

Expose Housing Plot By Top Salvation Army Official

THE CAROLINIAN

10c

VOLUME 15

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1956

10c

NUMBER 37

North Carolina's Leading Weekly...

SCHOOLBOY DROWNED

Local Men Taken In Dope Raids

Cafe Man, Waiter Among 4 Nabbed

State News —IN— Brief

SOLDIER CUT TO DEATH

LILLINGTON — A 23-year-old Fort Bragg soldier was cut to death early Sunday morning near the Shawtown School here. Earl E. Joyce is dead and police are holding Hoover McLean, 25, local resident, in jail charged with murder. County coroner Grover C. Henderson, who conducted an inquest, said the jury ordered McLean held under a $10,000 bond. McLean is alleged to have admitted to Rural Policeman Stanley Byrd that he inflicted the fatal wounds.

COP CLEARED OF ASSAULT
RALEIGH — Veteran local race cop, John Baker, was cleared Monday in City Court on a simple assault charge brought against

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

10 Drown As Boat Sinks

UMATILLA, Fla. — Ten of 11 persons crowded into a dilapidated 12-foot boat for a joyride on Lake Orr, Saturday, were drowned when the boat swamped. Six of the dead were young children. None of the 11 could swim. It was reported that Mrs. Bobbie Lee Shaw, 20, the survivor, said that the boat, equip-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

GREENSBORO — A narcotics crackdown in border cities of North Carolina and Virginia over the weekend has resulted in 12 arrests and the holding of a thirteenth man in Raleigh for federal agents.

Arrested on Monday were Robert L. Leach, 23, year old truck driver of Route 6, Greensboro, and Thomas Johnson of Raleigh. Leach is charged with illegal possession and dealings in heroin and Johnson with dealing in marijuana.

Arrested on Sunday were Thomas S. Smith of Portsmouth, Va.; John Hairston, 36, of Reidsville and Gurney McNair, 37, of Greensboro. Smith was taken at Portsmouth.

Those arrested here on Sunday were identified as Hannon John-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

491 Receive A & T Degrees

GREENSBORO — Yours is the opportunity to be leaders, for you can be the person you want to be at the age of 40.

Thus spoke Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, associate dean of the graduate school at Woman's College as he addressed the 491 graduates composing the largest class in the history of A & T College, here Monday afternoon.

Several thousand persons attended the outdoor exercises held under perfect weather conditions on the college quadrangle.

Gifts Importance of Law
To realize those highest ideals the speaker advised a future leader must understand that he cannot plan or live in a world without

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

INTER-RACIAL SCHOOL OPENS—Students are shown above registering for the annual Inter-racial Bible School, made possible through the cooperative efforts of two Raleigh churches. Pastors of the two churches, seated left to right are the Rev. Howard Cunningham, pastor of the First Congregational Christian Church and the Rev. Gaylord Noyce, pastor of the United Church. The sessions are being held at the United Church this year. A large number of children of both races have registered for the school. For other photos see inside page. (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS. R. JONES).

Woman Stricken, Dies While Testifying In N. C. Church

By D. W. HEADEN

GOLDSTON — Mrs. Callie Headen, well-known church and community worker, died shortly after speaking during worship services at Alston Chapel Holy Church here Sunday morning.

Mrs. Headen had praised the young people of the church for their faithfulness to the church and stated that it was good to be in church on Sunday. "Remember now the Creator in the days of thy youth," she said. She then slumped to her seat and died immediately.

Her husband, the Rev. Claude Headen, had been appointed to funeral services were conducted the morning sermon. He was at the Union Grove AMEZ Historical Church here, with the Rev. Mr. Alston of Durham officiating. Nearly 400 persons attended the funeral after which the body was interred in the church cemetery. Survivors include her husband, four daughters: Mrs. Iona M. Headen of Bear Creek; Mrs. Clara Glover of Siler City; Misses Dorthy and Faydean Headen of Goldston; four sons: Roland and Carl of Goldston; Clyde of Pittsboro and Claude, Jr., of Asheboro; two sisters and seven grandchildren.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE

Desegregation Front

CLEAN UP OWN YARD, LEHMAN URGES NORTH

NEW YORK — Northerners were urged to clean up "our own back yard" while also seeking justice for Negroes in the South by Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-NY) in a speech prepared for the annual meeting of the Urban League of Greater New York, here Sunday.

Harlem, the Democratic senator declared, is "both illustration and proof that the acute manifestations of the civil rights problems are not confined to the South. Sen. Lehman said: "Harlem is a community rich in tradition and culture . . . but Harlem is also a rebuke to us of the North, and a challenge to clean up our own back yard, even as we press forward with our efforts to bring justice and equality to the Negroes and other oppressed minorities in the South."

GUILFORD COUNTY MAKES NO PUPIL CHANGES

ON the recommendation of the board announced on Friday that it had adopted a resolution making it possible for the board to assign students purely as individuals, considering the factors of health, welfare and safety.

