"He which seweth beautifully shall also reap beautifully." A THOUGHT FOR THE NEW YEAR

We have a friend whom we have admired for many years. Through hard work and an undiverting devotion to duty, this man has made an outstanding success of his chosen career. God has not seen fit to reward this man and his faithful wife with an off spring, but together, they have carved out a niche which has brought to them the whole hearted respect and esteem of their community and area.

Roy Wilkins Enlightens Russian People On Negroes Hundred Years Of Progress

NEW YORK — "All aspects of American life" harboring vestiges of racial discrimination will be the target of "a program to be carried forward vigorously in 1963" by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the organization's executive secretary, Roy Wilkins, said in a statement taped for broadcast by Radio Liberty to the Soviet Union on the hundredth anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1.

The nationally known NAACP official gave a detailed review of the Negro minority's progress since 1863 to Radio Liberty's Soviet audience of millions.

He pointed out that Negroes in the United States today enjoy a

Moseley Challenges Warren C'ty Group

WARRENTON — Rev. Alexander D. Moseley, pastor, Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, Durham, was the speaker for the Emancipation services at the Warren County courthouse, Tuesday.

The Rev. Moseley was expected to tell his audience of the things that the Negro has done in the 100 years of supposed manual freedom. His story of how the Negro has been transformed from a chattel to an engineer, from a cotton picker to an educator, from a wood chopper to a scientist should serve as a lever to make his hearers conscious of the fact that the fight for real freedom lies ahead.
