

The Tots 'N' Teens gave their children a Christmas party last Saturday afternoon at the Chevis Heights Community Center. A special feature of the affair was the presentation of some of their favorite toys to the Welfare Department, to be shared with less fortunate boys and girls of the community.

is, who was with the tots; Mrs. Hortense Fleming with the youngsters; Mrs. Elsie V. Reid with the in-betweeners, and Mrs. Gertrude Taylor with the teens. Fruit punch, special Christmas cookies and confectionary bags were served to the children against a background of Christmas trees, snowmen, candy sticks, and Santa's sleigh.

CANADA'S NEW FARMLANDS (UWF)—20 minutes—The principles which govern the development of new frontiers are clearly set forth in this picture. We observed two young Norwegians, who fought in the Canadian Army begin the development of their new lands. Clearing the land, planting the crops and taking part in the new community, these young men are typical of the people who push the boundaries of our civili-

ACTION AGAINST THE LAW—28 minutes—In this film a series of minor incidents aggravated by intergroup friction results in an ugly crisis as misguided citizens resort to mob violence. Introductory sequences establish the atmosphere of tension existing between the people of Maria and the fruit pickers, whom they call "Cholos," on "the other side of the tracks." Only the quick action of the sheriff and the editor averts a terrible miscarriage of justice.

ART AND LIFE IN ITALY—10 minutes—The art of Italy is shown as the result of activities of the Italian people in the land in which they live. Photographs included are scenes on the streets of Florence, Giotto's frescoes in the Arena chapel in Padua, and views of other historic monuments and works of art.

CAMOUFLAGE IN NATURE THROUGH FORM AND COLOR MATCHING—10 minutes—Demonstrates that coloration, resemblance and mimicry protect living things. Pictures of birds, animals, reptiles, and insects are photographed in their natural environments; pictures clearly indicate

Annual Christmas Program Held At St. Monica's Here

Saint Monica's Catholic School presented its annual Christmas entertainment Sunday evening, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Joseph Cruz opened the program with a welcome speech. The choir then sang "Joy To The World," "O Holy Night" and "Tollie Ho! Ho!" accompanied by Miss Brenda Kee at the piano. Grades one and two presented a playlet entitled "Mother Goose's Christmas Helpers." William Alston acted as announcer and Brenda Bethea provided a musical background. Freddie Mae Bridges, Sylvia Herndon and Joanne Pechles were the principal characters in the playlet.

"A Dream Of Christmas Eve," a play given by grades three and four, appropriately continued the program. Narrators of this play were Mildred Campbell, Alma Herndon, Luke Williams, Beatrice Bennett, Catherine Hinton, Donna Winters, Gwendolyn Burwell and Vivian Hinton. Announcer for this play was Jesse Clements and Lloydine Perry, pianist. As an interlude between plays, Brenda Kee and Jacqueline Ricketts played a duet, "Silent Night," by G. Uber.

"The Spirit of Christmas," a four-act play presented by grades seven and eight, climaxed the program. Principal characters were James Johnson, Joy Solomon, Lloydine Perry, Wiley Latham, Adelaide Cobb and Jacqueline Ricketts. Theora Mitchell was portrayed as the Virgin Mary; Melvin Robinson, St. Joseph; Benjamin Neal, Lemuel Sherman, and Mansie Brooker, The Three Kings.

The Angel Choir sang "Silent Night" in German, "Angels We Have Heard On High," "The First Noel" and concluded with "White Christmas." Rev. W. J. Tierney, O. P., made the closing remarks.

Christmas Tree Carol

In glistening splendor now the Tree
Bursts magically on children's eyes
And every shining ball reflects
Their joyous wonder and surprise.

Beneath its branches gifts are spread—
But what barbed-box can hold
A Christmas-kiss! And happiness
Defies a tissue-paper mold!

Around this fragrant pyramid
Our families gather joyfully,
Lord, may it ever point the way
Beyond its tinsel star to Thee!
