My Lady's Doings In And Out Of Town

Geraldine G. Brown's

Personally Speaking

To be invited out for breakfast on Christmas morning is a rare treat. But such was the case for Mrs. Bernell Hall Becknell of...

December 23rd was the birthday of Ed Hall of the Sensational Evening Five (a local singing group) and his mother entertained him and a few of his friends with a party...

The long holiday season brought many homes from far and near. Arriving on December 24th were Mrs. Bernell H. Becknell and her three children...

At the residence of Wade and Marcelline Smith of A-21 Washington Terrace, births and birthdays are the thing. Kerry Dean celebrated his very first birthday on January 4 and Clifton Leroy made his debut to the household a couple of weeks ago...

It has been called to my attention that Mrs. Bessie McIntyre of 424 Alston Street is quite ill as the result of a recent stroke. We wish for her improved health during the coming weeks.

Miss Georgia O. Gorman was here visiting her mother, Mrs. Augusta Gorman of J-20 Washington Terrace. We are sure she visited other relatives and friends. The presence of those mentioned and others omitted, helped to brighten the holiday for many parents relatives and friends...

Come to Church

Our Father, we thank Thee for this life and all Thy blessings which we receive from Thee from day to day. Grant that we receive these gifts with thankful hearts and use them in the service of others. Help us to enter the new year in the way of Christ that leads to quality living. Enlighten us to be deeper Christians, we ask in the name of Thy dear Son.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Now that we have not yet attained all we long to attain is not important. What is important to us is TODAY, our faith in God TODAY, and what we accomplish in this faith TODAY. Let us all enter into our New Year with eagerness and with happy hearts. Radiant, vivantly alive, filled with His creative inspiration and love, we can easily cope with any problem or situation that arises in our lives. The Spirit of God in and around us is unfailing. We find that when we lean on His everlasting arms, a great feeling of peace sweeps over us, and we are able to relax and rest in the sure knowledge that He loves us, that His presence is ever with us, and that all is well with our world.
