Gilchrist Crashes AFL Rushing Record, Gets Player Of Year Award

king the AFL rushing re-Gilchrist, a bruising runner

YEW YORK (ANP) - Cookie | stardom, Gilchrist, elated over the stardom, Gilchrist, elated over the Player of the Year honor, said: "I have no college education so the first man in the two-loop to amass over 1,000 yards

August after he was waived out o the Canadian League for a rep ed $20,000 salary. He has repaid club three times that amount his outstanding play during the Jand Browns' Jim Brown, chalked up 1,006 yards on 214 carries to nose out Dellas' Abner Haynes, and Houston's Charley Tolar.

In the balloting for Player of the Year by a committee of writers of the Associated Press, Gilchrist, 27, garnened 13 of 24 votes cast. Len Dawson, Dallas' quarterback, was second with 8 votes.
Band Browns' Jim Brown, chalked is outstanding play during the 19-62 season.
Band Browns' Jim Brown, chalked is outstanding play during the 19-62 season.
Band Browns' Jim Brown, chalked is outstanding play during the 19-62 season.
Band Browns' Abner Haynes, and He came to the Bills with the reputation of being hard to handle, which was probably the reason he was waived out of the Canadian League. He had gone to the Canadian League fresh out of high school. He said he had approached the Browns for a job and was told to go to Canada for seasoning.

Patterson Says Contract Binding For Return Bout

YONKERS, N. Y. (ANP)- Dethrongd .. heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, who has been in seclusion since losing the title to Sonny Liston in Chicago last Sept. 25, returned here last week to spend the Christmas and New Year's Day holidays with his family expressing confidence he'll get a return title bout with Liston in March or April.

TSU Scores

Scoffing at reports that Lis-Scoffing at reports that Lis-ton may pass him up to fight either Harold Johnson er Inge-mar Johansson, Patterson said: "In spite of all the stories a-bout my return fight with Som-ny, the fact remains that Som-ny and I have a solid contract for a return match. "Sonny wants the return fight-vants to keen his word. And I wan wants to keep his word. And I want because that's the only way I can win back my championship." Until recently, Patterson, who has been training secretly, was virtual-ly silent about the return bout.

4 Win On TSU Outhustles Saint Mary's In Western Tour Basketball Duel

HONDLULU (ANP)-The visiting Tunnessee State University, led by Big Bobby Edmonds, scored its aight victory in a sevensame tour of Hawaii by outclass-ing Mein Of Hawaii by outclass-ing Mein Diversity of Japan, 95-64. in a basketball game here last

Edmonds netted 18 points while playing only 14 minutes, as Coach Harold Hunter started with his first team and then used second-tringers against the short Tokyo team. So outclassed were the Japanes that Tennessee State sped to a 22-6 lead in the opening minutes of the contest. The second-stringers were then brought in and State coasted to a 45-34 half-time lead.

The Meiji team rallied in the secand half to within seven points of tying the score, but the Tigers counter with 15 quick points to clinch the victory. Gerald Durley and Lee McKnight were runners-up in the scoring for Tennesee State, tallying 14 and 12 points, respectively.

Keishiro Nozoe and Yoshitake Egawa tied for Meiji scoring honors with 13 points each.

HOUSTON (ANP)-Led by Mau-rice Battiste and Charles Matthews, the Tigers of Texas Southern Uni-versity outplayed and outhus." d St. Mary's University here last week to score their fifth basketball victory in the newly born seaso 1, 83-55. TSU boasted a 5-2, won-lost record after the victory. Battiste was the game's top scor er, with 20 points and 17 rebounds. Matthews scored 19 points. Hank Cox of St. Mary's scored 15.

The Tigers sped to a 48-24 half-time lead and then kept the lead throughout the remainder of the contest.

KEEPING THE BUSINESS IN THE FAMILY

RALEIGH, N. C. - Hoke Smith. 66, announcing his retirement re-cently said 25 years as a state rev-enue agent had given him a cer-tain understanding of moonshin-

They are a "special breed of people who wouldn't commit any other type of crime," he said. Whiskey making is a family

TWO POINTS - Paul Hogue (14), of the New York Knickerbockers, dump the ball in for a two-pointer December 25th, as Len Chappell (left), and Joe Roberts (12), of the Syracuse Nats watch. Syracuse won 123-111, in the second game of a holiday double header before 17,169 fame in New York's Madison Square Garden. (UPI PHOTO).

