

HUBBY KILLS WIFE IN UNCLE'S BED

Methodists Approve Integration

THE CAROLINIAN

12c in N.C. 15c Elsewhere
North Carolina's Leading Weekly...
20 PAGES
VOLUME 16 RALEIGH, N. C. WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1957 NUMBER 38

HEY, SHAKE A LEG!—Earl Wade, 3, waits for help after he got his leg stuck in drain pipe which he was experimentally probing with his foot in Detroit, Mich., June 8th. He had to squat in this uncomfortable position for over an hour before firemen were able to extricate him. They had to use a bottle of mineral oil to grease the lad's leg sufficiently for them to pull it out. (UNITED PRESS TELEPHOTO)

MAKES HISTORY IN MICHIGAN—Dr. William B. Strasser, president of Shaw University, has the distinction of being the first Negro to deliver a commencement address at River Rouge High School, Detroit, Michigan. The exercises were held on June 13, with ninety-one members graduating. Fifty per cent of this number were Negroes. The title of the president's address was "The Purpose of Education."

'FIRED' GARBAGE COLLECTOR TAKES DURHAM JOB

'Healing Preacher' Jailed

Joe Brooks Refuses Old Job In City

BY CHARLES R. JONES
Joe Brooks, 374 E. Davis Street, who was the subject of quite a bit of controversy last week after being "fired" by a garbage truck driver, refused to take his job back, although it was offered to him, and is now working in Durham. This information was obtained from the office of the Sanitary Department Wednesday. Brooks' case came to light after he was discharged for missing five days in three weeks from his job because of the illness of his wife and babies. Public Works Director, Warren J. Mann, who investigated the "firing," offered the man his job back on a full-time basis with a "temporary status" (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Churches Admitted To Confab

LAKE JUNALUSKA—Methodists of the Western North Carolina Conference voted Monday to approve a proposed amendment which would permit Negro churches to join white conferences. The vote on the amendment, which is being voted on by all Methodist conferences, was 42-12 in favor of adoption. If the nationwide movement is approved, it is expected to affect conferences in northern and western sections of the country. On the national level, the church is divided into 6 jurisdictions, one Negro and five white. The jurisdictions are further divided into conferences. The amendment would also provide for Negro conferences to transfer to white jurisdictions (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CRASH VICTIMS LAID TO REST—Thirteen of the 26 victims of a 2-truck collision near the Fayetteville June 6 were buried in a single grave last Saturday at a cemetery near the city.

Only the driver of the death truck, Tom Mackey, was among the identified persons in the caskets seen in photo. His relatives were among hundreds attending the mass funeral.

13 Truck Victims Are Buried

FAYETTEVILLE—Thirteen unclaimed victims of the nation's worst truck wreck were buried in a single grave here Saturday with services sponsored by the Negro Ministerial Alliance. Four of the Negro migrant workers killed in the crash June 6 were still not identified. Among the group of mourners were the parents and sister of Thomas Junior Mackey, driver of the truck carrying some 41 workers to bean picking jobs near here. During the services a choir of 50 sang "Abide with Me" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Six ministers took part in the burial service which included scripture readings, prayers and benediction. When the services were completed, a city bulldozer pushed dirt over the 13 plain wooden coffins in the grave.

Masons And Eastern Stars In Annual Service Sunday

St. John's Day, an annual observance of local Masons and Eastern Star members, will be held at the Martin Street Baptist Church this year. The services will begin at 4 p.m. Lodges cooperating in sponsoring the program are Widow Son, No. 4, Mentor, No. 55, F. & A. M. and Worthy Ruth Chapter, No. 2, Eastern Star. The Rev. Edmund D. Terry, assistant pastor of the Oberlin Baptist Church, will be the featured speaker. He is a member of Widow Son Lodge. The chairman of the St. John's Day committee, Bernard Williams, told The CAROLINIAN this week that over 300 persons are expected to fill the main auditorium of the church for the service. Masons and Eastern Star members from out of the city have indicated that they will attend. The fourth Sunday in June has been set aside as St. John's Day here for many years and all Masons will be attired in full dress. The Rev. Paul H. Johnson, pastor of the host church, will deliver the welcome address. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PATTON SAYS HIGH COURT RULE WON'T AFFECT N. C. LAW

George Patton, Attorney General of North Carolina, said Monday that he did not think a U. S. Supreme Court decision which, in effect, struck down Louisiana's pupil assignment law, would have any effect on the school segregation situation in this state. The decision in the Louisiana case "is not going to affect" North Carolina's pupil assignment law, one way or another," Patton said, when asked for comment on the high court decision. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Flim-Flam Artist Gets Six Years

DURHAM—Jim Smith, 75, alias Bill Smith, 64, who is also known as the "Healing Preacher" and who has allegedly spent more than half of his life behind bars, flim-flamed himself out of six more years of freedom Monday in Superior Court. Smith pleaded guilty to three charges of larceny by trick and Judge Clawson Williams gave him two years on the roads for each count. The terms are to run consecutively. On May 30, appearing in Recorder's Court Smith declared that his name was Jim and that he was 75-years-old. Police records dealing extensively with his past show that his name was Bill Smith and that his age was 64. Three victims of Smith's larceny by trick claimed that he swindled them out of money by claiming that he was a (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Charlotte Clerk Loses $1,600 To Fast Talking 'Acquaintance'

CHARLOTTE—An ex-convict who talked a grocery clerk out of $1,600 waived preliminary hearings Tuesday on a grand larceny charge and was bound over to Mecklenburg County Superior Court. Louis Samuels, 30, was held in the city jail in lieu of $2,500 bond. Samuels was arrested at Rockingham, Monday, about 2 hours after he fled with the (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Wife Stabbed To Death In Bed With Her Uncle

