PROVIDENCE GROUP ATTENDS CONFAB

A number of young people of Providence Holy Church, corner of South Bloodworth St. and Bledsoe Ave., attended a National Bible Church School and Y.P.H.A. Convention of the United Holy Church, in New York City, July 31 through August 4.

Among the number of persons going to New York for the convention were Rev. James A. Forbes, pastor; Mrs. J. A. Forbes; Rev. J. A. Forbes, Jr.; Clarence Young, superintendent of the Bible Church School; Miss Lillian Wright; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ray; Mrs. Magdalene Upchurch; Mrs. Willa Williams and others.

The purpose of this meeting was to exchange ideas for the better understanding of youth work and to further organize for evangelization of unsaved youth.

Both farmers and ginners are required to keep accurate records of purchases and sales of cotton.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. — Luke 23, 34.

Do you ever find it hard in your heart to forgive anyone? Do you sometimes find it hard even to forgive yourself?... On the Cross, Christ Jesus asked God to forgive those who were crucifying Him — for the Eternal God of Love and Mercy will forgive — and He hears even the smallest prayer.

turned to his post following a ten-month tour as a specialist in technical education and graphic arts in Baghdad, Iraq. He was assistant director of the Baghdad Institute which was founded and organized by Bradley University of Peoria, Ill., under contract with the International Cooperation Agency (ICA). Russell first served with the Bradley team during a two-year period, 1953-55. (A and M staff photo by C. J. Smith, III)

Judge Rules "Sweet Daddy Grace" Can't Have Water, Sound Truck

DETROIT, Mich.—(AP)—Court action on the complaint of several persons here against Sweet Daddy Grace last week resulted in an Ordinance Magistrate refusing to allow the religious leader to use water for an outdoor baptism and a sound truck for a "crusade."

Magistrate John D. Watts upheld a complaint of Mrs. Melba Campbell, a principal witness, against Daddy Grace and ordered the spiritualist leader to do his baptizing in other ways by revoking Grace's license to use a fire hose and hydrant for mass outdoor baptisms.

In another move the Magistrate revoked Sweet Daddy's sound truck permit and ordered Grace's services to be held inside the converted theatre here he purchased.

The religious leaders representative, Elder Claude Wilkerson, told the court that "we do not come to disturb, but to make people happy and full of joy." Wilkerson made the statements after Mrs. Campbell told the magistrate, the only thing we neighbors want is for Sweet Daddy and his people to go into the place quietly and close the door."

About a dozen other people told the court that a sound truck followed by a band marched through the area during Sweet Daddy's "crusade."

Martin Street. The Thompsons are especially proud of their Monthly Roses and Petunias, which number among their vast variety of types, some of which bloom year-round. Thompson, (better known as The Sandman) has lived at the above address since 1946.

Weekly Church Roundup

By Mrs. May L. Broadie

"Dear God, we come to Thee because we would know Thee. We want to be with Thee, to talk to Thee, to listen to Thy voice. In Thy presence we feel truly alive. Grant us this day that we may know Thee better, through Christ, Thy Son."