Walt Bellamy, Prized Hoop Star, Leads Chicago Zephyrs Into 2nd Yr. Campaign

CHICAGO (ANP) - The Chicago | play

Zephyrs, a team composed largely of a few seasoned veterans, a few starry-eyed rockies, a newcomer coach to the National Basketball Assn., and one of the greatest stars in pro basketball, has been waging a frustrating campaign in the NBA Are the Zephyrs bosses truely grateful for all this? It hardly seems so. First of all, Bellamy, despite his super-human efforts in 1961-62, had to bargain hard and for the past two years.

1961-62, had to bargain hard and long for an estimated $25,000 con-tract for 1962-63, meager in com-parison to his contributions to the team, playwise and moneywise. But the Zephyrs duibbling over the salary terms was but an indi-cation of a further stroke of ingra-titude Becenting for Manager On the team's roster are such capable veteran performers as Texas Southern's Woody Saulds-berry and former Duqueme star Sihugo Green; and a quintet of somption rookie stars in Terry promising rockie stars in Terry Dischinger of Purdue, Charles Hardnet of Grambling college; Bill McGill of Utah, Don Nelson of Io-wa and Mel Nowell of Ohio State. titude. Recently, Gen. Manager, ("Frantic") Frank Lane and McMahon, both of whom were far from the scene when Bellamy was help-ing the team to survive its first year in the NBA, took it upon themselves to level unfair criti-cisms at Walt for what they indi-cated was his failure to match his 1961-62 scoring output. Both said they were nurzled because Walt The caoch is Jack McMahon, who coached last year in the American Basketball League. But the big star and prize of the team is Walter Bellamy, former Indiana university All - American, who has been "carrying" the team cate he was attributing Why should Lane feel that he should advise his coach on Bellamy?

Is Lane attempting to dictate t McMahon? What's behind it all? Apart from the unfair criticism, Lane and McMahon, in admitting that they couldn't understand 'Jel-lamy's scoring difficulties, were also displaying ignorance of NBA basketball strategems. Every dis-cerning fan know that Walt is be-ing double team unmercifully this season and that that is the reason he is not attempting more shots. Another strategy used by opposing coaches is to clog up the time-limit-ed free-throw Isne to force Big Walt outside where he usually picks up two and occasionally three defenders. The result is that he is forced to feed off more often them normally. McMahon? What's behind it all?

ents, the Savannah High School of the Grifton community near Kins-tan, by a score of 62-37. During halft-ime Mrs. M. B. Hen-derson, (at left) was crowned queen of the Alumhi by her daughter. Mrs. Henderson was a member of the class of 1940 and is the mother of the class of 1940 and is the mother of the class of 1940 and is the mother of the class of 1940 and is the mother the ganging up on Walt. This has been done before, particularly in the cases of Chamberlain and Bay-

The Zephyrs bosses, however seem to be preoccupied with trying to make Dischinger the new darf-ing of the team. Although Terry, with the assistance of Bellamy has been playing oustandingly of late, is recalled here that he failed note-ably in a few of his home games df ten children. Glöria E. Leggett, a tenior, was crownéd "Miss Homecoming 1963" (right). Membérs of the team standing with Coach R. T. Harrell (back row) are E. Whithurst, E. Lyons, C. Suggi, H. Hammond. (Middle row) Mrs. Henderson Alumni Chiden J. Vines, C. Castell, G. 1961-62 scoring output. Both said they were puzzled because Walt had dropped slightly off his per-rame scoring pace of 30 points to normally.

instead of popping off in public, work patiently and confidently with the hard-pressed player to devise a counter strategy to halt

RUBINSON UNION HIGH SCHOOL, Winterville, J. W. Maye, principal, Varsity beshetbe team and Homecoming Queens. (See story below). Winterville Basketeers And Queens

dept. Maye backs Coach Harvell in teaching the boys good sportsman-ship whether they win or lose a contest. This evidenced by the fact that there was hardly a "boo" giv-en the winning visitors at any time. The Robinson Tigers played well and were good losers. Attendants or runners-up to the Homecoming Queen were Missee

