Lawyer Says Ringling Brothers Discriminated Against Negroes

DALLAS (ANP) — Atty. V. Simpson Tate, a local NAACP official, disclosed here last Wednesday that he had been denied tickets to the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus, currently playing at Memorial auditorium, unless he sat in a section reserved for Negroes.

In making the disclosure, Tate said that he planned a protest to the city council.

Recounting the event, the attorney said that a woman ticket seller refused to let him buy three tickets to the circus.

"I have been denied the use of the auditorium, of which I, as a citizen and taxpayer, am part owner. I think I have been wronged and I am rather unhappy about it."
