAKS TO GERMANS IN THEIR LANGUAGE—Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, professor of history at the North Carolina College at Durham, is shown here in Germany recently with Mrs. Mildred Alpert, Chief Officer of the Division of Women's Affairs of the U. S. Embassy in West Germany. Dr. Edmonds is currently on a speaking tour of Germany. She is speaking to the Germans in their native language on racial relations issues in the United States.

Blind Woman "Fingers" Attacker

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—A 71-year-old woman, suffering from a cataract which has greatly affected her vision, identified a Negro as the man who entered her home, beat her over the head with a rock and attempted to rape her.

The picture was taken 14 years ago when the accused man was...

BRAZEN BRAVE—Baseball's "miracle team," the Milwaukee Braves, are on the warpath again, and a great deal of credit for this drive to second place in the National League is Hank Aaron, the great sliding home above. Such during base running, as seeing from third on a short fly during the recent Braves-Giants doubleheader in New York (which Milwaukee won), has made Aaron one of the league's most talked-about players. Waiting vainly for the ball here is Wes Westrum, Giants catcher. (Newspress Photo)

Court Gives White Baby To Parents

WASHINGTON—By a unanimous decision, the U. S. Court of Appeals ruled on Thursday that a Negro man admit the six-year-old child of his white wife.

The man, a taxi driver and law student, married the woman in 1951 and they have two children. The child in question was born out of wedlock in 1949 and its white father has never supported the child.

ROME - BOUND HISTORIAN AT NCC—Dr. John Hope Franklin, noted Howard University historian who formerly taught at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, and N. C. College at Durham, is shown here during an informal meeting with two principals in NCC's current summer series, Miss Janice Jones, center, and Dr. J. H. Taylor, left.

Author of three books and numerous articles and reviews on historical subjects, Dr. Franklin will speak in Rome, Italy, during Sept. 4-11 before the 1955 International Congress of Historical Sciences. Miss Jones is Miss NCC of 1954 and Dr. Taylor is director of the NCC Summer School.

Now perfected by ingredients of latest research
POSNER'S BERGAMOT
HAIR CONDITIONER
FOR MEN AND CHILDREN
Ask for the jar with the star! Recommended by Beauticians Everywhere

Don't Miss
E. J. Bird's
Of Raleigh
Big End-Of-The-Month
Clearance
OF GOOD SUMMER FASHIONS THAT CAN BE WORN FOR MONTHS YET!
Thursday! Friday and Saturday!

HEALTH EDUCATORS CLOSE SHOP—One of the most significant summer training programs in the history of the Health Education Department at North Carolina College ended a successful six week workshop session in Durham last week under the leadership of the above educators, left to right: Mrs. Mildred Page, Dr. Ruth Sumner, Dr. Roger Howell, Mrs. Ida J. Gadsden, workshop director; Howard Pitts, NCC; Dr. Maude J. Yancey, Southern University, Baton Rouge, La.; Mrs. L. A. Cannady, secretary; Mrs. Andrew C. Cobb, secretary; and Miss Jean Reberstisch. Interracial in scope, the workshop tackled a variety of health problems in communities. The workshop will be repeated again in the summer of 1956.

SPEAKER AT NCC—Dr. J. Rupert Picott, executive secretary, Virginia Teachers Association, Richmond, Va., will be among the consultants at the sixth Annual Principals-supervisors Conference at North Carolina College, Durham, August 12-13. Sponsored jointly by NCC Summer School and principals conference this year is expected and supervisors in the state, the to attract some 200 principals and supervisors. Dr. Picott will talk on "Uniting Community Forces to Improve Education."

SMITHFIELD NATIVE JOINS NAVY—Charles E. Nechols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nechols of Smithfield, left July 13 to join the Navy. He is a 1955 graduate of the Johnson County Training School, Smithfield and a member of the First Baptist Church there. The Sunday School at First Baptist, in which he was a very active worker, has expressed deep regret at losing him to the service.

DENTAL PREXY—Dr. J. E. Carter, Sr., of Augusta, Ga., president of the National Dental Association, will head a distinguished group of dentists who will attend the 1955 NDA convention in Chicago, Aug. 14-16. Features of the session will include two television demonstrations. Volunteer patients will be subjects for the demonstrations. Dr. Charles M. Thompson, NMA director of international relations and publicity, arranged the program. — (AP)

Cool Cooking Special...
ABOUT $1.95 A WEEK
Buys this

Big value - low cost - full size
FRIGIDAIRE ELECTRIC RANGE
Brooks
APPLIANCE CO.
225 S WILMINGTON ST. PHONE 3-4686

Bourbon de Luxe

$2.45 Pint
$3.85 4.5 Oz.
Kentucky Blended Bourbon Whiskey
86 Proof • 51% Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey • 49% Grain Neutral Spirits • The Bourbon De Luxe Company, Louisville, Ky.