

Dr. Boyer Inaugurated 7th Head Of St. Augustine's

COLLEGE PRESIDENT INAUGURATED AT RALEIGH—Dr. James Alexander Boyer is shown in left photo delivering his inauguration address shortly after he was installed as the seventh president of Saint Augustine's College. In center photo, Bishop Edwin A. Penick, Sr., president of the college's board of trustees, presents a certificate to Dr. Boyer and congratulates him as new president. The Boyer family is shown in right photo. From left to right are Mrs. Emma Perry Boyer, Esther Alethea Boyer, their daughter, and Dr. Boyer.

FAMILY OF THE YEAR—Several members of the Joseph Whitaker family, 807 Manly St., posed for this photo shortly after being named Raleigh's 'Family of the Year' by the Family Service Society. This family was selected because of its devotion to home, cooperation, and church and civic activities. Shown seated are Mrs. Florine Whitaker and Mr. Joseph Whitaker. Standing are Robert Whitaker, 22, who is in the Air Force, and Joreen Whitaker, 16, Ligon School student. Absent were Joseph, 24, U. S. Army; Ralph, 18, Air Force; Rosebud, 15, a college student; and Albert, 15, who attends public school here. (Staff Photo by Chas. R. Jones).

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly...

10c

VOLUME 15 RALEIGH, N. C. WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1956 NUMBER 35

LUCKY AUTO OWNER
The lucky car last week was the one bearing the tag number "WP-342. If the owner of that car took it to Dunn's Esso Service, corner Cabarrus and Bloodworth Streets in Raleigh he received a free grease job. This will happen every week. Watch for your tag number. If it follows the asterisk, you will get the grease job. The number will be taken from any car bearing a N. C. license.
The numbers this week are: R-387; "CK-4295; WW-125; X-192; R-5349; and XX-2884.

PARTY GUEST SLAM

Fired Zion Editor Restored To Post

State News Brief
ELKS CONFAB UNDERWAY
TARBORO — A parade, featuring ten bands, highlighted Tar Heel Elks' 25th annual convention here this week. The parade started at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and the procession ended at the local ball park where a game was played between a group of former high school players and the Pa-

Native Son Installed As St. Aug. Head

By CHAS. R. JONES
RALEIGH — With the usual pomp and dignity associated with the inauguration of a college president, Dr. James Alexander Boyer, 47, was installed as the seventh president of Saint Augustine's College Monday morning.
Dr. Boyer, thus, ascended, officially from a position held by his father for many years, as dean, and became the first alumnus of the college to serve as its president.
Bishop Edwin A. Penick, of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina and chairman of Saint Augustine's board of DELEGATES TO DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION — Shown are the Negro delegates from the Sixth District attending the State Democratic Convention held at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium last Thursday. From left to right they are Fred Hines, J. H. Wheeler (partly obscured), N. B. White, J. S. Stewart and Maceo Sloan, all of Durham. (Staff Photo by Chas. R. Jones).

Gate City Hostess Faces Murder Rap

GREENSBORO — A Saturday night drinking party, an uninvited and "bothersome" guest and an irritated hostess combined to spell murder here last weekend.
As a result, James Sloan, of 225 N. Gilmer Street, is dead and Miss Mary Frances Miller, 29, of 207 S. Gilmer Street, was ordered held for Guilford Superior Court on a charge of stabbing him to death with a knife.
Sloan, bleeding profusely, ran out into the street where he collapsed. He was dead on arrival at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital where he was taken, as a result of the loss of blood from his severed jugular vein.
Detectives quoted witnesses as saying that Miss Miller placed her arms around Sloan as though to hug him and that he then screamed, "I'm dying!" and ran out of the house.
Miss Miller denied that she placed her arms around Sloan, saying that he came uninvited to the house.

What's Happening On Desegregation Front

INTEGRATE NOW, CHARLOTTE TOLD
CHARLOTTE — City school board members had "no comment" Monday regarding a resolution by the Parent-Teacher Council for a "definite plan" for desegregation.
The group, which called for a full integration in '63—Marshall
WASHINGTON — Lifting of all legal barriers to integration by 1963 was envisioned by Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the NAACP, in a televised interview on the program "Youth Wants to Know" here Sunday.
Setting the 100th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation as a target date, Mr. Marshall added: "That will not remove all the problems. Enforcement of integration decrees will still have to be worked out on a local level."

