Bond Sales Drop 8.6% Below '61

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Cash sales of E and H Savings Bonds in November totaled $227 million, 8.6 per cent below November 1961, the Treasury announced today. Accrued interest on outstanding E Bonds were $282 million, compared with $292 million last November. Series H sales were $45 million as against last November's $35 million. Accrued interest on outstanding E bonds of $107 million during November total E and H investments to $434 million. The total amount of E and H Bonds outstanding at the end of November was $45,263 million, a gain of $887 million since January 1.

Sit-In Wins Apartment For African Students

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — A sit-in which resulted in the arrest of 7 members of Syracuse CORE, won for two African students, the 3-room apartment which they originally had been refused because of their color.

Lloyd Clifford, the owner, has agreed to rent the apartment to the two African students and not to press trespass charges against the 7 arrested sit-inners. Among the seven were Evert Makinen, chairman of Syracuse CORE and Rudolph Lombard, vice-chairman of national CORE, who is studying at Syracuse University. While the sit-in took place, 40 CORE pickets marched outside.

The two Africans, Skeva Soho from Northern Rhodesia and Antonio Bousicha from Mozambique, are graduate students at the Maxwell School of Public Administration.

SNCC Begins Freedom Drive For Kennard

ATLANTA, Ga. — The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Commit-tee (SNCC) announced today the beginning of a campaign to free Clyde Kennard, a 30-year-old Negro who was the first of his race to ap-ply to an all-white school in Mis-sissippi.

Kennard, a native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, first applied to Missis-sippi Southern College in 1958. Af-ter two attempts, he was convicted of being an accessory in a $25 chick-en food theft and sentenced to sev-en years in jail.

After his second visit to the white school in 1959, Kennard was ar-rested for reckless driving. At the police station, he was confronted with five plants of whiskey which police claimed to have discovered in his car. He was found guilty of possessing illegal whiskey (Missis-sippi is a dry state) and fined $500 and costs.

On September 25, 1960, five sacks of chicken feed valued at $5 each were stolen from the Forrest Coun-ty Cooperative Warehouse. An illi-terate 19-year-old Negro, Johnny Lee Roberts, confessed the theft, but claimed that Kennard had en-gineered the robbery. Roberts was placed on five years of probation and fined $500. Kennard, however, was convicted of being an accessory to the crime and was sentenced to sev-en years in jail. He has been be-hind bars since.

Kennard, who spent several months last year in the University Hospital in Jackson where he re-ceived 14 blood transfusions, has asked his mother not to visit him. Instead, he has asked her to think of him as still being in the Army.
