BY HENRY C. MITCHELL

GOLDSBORO—A. B. Reid, one of the oldest members of the Dillard High School Alumni, presided over the annual celebration held at the school Friday night. Reid was a member of the first graduating class dating back to 1926. To attend the two-day long celebration were members from points as distant as New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. The group travelled by chartered bus and remained throughout the celebration.

The program was climaxed Friday night by awards and presentation along with recognition of outstanding graduates of the school.

A $200 cash award was made by Evelyn Turner, treasurer of the group, to Prof. H. V. Brown to be used for the athletic fund. This award was followed by a gift to William Aldridge for his work as president of the General Alumni.

After Reid opened the ceremonies the scripture reading was by Joel Silver. This was followed by invocation given by Calvin Struik.

Mrs. Gloria Boshé Kirk was crowned Miss Alumni at the ceremonies by William Aldridge. The runner up for this title was Mrs. Gwendolyn B. Lewis. Attendees were Mrs. James Deans and Mrs. Viola B. Myrick.

During the variety hour that was presided over by Mark Hicks past graduates of the high school who have entered into various professions entertained.

Those taking part in the entertainment were Mrs. Geneva Hamilton, and Mrs. Mattie D. Long with songs. This was followed by a dance by Mrs. W. D. Smith. The time quarter from the high school also did a medley of songs.

Marvin Hayes, who was formerly featured with the "Wings over Jordan" group and now a Bass concert artist of considerable repute, sang several numbers.

Before the festivities ended the group paid tribute to Mrs. Nannie Frederick who is retiring as principal of Greenleaf School after 21 years and 42 years of active service in the local system.

On Saturday afternoon a picnic was held at Durham's Lake near Dudley. The two-day observance closed out Saturday night with a dance in the East End gymnasium featuring the music of Tommy Gavin and his orchestra of Fayetteville, N. C.

A called meeting will be held in the near future at which time the objectives for next year will be formulated and the officers for the 1957-58 school year will be announced.

Mrs. Martha Middleton of Smithfield was the weekend guest of Mrs. Lula Hicks and family at 507 S. John Street.

Miss Mary Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Lane of N. James Street, was graduated recently from North Carolina College with a B. S. degree. Other Goldsborians in Durham to attend NCC finals were Mrs. Janet L. Deans, Mrs. Sadie Cole, Mrs. Phillip Ingram, Mrs. V. M. Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes. Attorney Arthur L. Lane of Goldsboro and Fayetteville was in Durham to see his niece, Miss Lane graduate. Other area students graduating from NCC were Miss Vera Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams of 303 Middle St., Miss Alma M. Artis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Artis of Pikeville, with a B.A. degree, Mrs. Annie M. Pridgen received her masters degree at the same exercises.

Miss Victoria Jordan and Samuel B. Jordan, Jr., were entertained at a "going away" party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary M. Holman, 601 Parker Street.

"Vivkie" and "Buddy" as they are affectionately known, are the children of Mrs. Annie P. Jordan, third grade teacher at School Street School who resigned recently and who is moving to Washington, D. C. where they will make their home. Mr. Samuel R. Jordan, Sr., is employed in the mail service there. Mrs. Holman was a co-worker of Mrs. Jordan's at School Street School.

Senior class and Award Night was held in the Dillard auditorium Wednesday May 29th with Herbert Uzzell presiding. Debbie Howard presented the class history. Vivienne Tate, class prophesy.

The class presented a one act play. The cast included: Jacqueline Bowman, Harold Burden, E. Nabath Green, Melba Holmes, Bruce Cherry, Lafayette Reid, Shirley Lane, Adam Williams, Mary Ann Johnson, Marian Isler and Clarence Williams.

Shirley Lane and Amor Best presented a duet; Karon Barnes a creative dance; Clifton Humphrey read the Class Will.

J. H. Wooten assistant principal presented the awards and William Aldridge made the induction into the Dillard Alumni Association.

Misses Adell and Mildred Pearson announced the engagement of their niece, Mary E. Pearson to Airman Second Class Richard Elliott of Seymour Johnson Air Force Base. They will be married in June.

Three Goldsboro students received Bachelor of Arts degrees in graduation exercises at Shaw University last week. They were Theodore Bryant, Mrs. Roberta Moses Cooper and Rev. Paul Warren.

ST. MATTHEWS AME

BY MRS. MARIE RIDDICK

"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord," Sunday school was held at 9:30 a.m. It was well attended in spite of the heavy rainfall. The Sunday School has a program for this month hoping to raise $500.00.

The morning worship service opened at 11. Choir no. 2 was in place with Mrs. Ruby McKenney as organist. After the procession of the first hymn was announced by the pastor, Rev. Upshaw, "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name."

Last Sunday being the Third Quarterly conference of the church, the presiding elder, Dr. G. S. Gant was with us as we are always passed to have him with us. After an introduction by the pastor, Rev. Gant began by thanking the members and church for their splendid report to the District Conference in Greensboro and for being able to make a full report, and commending the pastor for his splendid work here. The text of his sermon was "Neglect of Children."

Retreating to train a child in the way you would have him go and when he gets old he will not depart from it. This was a powerful sermon. Because we sometimes forget to train the child and leave him to roam into delinquency. He stressed that the parents are responsible for their actions by not instilling into the children which
