Cathedral Scene Of Wedding

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE HANCOCK

Sets Precedent; Draws Big Crowd

the Roman Catholic Sacred thedral here in Raleigh, Miss telle Marguerett Smith was used in holy wedlock, Saturday on, August 31, to Mr. Lawrence mock of Roanoke, Va.

The wedding ceremony, conductive the Rayrand F. Roman St. R the Reverend F. Ranas R. m., the efficiating priest, was out in conformity with the sed to two years on two counts, prosecuting witness has re-ed to New York, but the Mayor of the town has vowed a sweeping investigation on the incidents that occured here Saturday night.

MAYUR

Mayor Jimmy Pearce told the CAROLINIAN Wednesday morn-that there was no need of all the panie and the unfavorable publicity over what he term a routine daynight affray. Mayor said there was no reason for all

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

The broom is the son of Mr and Mrs. Alexander Hancock of Roanoke, Va. He is a Civil Engineering graduate of Howard University and is presently employed by the federal government in Sacraments, California, where the country make will make their home. ple will make their home.

long fitted sleeves pointed over the hand with re-embroided A-leneon lace The protrait neckline full skirt which fell into a Cathedral train. The lace on the bodice as on the skirt was elaborately of honor and Mr. Alexander Hancock, father of the groom was the

Mabel Patterson, and the Misses Delores Ann Ssmith. Joyce Cooper of his wife. and Shirley Rodgers. Little Miss Judy Kay was flower girl, the ring bearer was Micheal Williams Ushers were Carl Jones, Leslie

Albert Laws, Fonville, James Hancock of Washington, D. C. and Robert Howard of Raleigh. Out of Elveta Martin and Geoy Croom from New York City, all cousins (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dunn is slated for a hearing in City Court this week. He is now being held without the privilege of bond.

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER & 1962

PRICE 15e

Wife Victim

Heart Jab Fatal KKK RIDES AGAIN

HUSBAND

Wake County jail for the fatal stabbing of his wife, Mrs. Luvenia Dunn, 28, in a State Street candy store, Saturday morning, showed no remorse when he talked with a CAROLINIAN representative.

He said that he stabbed her when she told her nephew. Douglas Martin, "There he is, if you they were out to get him and he was going to protect himself. Douglas Martin is the 14-year-

Dunn further states that he wanted to talk with his wife about getting their four children ready for school. He alleges that she Miss Smith was given in marriage by her mother. Rest lone. He increase alleges that the should leave her alleges that the should leave her alleges that the had not been altogether true to him and that she spent considerable with a princess bodice and made with a princess bodice and lone. Evidence by eye witnesses does long fitted sleeves pointed over not bear Dunn out. They are alleged to have told the police that Dunn followed his wife into the store and accused her of "running" around with another man.

Mrs. Rebecca Warren, the canning. It all happenday, suffering from the store are accused to the canning around with another man.

Mrs. Rebecca Warren, the canning. It all happenday, suffering from the sight of ever seeing the light of alight stroks.

The militant lawyer was brought here from his home in Parietic II. The strong around the store around the strong around the s besided with sied pearls. She wore a finger tip veil of illusion attacked to a pill box hat of Alemon lace argue with her and that she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him she did not want and the she also told him mbroided in pearls.

Mrs. Rosetta Iseley was Matron of honor and Mr. Alexander Handal that she nor Mrs. Dunn thought that he was mad enough to kill. He is reported to have snatched Attending the bride were Miss his knife out of his pocket and to

They are reported to have been have four children. The children are reported as being taken care Dunnaville Jr. of Philadelphia, Pa. of by a sister, at the present time. Mrs. Dunn was funeralized from a local church Wednesday and buried in the church cemeciating.

Father, Unborn

past weekend ruined the future of Highway 70, west body.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

Wilmington girl. Miss Shirley He-wet, was set free by Onslow County Coroner, Talbert Jones, here recently, when he found no pro-

WEATHER

Att'y In Child Die Durham Crash Hospital

ed Friday night when Ganfield Scott lost control of a 1950 Chevrolet and the car overturned on the Leesed On the Leesevery signs that his speech had been impaired and that there were signs that his right side was affected. It was later reported that his speech had cleared up and there were signs of improvement to the affected parts of his hody.

of Raleigh. Alfred Lee Sanders, 22, was one Dr. Dunn said that information concerning patients could not (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3) view of the fact that it was alleged to have been born somewhere be-twen New York and Jacksonville.

twen New York and Jacksonville. The woman agreed to a lie detector test and convinced the coroner she was telling the truth.

