

BURLINGTON

By Mrs. M. M. Brown

Burlington—Mr. Fred Baynes, a graduate of Jordan Sellers High School, will leave Tuesday for New York City to attend the wedding of his daughter, Miss Baynes, who is married to Mr. Herbert Thompson, who spent the week-end in town, and other relatives and friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Isaac R. Horton and son of Raleigh, N.C., also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and daughter of Durham, N.C., were guests of the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Baynes are the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, 613 Apple St. They were breakfast guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown while in the city.

Mrs. Bessie M. Donnell of Greensboro, N.C., was weekend guest of Mrs. M. M. Brown.

In awarding diplomas to 56 graduates of Jordan Sellers Senior High School last week, Dr. L. E. Spikes, superintendent of Burlington City Schools, urged the seniors to have courage, sincerity, and integrity as an integral part of their character and personality in order to meet and solve the problems which will confront them in the future.

Concerning courage, he asked the question, "What are you afraid of?" And in answer, in part, he stated that the amount of materials mastered in textbooks is not enough to overcome fear.

"There is only one thing that can aid you in overcoming fear, to become free from fear, and that is faith—faith in yourself and in a higher Being," he stated.

Referring to sincerity, Dr. Spikes said, "I wish you the fortune that you deserve. Being sincere in your undertakings is of primary importance in realizing it." He added that "being sincere is the primary way to overcome fear."

Concerning integrity, he said that it would mean just enough to you to have peace and poise and success in any undertaking. And three things, "courage, sincerity and integrity are sufficient to help in summing up, he said that these you develop into a real man or woman."

Following the presentation by Dr. Spikes, three of the top ranking students discussed the theme, "In This Our Time." Participating were Jeannette Wade, third-ranking student; Iris Gant, salutatorian; and Mary Boldin, valedictorian.

Musie was under the direction of Mrs. Helen B. Banks and Miss Gwendolyn Gidney. Principal Robert M. Earl introduced the superintendent.

The class motto is "Today Decides Tomorrow," and the class flower is red rose. Colors are red and white. Class officers are John Robinson, president; Iris Gant, vice president; Mary Boldin, secretary; Virginia Lea, assistant secretary; and Deloris Bigelow, treasurer.

Others who received diplomas were Joycecelene Alston, Fred Baynes, Barbara Bethel, Joseph Bradshaw, Shirley Bradshaw, Betty Cameron, Waltenia Chrisp, Peggy Compton, Carolyn Corker, Jerome Albright, Wythenia Curry, Dewey Daye, Thirl Dorsette, Javan Enoch, Essie Faucette, Kaye Griffin, Alena Guye, Robert Guye, Alice Haith, Mary Haith, Lemi Harris, Nehemiah Harvey, Betty Holman, Charlie King, Winnie Kinsey, Berta Jen Lee, Thomas McNamee, Bobby Miles, Coye Miles, Carl Miller, Donald Monroe, Reynolds Moore, Sandra Oliver, George Morgan, Sarah Oliver, Vera Pulliam, Edward Pennington, Vera Pulliam, Peggy Robertson, William Sellers, Barbara Shaw, Peggy Slade, Gloria Stewart, David Terrell, Vonda Thompson, Jeannette Wade, Shirley Walker, Tony Williams, Joe Wilson, Henry Wright and Mary Yellock.

Mrs. Joan Evans Miles, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Evans of Baldwin Road, and Miss June Carol Crisp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark of Raleigh Street, left for Detroit, Mich., Wednesday night where they will visit Miss Evangeline Evans, Mrs. Naomi Evans Scott and Wayne Evans.

Missionary group six had a call meeting in the home of Mrs. M. M. Brown to make some important decisions. The opinions of members were varied but all in one accord. The meeting was interesting. Mrs. Hulon will be next hostess.

Miss Ades Downing Lowery and Dr. W. R. Perry announced their marriage as of Saturday, June 1, 1957 at the First Baptist Church, Apple St., Burlington.

Mrs. Perry is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, Teachers College Columbia University, New York, and holds a B.S. and M.A. Degree in elementary Education. She is from Charlotte, N.C. and for the past two years has been a member of Pleasant Grove faculty.

Dr. W. R. Perry, a pharmacist owner and operator of Worth St. Drug Store on Worth St., is well known and loved and respected by all who know him.