At Greensboro, the Guilford County board of education approved the assignment of 18,000 rural school children to schools for the coming year, but no Negro children were assigned to white schools or vice versa. All assignments were to schools which the pupils would have attended normally.

HODGES PLAN HIT BY NC METHODISTS

RALEIGH — Opposition to Gov. Hodges' plan to desegregate the state attorney-general's department, Judge John P. Cooney, Jr., of district court dismissed the fugitive warrant which North Carolina authorities had presented.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Rhode Island Bars Extradition To NC

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (ANP) — The state attorney-general's office here has refused to press extradition proceedings against Briscoe W. Bynum, 59, who reportedly escaped from a North Carolina chain-gang last October.

On the recommendation of the state attorney-general's department, Judge John P. Cooney, Jr., of district court dismissed the lifeless body of Jimmy Hinnant, Jr., from the muddy waters of Douglas Pond, located on Raleigh, Route 2, Tuesday afternoon.

WAKE YOUTH DROWNS—Members of the Raleigh Rescue Squad are pictured lifting the

leigh, Route 2, Hinnant, 15, drowned at approximately 2 P. M. Tuesday afternoon while swimming in the pond.

MRS. DELANEY FUNERALIZED—Last rites for Mrs. Nannie Logan Delaney, who died in New York Saturday night, were held in the chapel at Saint Augustine's College Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. G. A. Fisher officiating. Mrs. Delaney served as matron and teacher at Saint Augustine's for nearly 50 years. (See story on inside page.)

Bare Salvation Army Aide's Housing Plot

RALEIGH — Capt. Oscar P. Fuller, head of the Salvation Army here, in a letter addressed to the Real Estate Dealers of Raleigh, has called upon them to help him to keep Negroes from acquiring any more property in the area of the First Vanguard Presbyterian Church on E. Martin Street.

The Salvation Army purchased this church property last winter with funds from a special building campaign to which several Negroes contributed. Salvation Army officials felt that the acquisition of the property would meet its requirements and thus

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Ligon Graduates May Enter Two White Schools

Three 1956 graduates of Ligon Junior-Senior High School have applied to two all-white North Carolina institutions of higher

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD

The many friends of Mr. Robert Sewell will be happy to learn of his appointment to the post of Scout Executive for the Charleston, S. C. area. Young Sewell is a Raleigh boy who has "made his way" all the way. During his high school days, Sewell did odd jobs during the afternoons and on Saturday in order to support himself and his aged grandmother.

While in college he held down the job of night watchman at Chavis Park until his graduation from St. Augustine's College. Upon leaving college, Sewell went to work as a field agent for the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Co. It

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Pastor, Wife Drown

SUMTER, S. C. — The bodies of the Rev. and Mrs. Miller Brown, missing since Tuesday when they left on a fishing trip, were found Saturday at Rock Landing, near Eutawville.

"TOPS" AT A&T—Floyd Horton, of Pittsboro, who graduated from A&T College on Monday, June 4, has his second lieutenant's bars pinned on by his mother, Mrs. Sadie Pattisall. Besides being commissioned as a distinguished military student, in the college's Army ROTC program, Horton, finished second in his class, summa cum laude. He was cited with a framed scroll by the general of the Third Army and is eligible for a permanent commission in the Army.

FIRST WHITE DEACONESS—Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, Presiding Bishop of the 97th session of the N. C. Conference of the Methodist Church's Central Jurisdiction, is pictured above consecrating Miss Winifred Wrisley, the first white deaconess ever consecrated in the Central Jurisdiction of the Church. Miss Wrisley, who teaches music at Asheville's Allen School, is a member of a Negro Church there. The conference was held at the local Wilson Temple Methodist Church from May 29-June 3. The Rev. C. L. Gidney, pastor, said a large delegation was on hand. See other photos on inside page.

Dental Group Will Meet At Charlotte

CHARLOTTE — The Old North State Dental Society will hold its 37th annual meeting at Johnson C. Smith University, here June 12-14. Dr. M. L. Watts, secretary-treasurer, of Raleigh, announced this week.

The Women's Auxiliary will meet concurrently. The convention, which will hold all business sessions in the administration building, will feature several outstanding clinicians. Dr. Hardy Liston Sr., president of the university, will welcome the dentists on Tuesday morning following registration. At 10 A.M. Wednesday Dr. Coleman Tuckson,

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Legislature To Meet July 23 On Schools

RALEIGH — In an effort to enact laws destined to preserve, "if possible," the system of segregated schools, the legislature will meet here on July 23. Gov. Hodges announced last weekend.

Legislation to "implement" recommendations of the North Carolina Advisory Committee on Education will be introduced, including measures for local option and private tuition grants.

HEADS N. C. MEDICS — Dr. Rudolph W. Wyche, of Charlotte, president of the Old North State Medical Society, who will preside at the annual sessions of the group to be held in his city, June 12-14. Dr. Wyche has working with him an able committee which has made arrangements for entertainment of the