LUCY CASE BACK IN COURT

Klan Burns Fiery Cross Near Conway

CONWAY, S. C. — While they burned a 30-foot cross in a field near here Saturday night, some 30 hooded and masked KuKlux Klansmen heard their leader plead for "understanding of Klan activities by the press."

The leader, unidentified, but wearing a flowing robe, told some 500 persons who attended the rally: "I pray God that when I pick up the newspaper tomorrow, I will be able to find a fair and unbiased account of the meeting here tonight."

He said that his organization is for "white supremacy," but added that "the newspapers would not dare to report the facts of a Klan meeting."

State News — IN — Brief

HELD IN GAS THEFT — Miss Mary Liza Gardner, 27, 321 W. South Street, was jailed here Saturday and charged with not paying for five gallons of gasoline which she received from a service station here Saturday. A. E. Konegay, manager of a service station located at 901 S. Sanders Street, told officers that the woman drove into his service station in a convertible automobile and got five gallons of gas. He added that she did not pay for it and drove off. The young lady was apprehended five minutes following the reporting of the incident to police. She is being held on a charge of larceny.

NAACP Again Asks Review Of $100 G Fine

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — A second request that it review a $100,000 contempt of court fine against the NAACP was considered here Tuesday by the State Supreme Court.

Also requested was a review of the injunction banning the organization in Alabama as an aftermath of the Autherine Lucy riots and the Montgomery bus boycott.

Attorneys for the NAACP filed an amended petition with the court on Monday after their first petition for a review was turned down last week. A second court refusal would leave the NAACP with only the U. S. Supreme Court or a further appeal.

No date for a hearing on the second petition was immediately set. Unlike the first petition, the one filed on Monday asked the court to review a circuit court injunction issued June 1 temporarily banning the NAACP in Alabama.

Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones granted the injunction at the request of Attorney General Jean Patterson on grounds that the NAACP was improperly chartered and has conspired to break Alabama law.

When the organization refused to produce on Jones' order, its Alabama membership lists for use as state's evidence, the jurist fined the NAACP $100,000 for contempt.

GUN BLAST DAMAGES — Mrs. Mable Morrison, 1904 Gibbs Street Charlotte, is pictured above pointing to damages done by a shotgun blast that ripped into her window last week.

Denied Entry, Fires Into Charlotte Home

CHARLOTTE — An unidentified gunman fired into the home of Mrs. Mable Morrison, 1904 Gibbs St. A 16 gauge shotgun blast through the window nearly missed a baby who was asleep on a pallet about 15 feet from the window.

The spot is believed to have been intended for Naomi Patton, the sister, who is in hiding.

It is reported that a friend of Mrs. Patton called at the home late in the evening and was

Dr. Edmonds Second's Ike Nomination

DURHAM — Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, professor of history at North Carolina College made one of the scolding speeches after the nomination of President Eisenhower at the Republican national convention in San Francisco Wednesday.

Sherman D. Adams, White House aide, issued the invitation last week. Her appearance marked the first time that a Negro from a Southern state has ever seconded the nomination of a presidential candidate.

Dr. Edmonds, who has gained a worldwide reputation as a speaker, writer and educator, is a native of Lawrenceville, Va. She received her A. B. degree from Morgan

MAKES SECONDING SPEECH — Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, a member of the faculty of North Carolina College, Durham, made one of the scolding speeches after President Eisenhower was nominated by the Republican Party this week in San Francisco, California.

What Demos And GOP Say On Civil Rights

Democrats

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the text of the civil rights plank adopted by Democrats at their national convention in Chicago last week.

1. The Democratic Party is committed to support and advance the individual rights and liberties of all Americans. Our country is founded on the proposition that all men are created equal. This means that all citizens are equal before the law and should enjoy equal rights. They should have equal opportunities for education, for economic advancement, and for decent living conditions.

2. We will continue our efforts to eradicate discrimination based on race, religion or national origin. We know this task requires action, not just in one section of the nation, but in all sections. It requires the co-operative efforts of individual citizens.

Republicans

(Excerpts from the civil rights plank adopted this week by the Republican Party in San Francisco follow.)

The Republican Party accepts the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court that racial discrimination in publicly supported schools must be progressively eliminated. We concur in the conclusion of the Supreme Court that its decision di-

TENN. COUNTY SCHOOL ENROLLS 12 NEGROES

CLINTON, Tenn. — (ANP)—In obedience to the U. S. Supreme Court public school integration decree, the principal of an all-white high school here has announced he will enroll 12 Negro students for the fall term.