AME'S ELECT FIVE BISHOPS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The 35th Quadrennial general conference of the AME church, nearing the end of its sessions, early Tuesday com-

Man Freed In Slaying Of Three-Hour Bride

LUMBERTON—David McAllister, accused of killing his girl friend three hours after she married another man, was acquitted by a jury in Robeson Superior Court last week on his contention that the shooting was accidental.
Mrs. Rosetta Gillespie was shot to death on April 11, three hours after her marriage to William Gillespie, as she lay across the bed with her new husband.
Gillespie testified that McAllister came to the home, threatened the woman and finally shot her. McAllister, in his testimony, said that he had come to pay Mrs. Gillespie for some work that she had done in the tobacco beds of his landlord. After paying her, he said, he picked up a .22 caliber rifle which he had loaned Mrs. Gillespie to return it to his home.

Last Rites Held For Miss Jervay

WILMINGTON — Funeral services for Miss E. Gertrude Jervay, long-time teacher in the public schools of New Hanover County, were held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Chestnut Street Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. B. H. Baskerville, minister, officiating.
Interment was in Pine Forest Cemetery.
Miss Jervay died in Sharon Hill, Penna., Friday morning, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Nurse, an aunt and uncle-in-law.
Assisting the Rev. Mr. Baskerville were Revs. J. Ray Butler, minister of Ebenezer Baptist

Women Close Annual Meet

FAYETTEVILLE — The 47th annual session of the North Carolina Federation of Negro Women's Clubs closed here Sunday after a three day meet, at Fayetteville State Teachers College, with the Eastern District as host.
The sessions began at 9 A.M. Friday. Mrs. A. B. Byrd of Rocky Mount, led the devotional service. Reports from the officers were received. The first session closed with the appointment of committees.
The Friday afternoon session featured reports from clubs throughout the state. The Friday night session was devoted to welcome exercises. The Rev. C. E. Perry delivered the invocation. Mayor George B. Herndon spoke in behalf of Fayetteville. He was presented by Councilman Harry E. Groves. Mrs. Maggie Bethune sang a solo. Dr. J. W. Seabrook, Superintendent C. Reid Ross, N. J. Suttles, E. L. Hauser, Rev. E. A. Armstrong, L. B. Gibson and Mrs. E. L. Elfmom joined in the welcoming of the many delegates and visitors.
Mrs. Rose D. Aggrey, president crowned "Miss Eastern District". The Rev. L. J. Shipman, William

SUICIDE'S TOE PULLS TRIGGER

WILSON — Funeral services were held here Wednesday for George B. Speight, 36, who committed suicide Saturday night by

MORE VOTING DENIALS TOLD

RALEIGH—Close on the heels of denials by election board chairman in six Eastern North Carolina counties of charges that Negroes have been improperly turned down by registrars, the NAACP

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD
When the Negro voter goes into the voting booth Saturday, May 26th, to cast his vote in the state Democratic Primary, he will be facing one of the most difficult problems of his life time. The ballots presented to him will contain a list of candidates for offices ranging from governor to township constables but he will not see listed the names of many candidates who have spoken one word in favor of upholding the basic law of this land, the U. S. Constitution.
Heading the ballot, to succeed himself as governor, the

ST. AUGUSTINE'S GRADS—Shown are a portion of the 98 students who were candidates for the bachelors degree at Saint Augustine's College Tuesday morning. The seniors heard a stirring address by Dr. Edwin A. Penick, Jr., of Randolph-Macon Women's College.

Teachers Quit As Defy To Anti-NAACP Pledge

ELLOREE, S. C.—Rather than sign a statement that they are not members of the NAACP, 18 teachers at the Ellore Training School here have resigned and three others refused to sign or resign.
The 1956 General Assembly enacted legislation barring NAACP members from state, county, municipal or school employment.
Seven of the school's 31 teachers signed the pledge, inserted in

VOTE!! IT'S YOUR RESPONSIBILITY