Raleigh Attorney

Seeks Aid Of High Court

Judge Stanley Refuses To Stay Sentence

GREENSBORO — Persons interested in the Herman Taylor case think that Judge Edward Stanley threw it into a bigger muddle when he reduced the amount to be paid from $55,000.00 to $26,000.00.

It was learned that the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal had already reduced the income tax from a reported $32,000.00 to $6,000.00. Under this condition, it is believed that Judge Stanley had no alternative. The Circuit is said to have ruled that Taylor could not be held liable for any more tax than that ordered by it.

The Raleigh attorney was given a deadline to pay the $32,000.00 as of August 1. The hitch is that the case has been appealed to the United States Supreme Court and will not be heard until October. The new sentence, imposed by Judge Stanley, causes Lawyer to have to ask a higher court to stay the execution until his case is heard by the highest court of the land.

There are some who believed that Judge Stanley could have stayed the sentence until such time, if he had desired to do so. Interested lawyers are said to have asked the federal jurist to do that, but he refused. This means that Taylor must seek to have sentence stayed by the Circuit Court of Appeal by August 1.

Laurinburg School Enrolls 1st Negro

LAURINBURG — The earth did not shake nor did the buildings fall when Samuel Littlejohn entered the classrooms of St. Andrews College Tuesday. He became the first of his race to seek to further his training by enrolling at the Presbyterian School.

A spokesman told THE CAROLINIAN that he was accepted in the course of processing application and was receiving the same kind of treatment any other student was getting. He admitted that it was an innovation but said that it was turning out nicely.

When asked if this meant that the college would open its doors to Negroes for regular session he replied that he could not speak for the Board of Trustees or the administration. He could not say whether there had been any discussion on the matter by policy makers of the school.

Littlejohn, 42, lives in Hamlet and is a member of the public school system. He is taking a course in descriptive astronomy, open to all in service teachers, who qualify. The tuition is paid by the state.

TOO MANY PARASITES

Webster's dictionary defines parasites as something that lives upon, or at the expense of others.

Last Sunday afternoon, the Raleigh Citizens Association held its annual mid-summer mass meeting at the centrally located Martin Street Baptist Church.

The announced and advertised purpose of this meeting was to acquaint the Negroes of this community with what was going on as far as they were concerned, to inform them of things needed to be done and to enlist their aid and support in getting those things done, to hear about the results of the registration project, in operation here since June 15 and to make a general appraisal of the general situation.

A fairly respectable number turned out for this meeting. We noticed however that the chief beneficiaries of the efforts of the Raleigh Cit-

Business Office Scene Of Early Morning Break-In

It was reported that employees of Shaw University got a real scare when they reported for work Saturday and learned there had been a robbery of the pay roll office. Things returned to normal when it was discovered that only checks were stolen.

J. T. WINSTON

Spanish-American Vet Buried

When taps were sounded for John T. Winston in the National Cemetery and soldiers stood at attention, with a bereaved family gazing solemnly into the grave, Monday afternoon, it is believed that he was the last veteran of the Spanish-American War, in Wake County.

Mr. Winston was born in Franklin County, September 23, 1877 and died July 19. He was the son of the late Anderson and Henry Horner. He served many years in the army and saw action in the Spanish-American War. It was not determined whether he went up San Juan Hill with Teddy Roosevelt or not.

The alleged robbery is said to have been discovered by C. C. Murphy, assistant to the business manager. He is alleged to have called police upon his arrival at the office and found that the door had been broken. The officers found a side window unlocked. It was theorized that the intruder entered by the door and left by the window.

Checks stolen were made out to the following and for sums shown opposite their names: Carrie Harrison, $20.29; Frank White, $476.81; William Spann, $385.88; Elizabeth Cotfield, $300.27; Clara E. Jenkins, $379.65; Horace B. Davis, $518.54; Dr. M. N. DeLaney, $506.81; Marie Straussner, $182.15; Sadue E. Eaton, $327.14.

Murphy told police that he had ordered payment stopped on the checks, drawn on the Mechanics and Farmers Bank. A call to the bank revealed that none of the checks had been presented to the bank.

Housecoat Mystery In McDowell Death

From her cell in the Wake County jail, Mrs. Rosa Lee Rollins told THE CAROLINIAN Wednesday that the public is attempting to try her for the murder of Archie McDowell before she appears before the court of law.

She emphatically denied that she sent anyone to get Archie from the DeLuxe Hotel, on the night of the murder. She denied knowing one Lawrence Kelly, who lives at 4 Franklin Terrace, and has made my statement to the officers and I refuse to say whether I was sent or paid to go after Archie.

 The house coat which Archie is said to have been wearing when he was shot looms bigger in the story. Mrs. Rollins sticks to the story that it was one owned by her late husband and that Archie

James Clarke Released By Court Order

DUNN — The question of whether James Clarke is guilty of a contempt of court violation, for which he was thrown in jail here, by Recorder's Court Judge Woodrow Hill, is being tossed back and forth in court circles, with many comments.

The most recent happening is that his lawyers, Robert C. Bryant and J. S. Bryan, succeeded in getting a favorable decision from Superior Court Judge J. C. Pitman, Monday, to free Clark on a writ of habeas corpus.

The whole matter stemmed from the fact that Clark is alleged to have marched up and down in front of the Recorder's Court building, carrying a sign which read, "Heaven is for the white man and hell