Acting while his school board poked along on the integration decision, D. J. Brittain, one of the Anderson County School officials named in a recent court ruling ordering Negroes admitted to the Anderson County high schools, said "I intend to obey that order."

A memorandum calling for integration of Anderson County high schools was issued last January by Federal Judge Robert L. Taylor of Knoxville, who specified that integration was to take place no later than the fall of this year.

LUCKY AUTO OWNER

The lucky car last week was the one bearing the tag number "A-2950. If the owner of that car took it to Dunn's Esso Service, corner Cabarrus and Bloodworth Streets in Raleigh he received a free grease job.

This will happen every week. Watch for your tag number. If it follows the asterisk, you will get the grease job. The number will be taken from any car bearing a N. C. license.

The numbers this week are: WV-125, X-192, ZY-422, CY-3317, R-3872, and AT-999.

NO INJURIES were reported in either of the two accidents shown in above two photos. In the top photo the auto of Frank Cross white, of Raleigh, almost ran into the front bedroom of the home of Mrs. Maggie Wade, 701 S. Blount Street. Damage to the brick wall was estimated at $50. Cross claimed that he was involved in a collision at the corner of Blount and South Streets and was forced into the sidewalk. This photo was taken by Charles Hill. The 1951 Kaiser, shown in bottom photo was driven by Allen McNeil of Raleigh, Route 3. It was struck from behind by a 1956 Oldsmobile and hurled into a ravine on Highway 15A about 11 miles south of Raleigh at around 8:30 Friday night. In the car with Mr. McNeil were his two daughters, Brenda Joyce, 4, and Vickie Anne, 2, and two friends, Frank Humphrey and Odell Woodson. Vickie Anne received minor scratches. McNeil reported to investigating officers that he was signalling for a left turn into a private drive when another car also southbound and traveling at a high rate of speed, struck his auto, knocking it across the highway and reversing its direction.

Young Woman Charges Rape To Rocky Mt. Man

WILSON — An initial hearing has been set for next Monday for James Donald Terrell, 29, charged with raping Miss Lena Aldridge, 26, of Craven County, Saturday night.

Terrell of near Rocky Mount waived preliminary hearing Monday morning in city court and was bound over to Superior Court.

Miss Aldridge said that the alleged attack took place after she had accompanied Terrell to a place she described as a "joint," where they drank beer and danced. Later, she continued, Terrell helped her to find a room for the night and insisted on paying the bill.

"After I got my linens and fixed the bed," she testified, "I thanked him for helping me, but he kept

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD

The portrait of Gov. Luther Hodges for Negroes is well illustrated by a remark he is alleged to have made to Jonathan Daniels at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last week.

Daniels, editor of a Raleigh newspaper had said in a convention dispatch that Negro Congressman Dawson of Illinois and Gov. Hodges had seconded the nomination of Adlai Stevenson as the Democratic Presidential Nominee. Although Mr. Daniels was correct in his reporting, Mr. Hodges is alleged to have become so incensed that his name was linked with that of a Negro that he told Mr. Daniels that he (Gov. Hodges) considered the story "a damned discourtesy."

All we know about the incident is what the newspapers say about it, but if true, and it has not been denied, it gives a striking portrayal of the nature of the man now occupying the Governor's Mansion here in Raleigh. It shows Hodges is cut from the same cloth as the late South Carolina Sen. "Cotton" Ed Smith who once walked out of a Democratic convention rather than have a Negro minister pray "over him." Of course the Negroes in this state have known for a long time that their governor has no love for them. This Chicago incident merely proves his universal dislike for all Negroes.

Those who have recently paid their membership fees in the NAACP and have not received their membership cards can expect to receive their cards within the next few days. In answering a protest from local officials over this delay, the National office gave the reasons for the delay. The un-

THE $60,000 QUESTION — During the recent demolition of five-story New York tenement, workmen uncovered a cache of $60,000 in $100 bills. Before the cops could act on an anonymous tip, several of the men had "done the town" with their findings. Here, foreman Michael Leach (short sleeve shirt) tells police what he knows about the treasure. If no one claims the loot in 90 days, the workman will share in what's left of the $60 grand. ESCAPED THE AVENGER — The first teenage gang war, drew along racial lines, erupted recently along New York's teeming lower East Side. A lucky victim was William Vasquez, (shown here with his mother, Mrs. Colita Vasquez) a member of the all-Puerto Rican gang called the Dragons. He was shot in the leg by the "torpedos" of the rival Dragons. An innocent companion of Vasquez was more seriously injured. (NEWSPRESS PHOTO)
