Klansmen Gather As Nigerian Attends NC Church

TELLS OF ACTOR'S DEATH FIGHT - Former welterweight poxer Tommy Bell is shown as he leaves New York police station early Dec. 27th after being questioned by police about the Christmas Eve street brawl, in which he and his companion, Canadian actor Serad Sarracini, were involved. Sarracini died Dec. 26th of injuric received in the brawl. Police arrested 26-year-old construction worker

Person Man Kills Wife, Her Mother Over Santa

Fig.m. Monday, the second victim of her estranged husband's shotgun.

Mrs. Williams died from a harrage of shots which killed ley, 68, at their home Sunday night.

Olive Hill tobacco farmer T. C. Williams, husband of the slain woman, has confessed to the slay-

Held without bond under charges of the double murder, Williams told officers he had been separated from his wife

Deaf Mute's Case Goes To State Supreme Court

A deaf-mute, convicted of first- Brown Manning who wategree murder in Nash County and March 5 rentenced to death, appealed his case to the State Supreme Court

Johnny D. Knight Jr., 29, was convicted by a jury in the Aug. 20 term of Nash Superior Court. He had pleaded innecent to the charges in the death of Mrs Myra!

Judge William J. Bundy

sentenced him to die in the gas chamber Oct. Il but the execution was delayed pending the The jury had deliberated a

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 7)

Church Bonus Money Month Ends; Winners To Be Listed

unded at midnight January 1, 1958. All participating churches are askad to submit their purchase slips to The CAROLINIAN no later than Moon Monday, January 6. Winning thurches will be announced in the next edition of this paper.

The next Bonus Money Mon-

Thursday, January 9, It will consist of five weeks and members of churches which are not now taking part are urged to contact their ministers so that their churches may try for awards in the Bonus Money pro-

(CONTINUED CN PAGE 7)

ANOTHER 'FIRST' - Miss Carol Taylor of New York City became the nation's first Negro airline stewardess last week, when she was hired by the Mohawk Airlines. Employment of the attractive Registered Nurse is the culmination of negotiations which have been underway between the State Commission Against Discrimination and the major airlines operating in New York (Newspress Photo).

HE CAROLINIAN

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1958

15c

Elsewhere

$100, Suit And Topcoat Offered As

Popularity Contest Opens Jan. 16

Husband Confesses:

3 Big Prizes Await Clerics In Tarheelia

The contest will consist eight weeks, closing March 10

First prize is $100. A Botany suit will be given as second prize, and a Gleneagles topcoat will be the third prize. Winners will be announced in the issue of March 15, and the winners have the opportunity of selecting the style, pattern and color of the

CONTINUED ON PAGE 1)

Hold Two In Robberies At Fayetteville

holdups with a toy cap pistol here, police said.

TRUCK-BIKE CRASH FATAL FOR ONE-Milton Goddard Joslin, white, 214 Lafeyette Street. died in Rex Hospital here Tuesday of injuries suffered when his motorbike was in collision with a truck driven by William Henry Fletcher, 66, Negro of Route 4, Raleigh. The incident took place at noon at the conver of Martin and East Streets, and Joslin succumbed shortly before midnight. He suffered lacerations, a brain concussion, and a broken left leg. His motorbike can be seen in photo under truck No charges had been placed against Fletcher at press time, (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS, R. JONES

S. C. Governor Cracks Down On honorably discharged from the army a few days ago, has confessed a series of taxicab driver Allen U., Wants Teachers Fired from Ft. Bragg, also was impli- are to the effect that Governor here. th for churches will start cated in the robberies. The sus- Bell Timmerman Jr., has called pects were ordered held under Bishop I. H. Bonner, AME prelate Timmerman told Bishop Bonner and demanded the dismissal of

COLUMBIA (ANP) - Reports three professors of Allen Univers-Another man, an AWOL soldier circulating about South Carolina ity, the denomination's college

According to these reports, Gov. South Carolina, before him that the restoring of state accreditation to Allen University so that its graduates would be recognized to teach in South Carolina would only be implemented if the three teachers, two of whom are white and one colored were fired

Bishop Bonner is said to pressure threats and notified the three teachers who are Dr. Edwin D. Hoffman, Dr.