When shown a picture of the dead baby she readily agreed that it was here and that she wanted a picture of it. The assessment shifted picture of it. The coroner obliged Miss Hewett was on her way to Wilmington to attend the trial of

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

LOOKING AHEAD Now that the schools have re-opened after the long summer va-cation, every student from the be-ahead to what the challenge and the promise of the new school year.

and teachers should be prepared to accept this challenge and to make effective the promises. This can on-ly bedone through the recognition and the acceptance of the fact that schools are maintained soley for the purpose of enlightening and educating students, never for the personal benefit of the administra-tors and teachers.

It is our solid conviction, a conviction based upon observation, contact and experience, that far too many students are not given the opportunity of utilizing their potentials because of the internal politics, bickering, petty selfishness and inadequacy within the schools and of the teaching and administra-

Many Negroes resent the fact,

but nevertheless, it is still true,

ool administrators, supervisors

Lie Detector Test Frees

Woman Of Baby's Death

Fan Teachers Instructing White Pupils

Originally 61 white young-sters were assigned there, but the others obtained transfers or did not attend Friday. The white minority desegre-

CROSSES

TALLULAH - Certainly Tallulah Bankhead would not be pleased to know that the town that bears her name has suddenly besome alighted with crosses in defiance of the integration of schools in the state.

That is what has happened here reliably reported that the Ku Klux Klan burned crosses in 14 northern towns in the state and in the capital during the weekend, in an ef-fort to thwart integration.

fort to thwart integration.

Reports coming from the state revealed that not only were the children undaunted, but that state officials and law enforcement officers went about seeing that the schools were integrated orderly.

In Baton Rouge, five first trucks were called out to douse a four-foot cross that blazed in front of the 33-story state Capital building. The only racial desegregation in Louisiana at the elementary school level is in the New Orleans area. Roman Catholic schools in the city are scheduled to desegregate Tuesday and desegregation gation occurred as 377 Negroes went to classes with white youngsters in Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. The consolidated city-county schools have 66,500 pupils.

CHARLOTTE — Ten white youngsters attended classes with 335 Negro pupils at Bethume School in Charlotte without incident.

after holding a prayer service in front of city hall. The group came here to help the integrationist Albany Movement in its protest of city segregation practices. (UPI PHOTO).

ander McAllister Rivera, Sr., 78, ilar service from the Westch who started practicing dentistry in Durham, N. C. in 1909. died in 1959.

Survivors include his wife.

he was the son of the late Thomas Y.; two daughters, Mrs. Doris R. and Eliza (Williams) Rivers. The Burgess and Mrs. Reven R. Elliott, elder Rivera was among the pio-Dr. Rivers practiced in Durham after finishing the Howard Iniversity Dental School. Later he moved to Greensboro, N. C., where he practiced until 1931 when he moved to Yonkers, New York. egroes who activated a progressive civil rights movement in North Carolina after the first World War. Along with the late Dr. James E Shepard, founder and first president of North Carolina College, Dr. Rivera served on some of the early interracial commit-tees designed to improve human relations in North Carolina.

A member of the board of trustees of Palmer Memorial Institute an ardent supporter of the NAA-CP. He was a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and a Ma-ball coach at Willston Senior Righ son. He was also one of the foun-ders of the Old North State Medical Society.

In Yonkers, Dr. Rivera served have taken place about ten miles from the city when Robinson was Army Advisory Board and the Yonkers Dental Society, which him for 50 years of servers. honored him for 50 years of service to the dental profession in 19-

WILMINGTON - A shocking xample of immorality on the part of a teacher in the New Hanover County public schools took place recently when Frank Robinson teacher and basketball and foot-School, was accused by a female student of assaulting her.

The alleged assault is said to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

La. Governor Asked By SCEF To Stem Violence

set to stem the tide of violence in raised the question: north Louisiana directed against civil rights leaders.

Taised the question:

"Can citizens in Louisiana ascivil rights leaders."

Commission.

The latest

ivil rights leaders.

