

YOUTH, 15, PROTECTING MOTHER SLAYS FATHER

Bus Integration Leaders Map New Strategy

LUCKY AUTO OWNER
The lucky car last week was the one bearing the tag number "VJ-29. If the owner of that car took it to Dunn's Esso Service, corner Cabarrus and Bloodworth Streets in Raleigh he received a free grease job. This will happen every week. Watch for your tag number. If it follows the asterisk, you will get the grease job. The number will be taken from any car bearing a N. C. license. The numbers this week are: CX-6712; XX-125; X-193; CX-357; XB-421; and CX-823.

THE CAROLINIAN

10c North Carolina's Leading Weekly... 10c

VOLUME 16. RALEIGH, N. C. WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 1957 NUMBER 15

Local Woman 'Taken' For $1,060

Cabbie Held For Rape Says

SHOT BY COP — Shown on arrival at Charity Hospital, New Orleans, blood streaks the face of Frank Jones, 24, who was shot by a policeman after he had pulled down segregated seating signs on a bus in that city. When the bus driver tried to stop Jones, he threatened the driver with a knife. Jones was shot as he tried to escape from the bus on January 2. UNITED PRESS TELEPHOTO.

Tenn. Parents Sue For Desegregation

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — A group of adults on Monday filed suit in Federal Court on behalf of 14 children asking that Knoxville be racially integrated. The suit filed by the NAACP likely will be heard by U. S. District Judge Robert L. Taylor, who last year ordered the high school at nearby Clinton to admit Negroes. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Expect Ruling On Va. Buses

ARLINGTON, Va., Jan. 8 — A decision in a case challenging Virginia's law requiring racial segregation at public meetings was expected today. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Passenger Says Cabbie Attacked Her In Park

BY CHARLES R. JONES
"I didn't do it!" shouted Ernest James Herring from his jail cell, when asked by a reporter if he was guilty of a rape charge lodged against him here. "He did do it!" screamed Miss Malinda Mitchell, the alleged victim, who was contacted by the same newsman for her version of the incident.

Says Woman Gypped Her Out Of $1G

RALEIGH — Acting on a complaint of Mrs. Maude Griffis, 56, local police officers arrested Miss Marjorie Williams, 36, on charges (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Herring, 45, of 816 S. Boundary Street, is charged with raping Miss Mitchell, 18, by force in the early morning hours of January 4. He was scheduled to receive a hearing in City Court Monday morning. The hearing was put off until Thursday of this week, however, and he is now languishing in the Wake County Jail. Ernest James is known to most Raleigh folks as "E. J." and is a (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Raleigh Catholic Bishop Fought Prejudice Within

RALEIGH (ANP) — Bishop Vincent S. Waters of Raleigh who has won fame for his continual and courageous fight against segregation in his diocese, had to first win the battle against prejudice with himself. In a talk given in National Liturgy Week, the proceedings of which have been published under the title, "The New Ritual-Liturgy and Social Order," the famed Bishop tells how he himself had to overcome the dreaded social disease as a young man. Following an address, "The Mass and Interracial Justice," the Bishop answered questions, including one which was whether there were (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

State News Brief

GUN KILLS CHILD
NEW BERN — Five children played with a shotgun today while their parents were away working and, as a result, one of them, 3-year-old James D. Scott was shot to death. Acting Coroner Frank Ballard said that the child was shot in the face at close range by his 3-year-old brother, Ronnie Lee. He said that five children, ranging in age from 2 to 8, apparently had gotten the gun after their parents left.

WOMEN FACE THEFT RAPS
HIGH POINT — Three (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Guns and Knife Bring Death To 4

RALEIGH — Guns and a knife brought death to four persons in widely separated incidents over the week end. At Pittsboro, Mrs. Helen G. Spruill, 30, is being held in Chatham County jail on an open (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

QUITS FOR GOOD — Jackie Robinson, for 16 years a star of the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team finds a place to hang up his jacket and glove on the wall of the recreation room of his Stamford, Conn., home. Robinson, traded to the New York Giants recently, announced his retirement from the sport in which he pioneered in an article in Look magazine. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD

OPEN LETTER: An open letter to the present of the United States: Dear Mr. President: 17 million black Americans are very much disturbed because of your openly expressed concern for the Hungarians refugees and your apparent indifference to the sufferings of your fellow American citizens here at home.

