Six Films Available At Library

The Richard B. Harrison Public Library has the following films available from August 19th to September 13th, 1957.

FAMILY OF INDIA, 13 min.—An average, middle-class Hindu native of India tells how his family lives—its work, shopping, recreation and education.

MARRIAGE TODAY, 22 min.—Provides dramatic treatment for the ideas and goals of adult love. Two couples have made their marriages work through clear analysis of their mutual aims and cooperation in striving to achieve them.

RHYTHM IN PAINT, 10 min.—Watercolorist Elliot O'Hara uses his own sketches and others to illustrate the principle of rhythm in painting. Artist Margaret Shepard paints a watercolor entitled "Two Doves".

SOME PEOPLE STAYED HOME, 9 min.—Shows the machinations of a corrupt political machine to elect its candidate.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Funeral services for Andrew F. Jackson were conducted from St. Luke's Episcopal Church, last week, by Father Dillard Brown.

Jackson died with a stomach ailment at Georgetown University Hospital after an extended illness. The 55-year-old public relations consultant was founder of the Nationwide Hotel Association, which publishes a travel accommodations guide.

He also served as publicity agent for the Booker T. Washington Centennial Commission. During World War II, he set up a secretarial service bureau to train government workers. And from 1942 to 1947 he edited the Sentry, a weekly newspaper for Government employees.

Jackson obtained his newspaper experience in the advertising department of the New York Amsterdam News before coming to Washington. Later he worked in the advertising department of the old Washington Tribune.

He was a member of the Public Relations Society of America, the Pieskin Club of Washington and Widow Lodge No. 7 of the Free and Accepted Masons.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Jackson received his education at Hobson Academy in Maine and Howard University.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Marion Elliot-Jackson, nationally and Basilius of the Iota Phi Lambda Society. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Audrey V. Purvis of East Orange, N.
