

Hate Blamed For Burning Of Fayetteville Homes

MANY HANDS HELPED—Bertha Akim, a 25-year-old teacher from Tanganyika, Africa, is shown upon arrival at New York's Idlewild airport, on route from London to Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts. She'll study child guidance there for a year, as a result of transportation furnished by a group of American college girls. She also has received an award from the Van Leer and Atlantic foundations to cover all expenses here. (NEWSPRESS PHOTO.)

3 Homes Burned In Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE—The burnings of three small, empty frame dwellings in the Massey Hill section near here is believed to have been motivated by racial prejudice, the owner of one of the houses, said Monday night.

George Bell, owner of one of 3 HOMES BURNED the houses, said that a Negro family had been scheduled to move into the dwelling Monday morning but it was burned to the ground Sunday night.

E. C. Hill, owner of two houses, one of which was destroyed by fire and another severely damaged, said that he had not planned to move Negroes in. He has offered $100 reward for information leading to the conviction of the persons responsible.

All of the houses were purchased at auction and moved from another section of town. They were being prepared for occupancy at the time of the fires.

Chief P. A. Reeves of the Pearce's Mill Fire Department said that the fires "must have been deliberately set" and referred to a "strong odor of kerosene."

Carolinian Plans Big Outing For News Carriers At Jones' Lake

RALEIGH — Carriers of the CAROLINIAN throughout eastern North Carolina will have the treat of the season on Monday, Aug. 27, in the form of a grand all-day outing at beautiful Jones' Lake.

They will spend the day boating, fishing, swimming, and taking part in whatever other outdoor sports their hearts and youthful energy may call for.

Even the grownups among CAROLINIAN representatives will find a variety of pleasures to their liking. Best of all, everything will be free, including transportation to and from the famous resort, food and refreshments.

Qualifying for the big outing will be simple and easy, through moderate increases in sales over the five-week period beginning next week.

The CAROLINIAN management has agreed to open the festivities even to new carriers, under terms that any boy, girl or adult can meet with very little effort.

Details of the qualifying contest will be in the hands of all present carriers before the end of the week, and new carriers may get all necessary information by phoning, writing or calling at the office of the CAROLINIAN, 518 E. Martin St. The phone number is TE 4-5558.

Here is a chance to wind up the

NC Governor Reveals Plans For Jim Crow

By CHARLES R. JONES
RALEIGH — This state's three top exponents of the "voluntary segregation" plan held an open discussion Saturday with members of the press, radio and television in the Hall of the House at the Capitol.

Governor Luther Hodges, Attorney General William B. Rodman and Thomas J. Pearse, Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Education, outlined bills which they plan to present at the Special General Assembly Session on July 23.

The purpose of the conference was to explain to the public the steps that would be taken to abrogate the public schools in the event that the Negroes in North Carolina decide not to segregate themselves "voluntarily," an act which would be in direct violation of the ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court outlawing Jim Crow in the public

NAACP Saves Membership List

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The NAACP won somewhat of a moral victory in Alabama last week when it was not required to show its membership files, although Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones issued a court order directing the civil rights group to show part of its activity files.

Atty. Gen. John Patterson of Alabama had tried to force the organization to provide a list of names of all contributors and the amount given.

'Unloaded' Gun Is Death Weapon

(Special to Carolinian)
SANDFORD — Said to have been angered because her husband stayed away from home all weekend and refused to tell her where he had been, Mrs. Lorraine Perry, 29, shot him to death here Sunday night.

The victim, Paul Perry, 35, was shot in his right side as he sat in a chair eating a cantaloupe. He slumped to the floor and was dead on arrival at Lee County Hospital.

Sheriff D. F. Holder reported that Mrs. Perry told him that her husband told her that a .22 caliber pistol "wouldn't shoot" because it had no bullets. He said that she pulled the trigger three times before the fatal shot was fired.

Mrs. Perry was taken to jail shortly after the shooting and collapsed in a cell. She was then taken en to Lee County Hospital for treatment and Monday afternoon moved to the State Mental Hospital.

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD

When Southerners say that segregation is good for the Negroes, they are saying that Negroes are something less than human beings because segregation means deprivation. To take things or to deny to one group the things considered necessary and beneficial for other groups and then to say that these denials are good is not only un-Christian but is barbaric, heathenish, short sighted and costly.

An example of the "beneficial" efforts of segregation that the Army may deny, but which is based on such reliable information that it will have to be accepted until disproved:
