STEALS $13,340.08

RETAINS ACCUSED MINISTER

AYDEN—The opening of the tobacco market ran a poor second to the indictment and arrest of school-principal, licensed-preacher and general dynamo H. R. Reeves for the alleged theft of $13,340.08 from the Free Will Baptist Church of America.

Reports have it that his handling of funds for the denomination extended over a period of years and that he had unlimited access to said funds. He served as the financial secretary for a number of years and was later elevated to the highest post in the church—general moderator.

He first gave himself up to Pitt County officials, due to the fact that some of the money is believed to have been diverted here. He gave bond there and the next day he went to Kinston and gave up. This is believed to have been done due to the fact that the warrant charged that he had failed to account for certain monies received from the building that once housed Kinston College, for many years run by the denomination.

Mr. Reeves has been the principal of the Grifton Elementary School for 30 years and is said to have never been short in any of his accounts. He got the backing of D. H. Conley, Pitt County School superintendent, who said that he would not fire him and that his record was one of honesty and loyalty. He is the administrator of the

Sanford

Declares Justice Is Needed

James Farmer, CORE National Director, and Negro leaders from four North Carolina cities conferred with Gov. Terry Sanford here on racial problems in this state. Of particular interest during the talks was CORE's "Freedom Highways" program, designed to open facilities to Negroes in major chain restaurants on federal highways.

More than 80 persons have been arrested on trespass charges during "Freedom Highways" operations in North Carolina. CORE members have made tests at Howard Johnson and other chain restaurants, and in some cases have established picket lines to draw attention to the fact that these restaurants do not serve Negroes.

In a statement released by Gov. Sanford, he said, "North Carolinians of good will in all races have achieved major advances in this century in the cause of human relations. I am asking leaders in both races to go to work to prevent any detraction from that goal."

Four CORE members serving 30-day jail sentences at the Durham County Workhouse were released this week. Meanwhile, three others

Muslim Meet Draws Crowd

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—In spite of the fact that Kiel Auditorium here had been previously desegregated by court order, the Black Muslims chose to seat approximately 125 white persons, many of whom were university students, in segregated sections in a mass meeting here last week.

All those attending the meeting were searched before being permitted to enter and throughout the services, the "musers" conducted a "changing of the guard" routine. Declaring that he was "teaching as God taught me" about black supremacy and the white man Elijah said that it was God's prophecy that the white man should rule for

6,000 years, and that his time would then be finished. According to Elijah, it is time now for black supremacy to replace white supremacy, although the Muhammad did not make it clear just how much supremacy was to be achieved. Gov. Takes Positive Stand

DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY — This accident blew hundreds of cars and perhaps a thousand people to the scene, at the intersection of old U. S. 70 and the Jones Sausage Road, Saturday night. Persons who saw this car could not see how anyone, riding in it, could have survived. James Wilbert McCoy and Miss Betty Lee Clemmons were sent to Wake Memorial Hospital. Jonathan Carey Coats, driver of the other car, and three other occupants were also taken to a hospital. He is alleged to have not recognized a "Stop Sign" on the Jones Sausage Road.

Garner Highway Auto Accident Draws Saturday Night Crowd

Screaming sirens and screeching ambulances made traffic on Old Highway 70 move over Saturday night as the result of an accident at the intersection of the highway and Jones Sausage Road. A record crowd gathered at the scene.

The accident was the result of a car driven by Jonathan Carey Coats, white, of Clayton, Rt. 2, coming into the highway without regard for a stop sign. The unyielding car rammed into the front end of one being driven by James Wilbert McCoy, 20, 1924 Hadley Street. Miss Betty Lee Clemmons, Rt. 2, Raleigh, was a passenger in the McCoy car. Both McCoy and Miss Clemmons are said to have miraculously escaped death, the car being in shambles after the accident. They were taken to Wake Memorial Hospital where they were reported in fair condition. Three passengers in the Coats car

HUNGER STRIKER IN 13TH DAY

BY ALEXANDER BARNES Patrick Henry might have lighted the torch for American freedom when he said, "Give me liberty or give me death," and the famous words of Dorie Miller might rebound to unborn seeming defenseless children, but the acts of Frank Nelson, 26, white integrationist of New Orleans, La., will go down as one of the greatest blows for human freedom ever displayed in America.

He is now languishing in the hospital of Central Prison, due to the fact he attempted to eat with an integrated group, at a Howard Johnson Restaurant in Statesville. He was arrested about two weeks ago and sentenced to 60 days in

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD "Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget." IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION Gov. Sanford made a move in the right direction last week when he publicly announced his intention to set up an interracial committee that would try to work out the perplexing problem of racial discrimination in North Carolina.

It is unquestionably true that the governor's decision to appoint this committee was based on his desire to halt the anti-discrimination demonstrations which have recently been taking place in several North Carolina communities.

The governor had to be aware of the fact that in the wake of indiscriminate arrests and jailing of so called trespassers, thousands of the state's Negro and white citizens could very well turn this state into another Albany, Ga. as a CORE official had warned.

It is well and timely for this committee, members of which have not yet been announced, to propose ways and means looking to the end of racial discrimination in public eating places, but unless it makes a study of and proposes ways for the elimination of racial discrimination in all affected areas, particularly in employment, it will have failed to do the job needing to be done.

FEPC REPORTS RECENT CASE RESULTS

Rescheduling of an employees' picnic because of discrimination at a resort swimming pool, resolution of an incident involving anti-Semitic remarks directed at a Jewish worker, and the employment of their first Negro driver-salesmen by several food companies in a large city, were among the results of recent cases revealed by the California Fair Employment Practice Commission.

FEPC Chairman John Anson Ford also reported the reinstatement of the only Negro woman employed in an electronics assembly plant, who was suddenly dismissed on charges of bookmaking after working in the plant for four years. There was no proof of the alleged offense.

Nearly 1,800 complaints of requests for investigation of charges of employment discrimination have been filed with the FEPC since September 1959. Of the cases concluded, more than 35 per cent have resulted in corrective action based on evidence that discrimination did occur.

DISCRIMINATION AT PICNIC PLACE

Here are details of the recent cases mentioned by Chairman Ford: "A Negro employee of a large retail chain complained to FEPC that the employees association had contracted with an amusement resort to hold a picnic there, but that he