In a letter to the Governor, Dr. placing their lives and property in nor Jimmie H. Davis of Louisiana director of the SCEF, said six protests also have been sent by such violent attacks in northern SCEF to the Department of Justice and the U. S. Civil Rights The latest act of violence was

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 1)

INTEGRATION IN LA. - Two of the Negro children that integrated Our Lady of Good Harbor Catholic School August 29th, in Buras,, La., march in the traditional Rosary Pre through the Church Cemetery en route to their first day of classes in the formally a school. (UPI PHOTO).

Senegal Official Says Why Communism Not Adopted

of claims by hite Soviet progaganda media the tCommunism is a godsend to Africa, a wide radio audience in the Soviet Union heard a difering view, offered by an African statesman from Senega.

President Leopold Sedar Senghor's trenchant criticism of Marwism-Leninism as the gospel for the newly independent African nations was beamed to the USSR by Radio Liberty, the free world's most powerful shortwave network

Man Kills Wife, Guns Himself

GARLAND-Death began its deon got started. The mishap was not an automobile accident, but the apparent murder and suicide of a wife and husband.

Daniel Ray Carter, a collector for a local clothing store went to the home of Ed Highsmith 39 about 3:50 p.m. and discovered the body of his wife Margaret on the front porch and when he realized there had been foul play he made a hasty reveat back to town in arch of an officer. When the officers arrived they also found the woman. They began to search the house, which was said to be an old delapidated

In his statement, written for the Society of Friends of Teilhard de

Briefs

DURHAM — Rufus Jenkins, 64, found out Sunday night that he cannot go around chasing women who say they are afraid of him. He is in Veterans Hospital where he was carried after having been shot by Mrs. Hurline McIver, 36. The woman readily admitted vastation in this rural community the shooting and said that Jenkhim with a .22 caliber pistol to protect herself. She was held on a $500 bond on a charge of A&P Pack State Saturday afternoon about 24 hours ins chased her and that she shot after the long Labor Day holiday him with a .22 caliber pistol to sault and battery with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill.

Jenkins was reported in serious condition Monday night and was laid to be suffering from pistol wounds in his groin and in his houlder.

LOSES LIFE IN DEBRIS
SOUTHERN PINES — Funsault and battery with a danger-ous weapon with intent to kill. said to be suffering from pistol wounds in his groin and in his SOUTHERN PINES — Fun-eral rites for 84-year-old Dea-con Jordan Livingston are stated to be held at the Missionary Baptist Church Wed-needay at 3 p. m.

between the two world wars, African intellectuals from the then French colonies were repelled by the cold materialism, extrema ra-tionalism, athism and blind deter-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

PAGE 5

The five day weather forecast beginning Thursday, September & and continuing through Monday, September 16, is as follows:

Temperatures near or slightly below normal. Cooler Thursday and Friday, warmer Saturday and cooler again on Sunday and Monday. Rainfall will average around three quarters of an inch, occuring as scattered showers and thunder showers along the coast Thursday and over this area mainly Saturday and Sunday. minism of Marxist theory.

When the African students were

CAROLINIAN -

Dunns Esso Service PAGE 13 PAGE 13
The Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Co.
Wholesale Electric Supply, Inc.
Raleigh Furniture Co.
Seven-Up Bottling Co
Sears, Roebuck & Co.
American Credit Co.
Pine State Milk Ice Cream
Raleigh Paint & Walipaper Co.
G. S. Tucker Bros., Inc. PAGE 6
Colonial Store
Quinn Furniture Co. PAGE 14 Sure-Fit Seat Cover Center Lesane Distributing Co. Stephens Appliance Co.

Bunt General Tire Co.
PAGE 11
Thomas Red & White Pood Stor
Auto Discount Co.
S. M. Young Hardware Co.
Raleigh Seafood Co.
PAGE 12
Rhodes Purniture Co
Piggty - Wiggty
Acme Realty Co.
Raleigh Funeral Bome PAGE 17
American Credit Co.
Lincoln Theatre
PAGE 18
Hill's. Inc.
Pisher Wholesale Co.

PAGE 15
Carolina Power & Light Co.
Brogden Produce Co., Inc.
Branch Banking & Trust Co.
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
Lightner's Funeral Home
Mitchell's Restaurant & Dining
PAGE 18 Umstead's Grocery & Transfer Co. Harris Wholesale, Inc. Tire Sales & Service Co. Southern Purmiture Wholesale Co.

(CONTINUER ON PAGE 3)

that by and large, Negro students in this region are below the acaparts. The reason for this sad con-