Our best congratulations to you both.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reaves and son of Washington, D.C. were guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Perry on Rosenwald St.

Mrs. Maude Lea of New York was home on the graduation occasion. She is the granddaughter, Miss Carolyn Corker.

Jordan Sellers Seniors Get Awards

In Special Program

Student at Jordan Sellers High School received special commendation for contributions to the school program at the annual Awards Day Program.

Following the awards presentation, Grady E. Bethel, former student at the school and now a teacher at Kingston, addressed the student body, urging cooperation and sacrifice of one's personal and selfish interests for the greater welfare of the group.

He emphasized that all programs of the school teach obedience to rules, respect for authority, fair play, respect for rights and welfare of others, good sportsmanship, loyalty to the group, self-discipline and honesty.

He was introduced by Coach Jno. H. Malloy.

Principal R. M. Earl presented awards.

Diversified occupation awards went to John B. Robinson, Bennie Shiver, Walter Enoch, Paul Burnett, Javan Enoch, Carl Miller and Howard Foust.

Mary Boldin received the valedictorian trophy, and Iris Gant received the salutatorian trophy.

Band certificates went to Mary Boldin, Deloris Bigelow, Peggy Compton, Charlie King, Minnie Kinzie, Berta Jean Lee, Sarah Moore, Peggy Robertson and Peggy Slade.

Those receiving football awards were James Albright, Jerome Albright, Robert Wagstaff, Raymond Madden, Willie Shivers, Bobby Ben-

CHEVROLET OFFERS 'LITTER BAG'

Coming at the outset of the vacation travel season, introduction of a new Chevrolet accessory—the Litter Bag—calls attention to the year-round responsibility of keeping streets and highways free of trash. A purse-style plastic container which fits beneath the glove compartment and slips off easily for emptying, the Litter Bag is demonstrated here by Barbara Sias. The accessory helps combat a highway littering problem which cost taxpayers over $30,000,000 last year. States levy stiff penalties against those who toss litter on the highways.

N. C. Detective Nabs Missing Suspect At Church Services

HIGH POINT—O. H. Leak, a local detective went to church in Greensboro Sunday and returned home with a man local police had been seeking on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Leak, a detective with the High Point Police Department, spotted his man while he was standing on the church steps waiting for the services to start. He followed the man and sought the assistance of Greensboro officers in making the arrest.

Monday in Municipal Court the defendant, James Rogers, 36, found himself bound over for trial had been seeking on a charge of severely slashing Leroy Williams with a knife last September. A total of 150 stitches were required to close the wounds in Williams' body.

Rogers was spotted by Leak while he Rogers was helping a woman out of a taxi in front of the Greensboro church.

The detective followed until Rogers stopped at a cafe. Leak then called Greensboro police from a nearby service station.

Following the arrest, Leak managed to make the church service without being late.

R. N. Awarded Diploma: Harlem Hospital Nursing School Fetes Mrs. Jones

NEW YORK CITY—Mrs. Grace Jones, R. N., wife of T. Walter Jones, has won the distinction of being one of three who have received an Honorary Diploma from Harlem Hospital School of Nursing in recognition of excellent, unselfish service.

This honor was bestowed upon Mrs. Jones by Mrs. Alda C. Dailley, Supt. of Nurses and Principal Nursing at the School's Graduation Exercises last month.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Barnes Hospital of Huntington, West Va., in 1922 when she came to Harlem Hospital where in 1932 she became the first Head Nurse to be appointed.

From 1928 to 1931 Mrs. Jones was Office Nurse to Dr. Porter Marshall Murray and James T. Granady. Mrs. Jones then went to Willy Wilson Sanatorium where she remained until 1934. In 1936 she returned to Harlem Hospital as Charge Nurse in the Social Hygiene Clinic, and in 1941 when the "Call of Service" came as a result of World War, this brilliant and charming nurse taught Voluntary Nurses' Aides for the American Red Cross.

Because of the charm, training, excellent service and depth of understanding of one whose work in the various areas of Nursing had been noteworthy, our Mrs. Grace Jones was selected as Director of the Nurses Residence in 1943 and has so remained for the past 14 years.

All in all, Mrs. Jones has given more than 25 years of wonderful service to Harlem Hospital and the School of Nursing combined, and is indeed most deserving of the honor bestowed upon her as Honorary Graduate of Harlem Hospital School of Nursing.
