MEREDITH COLLEGE

GETS TWO MILLION GOING DOWN — Miners make money by going down in the earth for certain minerals and materials, but very few people ever make 2 million dollars for going down once. That is what Floyd Patterson is reputed to make when he gets his divvy from all the sources connected with the fight. Sonny Liston, even though he won, gets only $400,000, but that ain't hay. (UPI PHOTO).

STILL OFF LIMITS—This picture of one of the buildings on the campus of the University of Mississippi, (Ole Miss) which Governor Ross Barnett says is off limits to James H. Meredith. The unreconstructed rebel governor has defied the United States government in his refusal to permit the Negro to the school. He called for the spending of time, money and even lives to preserve what he terms the sanctity of the institution. America and the world awaits the next move by the Justice Department.

Husband Accuses Wife For Arrest In Sex Crime Here

When Algie Johnson is tried for the rape of a 15-year-old girl the court will have to decide whether he is the victim of a mad wife, or is actually a sex maniac. This was the charge Wednesday morning when the CAROLINIAN attempted to interview his wife who is said to have sworn out the warrant for his arrest. When asked if she would discuss whether she double crossed her husband, she replied, "I am not admitting nor denying anything in this case." She continued, "I don't care what other people say, I am not saying anything."

The following transpired in a CAROLINIAN interview with Johnson in the Wake County jail: "My wife made the child say I raped her, just to make trouble for me," said Algie Johnson of E-13 Washington Terrace, who is awaiting trial on charges of raping his 15-year-old niece. Johnson, 56, denied having touched her. He said the girl told police he had forced her into his room and made her yield to him by threatening to beat her with a broom. He added that his wife, Mary Elizabeth, "made up" the incident. "Every since, back in 1958, I refused to lie for her in an accident case, she's been after me. I treat that girl just like she was my own child."

"I was reading the paper when the child left for school Friday morning. When my wife came home from work, she accused me of bothering the child because she went to school without eating all of her breakfast. "The police asked my wife if she had taken the girl to a doctor and she hadn't. They don't know whether she's been raped or not. Although no evidence of rape had been established, police said the girl admitted having had sexual relations "several times."

Johnson said his niece and a 19-year-old nephew had been living with him since their mother died in 1949. He said the girl had "got into trouble" three years ago and since then, his wife "never left her alone in the house with me."

Negroes March On Statesville

STATESVILLE — Sat., Sept. 22, marked another attempt to hold a statewide strategy meeting on the problem of discrimination in chain restaurants. It was held at the First Baptist Church, here. This site was selected because of the flagrant violation of civil rights against those who demonstrated at the local Howard Johnson Restaurant.

The meeting did not draw a large crowd but those who did attend showed a keen interest in the procedures. After the opening devotion and the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic, the meeting was called to order by John W. Fleming, who stated the purpose of the meeting and some of the goals to be accomplished.

The Rev. Wilson W. Lee, pastor of St. John Baptist Church, told the "Statesville Story," in which he described an ever-growing opposition to the struggle for freedom. It was disheartening to learn that city, court and police officials have been in the vanguard, leading the fight for denial of constitutional privileges, to a portion of the citizenry. He told of the "spraying incident," in which a city-owned jeep sprayed insecticide on demonstrators, gathered in front of the jail. He told of insults in court, of a girl being dragged to the police car, and of a youth who objected to officers' manhandling this girl, being struck in the eye.

Another minister, Rev. J. C. Harris, spoke on the "Implications of the Statesville Story." He said the story meant that the people must be willing to suffer and sacrifice, and above all, there must be a spirit of unity among those people who are being persecuted and prosecuted.

Method Postmistress Is Resentful Of Treatment

The arrest and detention of Mrs. Harveligh White, Method postmistress and civic leader for a minor traffic incident has begun to haunt high police officials, city Recorder Judge and even Mayor Enloe.

It all began on the morning of September 13, when Mrs. White was returning to her home, in Method. She says that it was a foggy morning and that she was trying to be unusually careful as she approached the school zone of Serry O'Kelly School. She relates that she knew it was a 25 mile zone and that she drove at that speed upon entering the zone.

