Memory Of Late Phillip Murray Recalled At Rights Conference

CHICAGO, Ill.—The memory of Phillip Murray, late president of the CIO and of the United Steelworkers of America, was honored on May 25 by the Civil Rights Conference of the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, AFL-CIO (IUE), at a conference held at Chicago's Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel.

and gave six awards to students of the Phillip Murray Public Elementary School, a Chicago school, for prize-winning essays on the spirit of Phillip Murray particularly in the field of Civil Rights.

gether and they lived together and they were happy living together and built a great organization living together." He also remembered another of Murray's declarations: "Our organization considers racial and religious prejudices part of the whole system of discriminatory practices between and among men that labor unions were organized to oppose. We maintain that defrauding a laborer of his wage and racial and religious prejudice come down to the same thing—Rank and cruel injustice. More than 175 delegates attended the IUE Civil Rights Conference.

Farm Wife Picks Unusual Prize

Most unusual prize ever requested on "Quest for a Day"—a rubber torsional spring suspension tractor seat adjustable to weight differences of operators—was recently presented to Mrs. Mildred Yahnyk, Sigourney, Iowa. Mrs. Yahnyk requested a tractor seat which would be actually comfortable for both her husband Floyd, and herself despite the big difference in their weights.