LUMBERTON—Johnny Perkins, 36, local man, who has a criminal record "a mile long," including murder, has been arrested here and charged with the knife slaying of his wife. Perkins is charged with stabbing his wife, Margaret (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Trial Friday For Two White Men Caught In Act With Local Girl

A 15-year-old Raleigh girl, who has been in and out of trouble for several years, was reportedly turned over to juvenile authorities Sunday night after being found naked in a parked car having sexual relations with two white men. Trial of the men, Dallis William Jordan, 21, of 2804 Bedford Avenue and George Phillip Blake, 20, 851 Tyson Street, has been set for Friday in the local Domestic Relations Court. Officials of the court have (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Bonus Money Program Nears Close Of Month

The fourth week of The CAROLINIAN-sponsored Bonus Money Program began Thursday morning of this week and will end Wednesday, June 26, at midnight. This is the fourth month of bonus money participation and the pocketbooks of many Raleigh families have been swelled by awards earned for spending money with CAROLINIAN advertisers. The contest, which began Tuesday, May 20, will end at midnight, June 26. In order to win Bonus Money participants must patronize CAROLINIAN advertisers, who are listed on the front page of each edition. Request purchase slips or receipts, save them and turn them in at the end of the Bonus Money period, which will be announced Friday. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News Brief

BARBER SUES 3 COPS
RALEIGH—James Harris, local barber, filed a suit Friday morning against three police officers seeking $50,000 damages and alleged that the officers were insulting and abusing when he went to the police station to complain that two white men had molested his wife. Harris brought the ac- (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

DURHAM COUNCIL KEEPS JIM CROW

DURHAM—The Durham City Council, informed by its attorney that segregation of public facilities is no longer legal, made no move Monday night to end its segregated recreation facilities. The council did, however, grant permission for a Negro tennis tournament to be held on the Forest Hill Court, previously restricted to whites. Attempts have been made by Negroes recently to gain admittance to city-owned recreational facilities, including tennis courts, swimming pool and a theater. City Recreation Director C. R. Wood had asked the City Council for a statement of policy regarding the operation of city facilities in the light of the action. "Without such a policy, he said, he will continue to operate under (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

AN APPEAL: Now that there is no immediate need to fear that you might be the victim of revengeful reprisal should name be revealed as a member of the NAACP, every Negro in Raleigh is respectfully urged to join this worthwhile organization. Those who have been members and their memberships have expired are asked to please renew their membership. For new or renewal membership the cost is only $2.00 and it can be done by calling Mr. Carl Devane at Shaw University or Mr. Clifton Silk on Gatlins St. Either of these two will gladly call upon you to receive your membership fee. Your prompt action in this important matter will aid greatly in furthering the worthy work of the NAACP.

PROTECTION: A young Negro man was standing on an uptown Raleigh street corner, minding his own business the other day, when a car of young white vermin drove by and one of the occupants spat fairly and fully into the Negro's face. Quickly recovering his composure he jotted down (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

LABOR PROBLEMS DISCUSSED—Vice President Richard Nixon (center) and James Mitchell (right), Labor Secretary, shake hands with Rev. Martin L. King, leader of the Montgomery, Ala. bus strike, during the latter's visit in Washington, June 18th. King and Nixon met for two hours and King later said that Nixon would visit the South soon to look into fair employment practices. (UNITED PRESS TELEPHOTO)

This Week's Advertisers

- The merchants listed below are CAROLINIAN Bonus Money Stores.
- PAGE 2: Tip Top Food Stores
 - PAGE 3: National Art Shop, S. M. Young, Union Bus Terminal, Johnson-Lamb Company, Hudson-Belk Company, Famous Bakery, Raleigh Funeral Home, Mr. Joseph Winters
 - PAGE 4: Twin Inn Oil Service, Mr. Elvis Rand, Raleigh Seafood Company, Acme Realty Company, Hunt General Tire Company, City Sales & Service, Civella Beauty College, The Hood System Industrial Bank
 - PAGE 5: Betty Gay, A & P Super Markets, Mr. Elvis Rand, B. E. Quinn Furniture Company
 - PAGE 6: Bloodworth St. Tourist Home, Heater Well Company, Caviness Insurance Agency, Dunn's Esso Service, Carolina Builders Corp., Watson's Seafood & Fruit Co., Inc., Umstead Transfer Co. & Food Store, Dillon Motor Finance Company, Higgins's Opticians, Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh, Mechanics & Farmers Bank
 - PAGE 7: Deluxe Hotel
 - PAGE 8: Auto Brokers, Inc., City Motor Company, Sanders Motor Company
 - PAGE 12: Gen's Watch Shop, John Askew Painter & Decorator, Community Grill, Lewis Radio & TV Clinic, Thompson & Evans, Inc., Carolina Power & Light Company, Ambassador Theatre, First Citizens Bank & Trust Company, Edward's Shoe Store, N. C. Products, Capital Camera Shop
 - PAGE 15: Scout's Tourist Home, Terrill's Grocery, Farmers Supply Store, Triangle Station, Victor's Auto Parts, Veale's Shell Service, Tom Ashworth's Tire Service, Varina Wholesale Builders Supply, Western Auto Associates Store, Stephens Supply Company
 - PAGE 16: Hudson-Belk Company, Twin City Radio & Appliance Co., Steve's Place, Tomsett's Store, Heasley's Store, Victor's Place, Jone's Cafe
 - PAGE 18: Woodliff, Hollowell's Cash Food Store, Keith's Super Market
 - PAGE 20: Kimball's Inc., Electrical Wholesalers, Inc., Stone Fire Proof Cover Co., Security Market