

HAPPY NEW YEAR Everyone

OSCAR COOLS OFF — Spectators at the opening game of N. C. State's annual Dixie Classic here got more than they bargained for in the opening game between No. 1 ranked Cincinnati and Wake Forest. Cincy's Oscar Robertson (12), No. 1 player in the nation, collided with Wake's Dave Budd (12, not shown) and the two went down fighting. Referee Jim Enright is shown restraining Robertson as Wake's Olin Broadways (44) attempts to help. Cincinnati defeated Wake Forest Monday night, but was downed by North Carolina Tuesday afternoon. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Klan Leader Suggests Integrating Exclusive Sections Of Three Cities

OLDSMAR, Fla. — Florida Klux Klan leader Bill Hendrix suggested that Florida integration should begin at exclusive residential sections of Tampa, St. Petersburg and Miami.

Bandit Who Robbed Latta Bank Identified As Former Resident

LATTA, S. C. — The goateed Negro bandit who held up the Latta Bank and Trust Company Tuesday, taking $20,500, has been identified as Henry Parnell, 23, a former resident of this small North-eastern South Carolina town.

Federal, state and local authorities used bloodhounds and airplanes in the search which continued from shortly after the 12:15 p. m. robbery Tuesday on into the night.

Police also questioned Cooper Parnell, who said he was the robber's uncle, and a man identified as John C. McRae after searching Parnell's rented room.

Parnell entered the Latta Bank

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Rayburn Cautions Against Denying Dr. Alford Seat

WASHINGTON — Speaker Sam Rayburn has cautioned Democrats it would be a "major operation" to deny party recognition to Arkansas segregationist Dale Alford, it was disclosed Monday.

Rep. John A. Blatnik (D-Minn.) said Rayburn used these words in replying to a telegram said Alford should not be allowed the privileges of a Democrat in the new congress.

Alford, a segregationist member of the Little Rock School Board, defeated Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) in a write-in campaign. He made an issue of Hays' moderation on the integration issue.

Blatnik argued that since Al-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

International Yearbook To List Asa Spaulding

DURHAM — According to information released from London, the 1959 Edition of "The International Year Book and Statement of Whos Who" is carrying a biographical sketch of Asa T. Spaulding, vice-president, secretary and controller of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company until recently.

Spaulding is now president-elect of the company.

The information on Mr. Spaulding was gathered several months ago, hence he is listed with his previous title.

The International Year Book is published by Mercury House in London and "includes the names of some of the most important people in the world today — and innumerable Ministers and Governmental departments, Embassies and Legations throughout the world," according to its descriptive material.

Shot Thru Floor Claims Life Of Man In Forsyth

WINSTON-SALEM — A fit of anger resulted in a freak accident which killed an unsuspecting Negro man in the basement of a home, police reported Friday.

Police said Willie Hall, 55, died when a bullet fired from a room over his head went through the floor and struck him.

Authorities said Fred Rogers and them he was enraged because he could not find his wife, and came home with "pistol in hand."

In a fit of anger, police said, Rogers fired into the floor — and then remembered that Hall lived in the basement. Rogers said he ran downstairs only to find Hall dead.

Rogers was charged with manslaughter and released under $1,000 bond.

Executive Will Sue Restaurant

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 18, NO. 14

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1959

RALEIGH, N. C.

PRICE 12c IN N. C.; ELSEWHERE 15c

7 Nabbed In Charlotte Terrorism

Mystery Shot Fells Youth

Juveniles Face Trial For Terror

CHARLOTTE — City police said arrested in connection with a wave last week seven Negroes have been of juvenile terrorism which had resulted in the beating and robbing of at least 10 persons on Charlotte streets in the past week.

Police Lt. J. R. Hall said the seven had admitted taking part in five assault and robbery cases. Four have been bound to Mecklenburg County Superior Court on charges of assault and robbery. Two more were arrested Tuesday and the seventh surrendered voluntarily, said Hall.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Trials Set In Guilford Bomb Calls

GREENSBORO — Two teenagers faced separate hearings in domestic relations court on charges of making telephone bomb scare calls.

A 14-year-old Negro girl will appear Jan. 14. Police said she has admitted making eight telephone calls saying bombs had been placed in Negro schools in Greensboro. They also said she made several false alarm fire and ambulance calls.

A 14-year-old white pupil at Aycock School here appeared

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CONVICTED MURDERER BAPTIZED—Jeff Clanton, convicted murderer, arms folded and in a reflective mood, is shown being baptized on Christmas Eve by the Rev. Jesse McFarland. Clanton was sentenced to life imprisonment for the August 25, 1957 shooting of Ernest Page, Erie, Pa. (UPI PHOTO).

Deadline Given For Submitting Receipts For Bonus Money Month

The current Church Bonus Money Month is over. It ended at midnight Wednesday, December 31 after a run of six weeks. Those churches which participated in the program are requested to submit their purchase slips or receipts at the office of the CAROLINIAN, 512 E. Martin Street, not later than Monday, January 5.