John G. Rideout and Dr. Forest Oran Wiggins, that they could resign by Jan. 10 and receive pay up until that date or he would fire them immediately after that day without further pay.

Skeleton Of Woman Found In The Woods

The defendant Freddie Hugh Strong, 23, waived preliminary nearing before Justice of the Peace F. C. Carroway and was held without bond for the Feb. 26 term of uperior Court

The .SBI and .Sheriff's officers obtained a confession from Strong after members of the family identified clothing on a skeleton as that of Strong's wife, Appahelle, She disappeared last Aug. 12. The skeleton was found in

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 7)

Founders' Day Plans Made At St. Augustine's

On January 11th and 12, special programs will be held to commenerate the founding of St. Augusine's College.

No one individual was the founder of the college, but Bishop Themas Atkinson and Dr. Smith were the outstanding individuals. Principals and presidents of the college were: Dr. J. Brinton Smith who died in 1872. On October 15, 1872, the Rev. John Ester Cook It is said no charges have been | Smedes took office as "temporary

10 Klansmen Seen As Man Worships GREENSBORO - The appear ance of a Nigerian Minister at a the Nigerian was brought to the church by the church's Mission-

OFFICE - Judson T. Phillips of Garner, above, was sworn in January 1 as the new Exalted Ruler of the Elks Lodge here. The ceremony was performed by Julius R. Haywood, District Deputy. Phillips, who has been a member of the local lodge for 23 years, has been Loyal Knight for the past six years. Succeed. ing Alphonso Vance as Exalted Ruler, Phillips will serve for one year. He is married to the form er Miss Flossie Faison and they have no children.

Wife Leaves, Mate Vows To Kill Himself

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn - Alfred King 33, held a cocked, loaded pistol under his chin for three hours Monday before a minister ended the suicide threat by grabbing the weapon.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 7)

LIBRARY BOOK REVIEWS RALEIGH - The first in a se ries of book reviews will be held at the Richard B. Harrison Public Library Sunday, January 5, at 4: p.m. The book, "Neither Black Nor White," by Wilma Dykeman and

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 7)

By ROBERT G. SEEPARD

THE NEW YEAR: It is doubt less a good thing that the Christian World has established the date for the beginning of the New Year a few days after the celebration of Christmas. At Christmastime we rejoice over the Advent of Christ, the birth the promise of a better and fuller a rebirth for us. Beginning the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 7)

"$100-Bill Man" Robbed Of $789 In Greensboro

Bill Man" told police he was robbed Sunday night of $789 - including six of his $100 bills.

GREENSBORO - An elderly, the back of his head. He said one man known as the "100-Dollar remarked "Dead men tell no

Williams told police he had met the two men in a grill, and that thorities two men pulled the holdup. He said one held a pistol in his ribs and the other a pistol at (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Tuskegee's Race Relations Report Delayed By Stories

nual Tuskegee Institute race relations report will be delayed due to "Significant year-end occurrences," Dr. L. H. Foster, president of the famed Negro college said this!

"Turbulent cross - currents marked the pattern of race relations during 1957." Foster said, and "rapidly moving and significant year-end occurrences require advancing the recase date. . .. Jan. 15, 1958." Preliminary information from he race relations report shows that not since the 1954 Supreme Court ruling have more significant

Brothers Of Slain Man Attempt To Free Killer

PETERSBURG, Va. - Two men charged with attempting to force the release of a Negro acexpected to be tried Thursday in municipal court here. Trial for the two, John

Fla., and his brother, Robert, 29, of Petersburg, was post-

ABOR PAINS - The tiny, 6-member Department Store Workers Local went on strike in Mcmphis. Tenn., against a store run by the huge 3,000-member United Rubber Workers Local, and confusion resulted. To top things off, the president of the Rubber Workers tried his hand at strike breaking by crossing the picket lines and hiring new workers. (UNITED PRESS PHOTO).