It would be hard to find a racial group more interested in the welfare of suffering humanity than the American Negro. A product of suffering, deprivation, hardship and woe, his heart goes out in fullest sympathy for all depressed and grief-stricken people. In spite of this, however, Negroes all over America and particularly those in the South cannot understand why their plight has not affected you in any degree (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Charlotte Muni Golf Course Open To All

CHARLOTTE — The municipal golf course here was opened to Negroes by action of the city's Park and Recreation Commission. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

New Plans Are Made For Buses

ATLANTA — Leaders of the bus integration drives in three key cities have called a Southwide Atlanta meeting this week to spur their movement and to discuss the problem of racial violence.

The two-day meeting starting Thursday was announced by the Rev. M. L. King of Montgomery, Ala.; C. K. Steele of Tallahassee, Fla.; and P. L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham. The plaintiffs sought an injunction "forever restraining" school officials from refusing to admit persons to any city school "solely because of their race or color." Board of Education Chairman (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

12 Ministers Sit In Front On Ca. Bus

ATLANTA, Ga. — In an apparent attempt to break down segregation in Georgia buses, 12 Negro ministers boarded an Atlanta city vehicle Wednesday and sat on front seats.

The bus, an electrically-operated trackless trolley car, "developed power trouble" just after the ministers were on board and two mechanics were called in to repair it. The ministers remained on the bus, although all but one of the five or six white passengers aboard got off.

Finally the bus pulled away and the preachers, led by the Rev. William Borders, pastor of the Wheat Street Baptist Church, rode six blocks before getting off. While riding, they sang and read from the Bible.

At first the bus driver refused to permit them to leave by the front door, but they in (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Burn Cross Near Randleman Store

RANDLEMAN — Randolph County Sheriff's officers Monday investigated the burning of a seven-foot cross in the front yard of a store near here.

Deputy W. D. Bowman Jr., who investigated the report, said there were no witnesses to the actual erection of the cross or to the firing of the cross. He said the cross was made of cedar posts wrapped in burlap. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

RED CHINA VISITOR — Fur-coated American newsman, William Worthy of Baltimore, is shown in Hong Kong as he left for Red China on Christmas Eve in defiance of a U. S. State Department ban on travel to that country. He was given a Red China visa at the border. As a result of the action by Worthy and two other newsmen, the State Department revoked their passports. (NEWSPRESS PHOTO.)

Boy, 15, Charged In Dad's Death

ASHEBORO — Richard Donald Mills, 15, was charged with murder Monday in the fatal shooting of his father, Charlie Mills. The boy told Randolph County authorities that he shot his father Sunday night when the older Mills assaulted the boy's mother and then advanced on him. The father died in Randolph Hospital here.

Deputy Sheriff Earl Cokerham quoted the boy as saying he and his mother had returned from church to find his father drinking heavily. He said the father started to beat his mother and then (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Train, Car Kill 2 Elderly Men

Two men — one 70, and the other 67 — were killed in separate accidents over the past weekend. At Reidsville, a northbound Southern Railway passenger train struck and killed 70-year-old Benjamin Heath at a downtown crossing, Sunday. His body was hurled 81 feet.

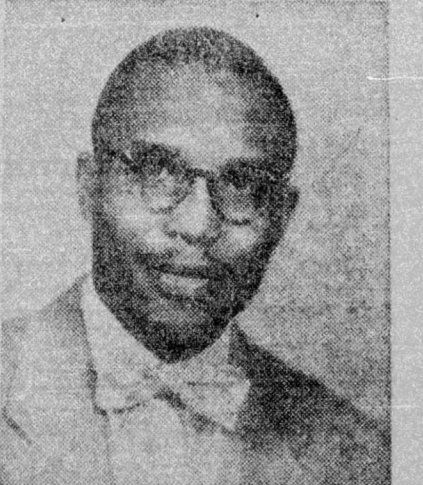

At Mt. Airy, Lacy Whitlock, 67, a pedestrian was killed Saturday night when he walked to the side of a car while trying to cross Highway 52 on the by-pass near Highway 39.

Police identified the driver of the car as Arnold Willis, Jr., 39, of Huntington, W. Va. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

W. H. Holloway Named Acting Ligon Head

William Junius Holloway, dean of boys at Ligon High School, will take over as acting principal on January 16 when Dr. W. H. Watson leaves the city to take a position as assistant principal of Roosevelt High School, Gary, Indiana.

Mr. Holloway is a native of Smithfield, Virginia. He was (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

W. J. HOLLOWAY

RESTORED TO GOOD STANDING — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. (D.N.Y.) second from left, who bolted the Democratic party in November, is shown talking to reporters after leaving a Democratic caucus in Washington, which restored him to good party standing with no more than a verbal slap on the wrist. In background are some of the ministers who converged on the nation's capital in the Congressman's behalf. UNITED PRESS PHOTO.