Churches participating in the program in the past have collected purchase slips from the members each week. Usually each church appoints an officer to be in charge of collecting the slips.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News Brief

VANDERGRIFT DIRECTS CHOIR

A Christmas concert was presented by the Kittrell Junior College Choir recently in the auditorium at 8 p.m.

The Kittrell choir is directed by Charles Alston, Jr., and it presented excerpts from Handel's Oratorio, "The Messiah." Participants included: William Vandergriff, baritone; Shirley Canady and Sadie Miller, sopranos; Dorothy Baldwin, alto; and Robert Howie, a guest tenor from North Carolina College.

The Christmas performance was

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Hospital Lists Allen's Condition Now As Fair

Officials at St. Agnes Hospital listed the condition of Harold Lee Allen, 16, as "fair" Wednesday morning. Allen was shot on a sidewalk here about 1:30 a. m. Saturday morning by an "unknown assailant."

The youth who lives at 214 S. East Street is being treated at the hospital for a bullet wound in his left side, just below the heart.

Reports indicate that Allen was talking with two friends in the 300 block of S. Bloodworth Street while other youths were shooting fireworks nearby.

Allen is said to have suddenly felt a sharp pain in his side and noticed blood on his clothing. His friends said that they did not know

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Insurance Official Charges Bias At Facility In Georgia

ATLANTA — A Negro insurance executive who said he was refused service at the table of his choice filed suit in federal district court here last week to end segregation in the restaurant at the Atlanta Municipal Airport.

Notice of the suit by H. D. Coker of Birmingham, Ala., was given before, but formal filing was delayed by legal technicalities. It was the fourth suit attacking city, county and state segregation practices to be filed here.

Coker demanded a permanent injunction against operation of the Dobbs House restaurant at the airport on a segregated basis. He named as defendants Mayor William Hartsfield, the city of Atlanta, Dobbs House, Inc., airport terminal manager Jack Gray, and B. F. Buttery, airport restaurant manager. Coker, who said he must fly often to the Atlanta airport on business, charged in the complaint that the restaurant hostess refused to seat him at the table of his choice.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

No Negro Bands Invited For Ala. Inaugural

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Only white bands will march in the inaugural parade for Alabama's new governor this month.

Ed Azar, chairman of inaugural ceremonies, said Gov.-elect John Patterson decided not to invite

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

TWO FACE STILL CHARGES

GRAHAM — Two men face charges of operating a still following a raid by Alamance County sheriff's deputies which netted 45 gallons of moonshine, an automobile and distilling equipment.

W. T. McAdams of Route 1, Mebane, was charged with possessing equipment for the illegal manufacture of whiskey and with transporting non-tax paid whiskey. William Ramsey, a Negro of Route 3, Mebane, was charged with aiding in the illegal manufacture of whiskey.

A search of Ramsey's home also netted the deputies 12 additional gallons of moonshine and 480 pounds of sugar.

CAROLINIAN

ADVERTISERS

BUY FROM THEM

PAGE 3
Horton's Cash Store
Central Drug Store
PAGE 4
Raleigh Savings & Loan Association
S. H. Kress & Company
R. C. Quinn Furniture Co.
PAGE 5
Hudson-Bell Company
S. M. Young Hardware
Southern Bell Telephone Company
Mr. John W. Winters
PAGE 6
The Hood System Industrial Bank
Raleigh Funeral Home
Famous Bakery
Davie Street Laundry
Surrey Exterminating Company
PAGE 7
Collie Vaughn Co.
Gus Russo's Hatters & Cleaners
Sullivan's Grocery
Capital Loan Company, Inc.
Raleigh Seafood Company
Hamilton Grocery
Firestone Store
Washington Terrace Apts.
PAGE 8
Colonial Stores
Raleigh Commission House, Inc.
Mr. C. Earl Litchman
Taylor Radio & TV Service
Davis Flower Shop
Standard Cider Block Co.
PAGE 9
Honeycutt Super Market
J. C. Penney Company
Wood's 5-10-25c Store
Consolidated Credit Corp.
Loud Meadow Farms

T. H. Briggs & Son
Community Drug Store
W. T. Grant
State Finance Company
Union Finance Company
Mac's Esso Servicenter
New Bern Avenue Open Air Market
Charles Department Store
Raleigh Furniture Company
O'Neal Motors, Inc.
Raper Super Market
Raleigh Industrial Loan Company
PAGE 10
Hoodworth St. Tourist Home
Heater Well Company
Caveness Insurance Agency
Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh
Carolina Builders Corp.
Watson's Seafood & Poultry Co., Inc.
Unstead Transfer Co. & Food Store
Dillon Motor Finance Company
Dunn's Esso Service
Ridgeway's Opticians
Warner Memorials
Deluxe Hotel
PAGE 11
Gem Watch Shop
Unstead's Transfer Co.
Bird's of Raleigh
Carier's, Inc.
First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.
Roscoe-Griffin Shoe Company
PAGE 12
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company
Wake Finance Company
N. C. Products
White Oil Company
Acme Realty Company
Martin Street Self-Serve Laundry