This is a repeat but I think it is worth repeating. Hope your local editor will follow through and egg you on, still more.

We travel time. Where in this good land of ours can you find more exciting natural beauty than in the Tar Heel State — Variety Vacationland?

The 4 peaks in the Land of the Sky, all above 6,000 feet in altitude, beckon to you. Here the Appalachian chain seems to have united and fused together and then to break up in a confusion of lofty peaks with a labyrinth of intervening valleys. This is the land of rhododendrons, mountain laurel, cool brooklets, clear waters and fighting trout.

At the other end of this 500-mile strip of land we call Tarheels the ghost of Negs Head beckons. Here the rivers become sounds and the sounds meet the ocean in a never-ending restlessness. Dunes are piled high by the ever-shifting sands and trees bend away from the salt spray. Every Tar Heel should be able to claim a trip down the most famous outer banks in the world. Go to Hatteras this summer.

For the mountaineer, a trip to the East with stops at Old Salem, Tryon Palace and The Lost Colony will be rewarding and an adventure you will not soon forget. There are many interesting stops in between, and the fish will be biting in coastal waters.

For the easterner, don't stop until you have driven on a section of the Blue Ridge Parkway, the most popular and scenic drive in Eastern America. And while you are about this business of discovering North Carolina, stop off at Boone and see "Horn in the West" or Cherokee and see "Unto These Hills."

Don't put it off any longer. Let's go. If you do, I am sure that our paths will cross somewhere along the line of travel because we always get in at least one trip to the coast and one to the mountains during the summer season.

ONE OF LIFE'S EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

TEMPE, Ariz. — When Tempe Police Capt. Frank Adams reported to work with a cast on his right arm, he had some explaining to do. He told fellow officers that he cracked a small bone in the arm during the first session of a police PHYSICAL FITNESS program.

NAMES CAN BE MISLEADING. LA FLECHE, France — Honey-mooner in France are being warned that the Hotel de Ville is the City Hall, not a hotel.

Two newlyweds from London were arrested here for trying to break into the town's Hotel de Ville after dark. They were released after police questioning revealed that they were only looking for the honeymoon suite.

GETS HONORARY DEGREE — President R. P. Perry confers the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon Dr. Robert C. Weaver, Housing and Home Finance Agency Administrator at the 94th Commencement at Johnson C. Smith University recently. H. L. Counts, instructor in the School of Theology at the University, adjusts the hood which signifies the degree. Dr. Weaver delivered the Commencement address.

Robert Weaver Speaks To J. C. Smith Graduates; Gets Degree

CHARLOTTE — Dr. Robert C. Weaver, Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, had some encouraging remarks as well as words of warning for the 120 graduates of the College of Liberal Arts and Theological Seminary at the 94th Commencement at Johnson C. Smith University on May 23.

"We are living in an age when men and women need broad learning," he said. Comprehension should not be restricted to Western culture and civilization.

Rather, he feels that men and women should be educated to comprehend cultural and national differences in the world, as we are all citizens of one small world.

In a country whose capacity to produce is sufficient to provide for all people a decent standard of living, Dr. Weaver commented that too many are still ill fed, ill housed, and ill clothed.

"Society as a whole," he said, "is involved in the problem of directing a wider portion of our resources for public use."

Speaking of the struggle of college youth in the sit-in demonstrations, Dr. Weaver said, "I personally rejoice and welcome their participation in the struggle for human dignity."

Dr. Weaver, who has risen higher in the United States Government than any other man of his race, was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by the University.

Also receiving the Doctor of Laws degree was Dr. Reginald A. Hawkins, a practicing dentist in the City of Charlotte. Dr. Hawkins, a graduate of the College of Liberal Arts and Theological Seminary, is a strong champion of civil rights. He holds the D. D. S. degree from Howard University.

Others receiving the D. D. degree were: The Reverend Charles W. Talley, Synod Executive of the Atlantic Synod, Cheraw, S. C.; and the Rev. Cordell H. Kennedy, pastor of the Grier Heights United Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, and a Lieutenant Colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve. Both Talley and Kennedy are graduates of the College of Liberal Arts and Theological Seminary of Johnson C. Smith. Dr. Rufus P. Perry, president of the 95 year old college, conferred the degrees.

DEGREE RECIPIENTS — Recipient of honorary degrees at the 94th Commencement at Johnson C. Smith University are, (l-r) Dr. R. A. C., who received the degree of Doctor of Divinity; and the Reverend Cordell H. Kennedy, pastor of the Grier Heights United Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, who also received the degree of Doctor of Divinity. ORDER OF VOTING QUESTION: When several candidates have been nominated, it is good parliamentary procedure to vote on the last-named candidate first.—E. L. B.
ANSWER: Parliamentary law does not say that this must be done. Actually, you may not vote on the first-named candidate first.
GENERAL CONSENT: Voting by general consent is a way of voting by not voting. The chairman takes the vote something like this: "If there are no objections, the minutes stand approved as read." The organization saves time by using this method of voting.
Should a member challenge this method of voting, he should say, "I call for a division of the house!"
The chairman says, "A division of the house has been called for. Do I hear a second? All in favor of the motion, please stand; those who are opposed, please stand until you are counted."

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT
TO THE CITIZENS OF WAKE COUNTY
My Heartfelt Gratitude and Humble Thanks for your support in the May 26th Primary.
IN MY OPINION:
1. The people need more grassroots representation on the Wake County Board of Commissioners.
2. The Commissioner's seat for the eastern district of Wake County has been held in the Wendell-Knightdale section for 12 years and should now come to the Zebulon area.
3. My obligation to the 4,303 people who voted for me, a large percentage of which was by personal contact.
4. The 3rd, 4th, & 5th place candidates were people who would ordinarily appeal to the same segment of the voters that I would appeal to.
These are some of the reasons why I am calling for a second primary in the race for County Commissioner, Eastern district.
Sincerely,
BILLY K. HOPKINS