She states that she went about one half block in the zone and was stopped by City Police Officer, H. P. Lee, and was told that she was traveling at the rate of 35 miles per hour. She refused to believe this and told the officer she did not. He asked for her license and she told him she left it at home but if he would go with her the rest of the distance of the school campus she would get it.

Officer Lee told her that she could show the license when she went to answer the citation that

Record Gate For Championship Fight

CHICAGO (Comiskey Park), Ill. — The shades of Tommy Burns, Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano hovered in this ball yard Tuesday night as Floyd Patterson pulled himself up off of the floor, after he had lost the world heavyweight crown that he had twice won and from the expression on his face will never wear again.

The fight, though it lasted less than the required three minutes for the first round proved conclusively that Floyd Patterson no longer had it and tended to bear out Sonny Liston's story that he had been by-passed.

The real story is that no champion has ever collected as much money for winning to say nothing of losing a prize fight. It is estimated that when Patterson got through collecting from all the interests connected with the fight that he will have a cool two million. Sonny Liston will not be collecting peanuts when he picks up $400,000. The promoters built the fight into a frenzy and the radio and television people were vying for rights.

Under the terms of a contract between the two fighters, Patterson can dictate the date, place and promoter of the return match which is to be held before Sept. 30, 1963. Liston gets 30 per cent for the rematch according to that agreement. It was man against boy with the 214-pound Liston with his awesome 84-inch reach and his 14-inch fists, quickly cracking the shell of the overmatched 188-pound Patterson. Liston who said he would end the fight quickly if it was a cold night — and it was a chilly evening at the Chicago White Sox ball park — now has won 27 straight in 7 1-2 years. His only loss in a 34-1 career was to Marty Marshall in eight rounds in Detroit, Sept. 7, 1954, his eighth pro fight. He never has been floored in 35 starts and has knocked out 24 opponents.

This, of course, was Patterson's second knockout defeat. It was a

Cabarrus Street Poses Big Problem For City Council

The Raleigh City Council has its problems, but it appears that one of its most perplexing problems is how to police East Cabarrus St. They cannot decide who is going to pay the police for extra duty, protecting the property in that area and how many officers will be needed to watch law violators. All this came to light in a meeting this week. One councilman said the city should stop using all the taxpayers money to pay officers, doing special duty in the 400 block of E. Cabarrus Street.

City Manager W. H. Carper seems to breed no goodwill for the area and told the Law and Finance Committee that the section had been the source of a number of complaints. He noted, however, there had been none in the immediate present, he said, "the problem is still with us, apparently."

Freshman Councilman McLaurin who was not entirely forgotten by some of the property owners, when

G. A. Frinks Seeks Relief

Gordon A. Frinks, who raised the ire of Judge Chester A. Morris, when he refused to answer to his name in Chowan County Superior Court, asked the North Carolina Supreme Court to decide whether he was in contempt when he failed to answer. Frinks was in court when his name was called, but contends that his case was not set for trial on that date.

Meredith Opens Up

Meredith College, a senior high level educational institution, operated by the Baptist denomination for women, lowered its racial bars here Tuesday and said it would admit qualified women students, "without regard to race or national origin."

The action was taken by the Board of Trustees in a regular meeting Tuesday and became the second Baptist institution to drop racial barriers this year. Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, opened its doors to Negroes for the first time at the beginning of the present school term.

The Board elected former congressman, Charles B. Dean, Rockingham, as its chairman. Mr. Dean lost his seat in the United States Congress to the incumbent, Paul Kitchem, for his alleged failure to sign the southern manifesto. He is one of the leading laymen of the Baptist Church and has stuck steadfastly to his beliefs and ideals.

The college has the largest enrollment in its history — 880. The resolution that gave the administration the go-signal read, "It is now the policy of Meredith College to accept qualified women students, upon the recommendation by the office of admissions, without regard to race or national origin."