Boxing Champion Sonny Liston Asks Court To Free Fight Purse

NEW YORK (ANP)- Heavy-(in 2:06 of the first round, a weight champion Sonny Liston, Floyd were named as de through his attorneys, last week took advantage of a stipulation made in the Internal Revenue Bu-reau recent suit freezing $1,379.-dive property" but said in the White, J. Waller and Miss Leggett Homecoming Queen; (Front row)
D. Whitehurst, J. McLawhern, M. Taylor and O. Edwards.
Junior Varsity players (not shown) are J. Vines, J. King, W.
Carmon, L. Harper, R. Ellis, M. Is-ler, J. Clarj, R. Bryant, B. Dancy, M. Mobley, J. Hart, B. Gorham, B. John D. Hill, Alumni president, crewned Mrs. Henderson. Referees for the twe games were F. R. Sand-ers of Greenville; and Athoniel
P. White, J. Waller and Miss Leggett Homecoming Queen; (From the purse of the Sept. 25 Liston-Floyd Patterson Heavy-weight championship fight to de-mand his share of the purse. Liston asked the court for an order directing the government to "unlawful" under the Pederal P order directing the government to for the twe games were F. R. Sand-ers of Greenville; and Athoniel

WINTERVILLE — Photograph above shows the W. H. Robinson High Scheel Bäsketball (Varsity) team and their Hemecoming "Queens" during their "Homecom-ing" which was won by their open-ents, the Savannah Righ School of the Galitien community acts the

DURHAM — Balance is the key to the current success of North Caro-lina College's baskethall team. The Eagles have a 4-4 overall mark and 3-3 record in Central Intercollegi-ate Athletic Association play. The NCC cagers lack height and a sure-fire prolific scorer and the players have sensed this fact and operate accordingly. That is team-work. Three of the five starters are scoring in double figures, with Joe Parker, 4-3 forward, Aulander, leading the pack with a 13.7 aver-age. He's followed by Albert Con-mer, 6-1 guard, Winston-Salem and Ted Manning, 6-5 center, Baltimore Md., with 12.7 and 11.5 marks re-

RALEIGH, N. C., SATU

To Work For Championship

scoring in double figures, with Joe Parker, 6-3 forward, Aulander, leading the pack with a 13.7 aver-age. He's followed by Albert Con-ner, 6-1 guard, Winston-Salem and Ted Manning, 6-5 center, Baltimore Md., with 12.7 and 11.5 marks refrom the day Tennessee State was scheduled for generation to generation." BA contest. tougher competition against a U.S. PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS Service League team, Sublac.

UP AND UNDER — Suspended in mid-air, Memphis State guard George Kirk, clutches the ball lightly in his hand during the third game of the 27th annual All-College Basketball Tournament in Oklahoma City, Okla. Dec. 27th. Center-forward Ray Wolford (11), of the University of Toledo, is on the floor. Memphis State won 76-61. (UPI PHOTO).

about 24 in the first month of play.

A star of the U. S. 1960 Olympic Since both are newcomers to the NBA, their alarm in this respect is to some extent understandable. team, Bellamy came to the then Chicago Packers with outstanding lived up to all expectations, and more. In his first year in the NBA, the 6-11, 230-pound Bellamy sur-vived the traditional "baptism of fire" and emerged at second and fire" and emerged at season's end their jobs to Bellamy, went about attacking the Zephyrs' star in an underhanded manner. Instead exas the unanimous choice for "Rookie of the Year" honors. To gain pressing confidence in Bellamy's ability they proceeded to lambast him in the press, while subtley ex-pressing puzzlement. Why, Lane such salutation. Walt played sensational basketball. He was a ter-ror both on offense and defense. He outscored such great stars as Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles be all right with him if McMahen had benched Bellamy prior to a recent game. This was the faux paus of the trails was the faux paus of the Laker, Oscar ("Big O") Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals and Bob Petiti of the St. Louis Cardinals. Wilt Chamberlain alone, the great-whole deal. What kind of a basketball team is it that permits a general manag-er to quarterback the team, as Lane's statement seemed to indiest scorer in basketball history, topped Bellamy in scoring. Walt's 2,495 points was the second highest total ever racked up by a first year man in NBA history. Bellamy also outrebounded all Bellamy also outrebounded all other players, except Chamberlam and the great Boston Celtics Jar Bill Russell; so outstanding was Big Walt in all-around ability that he was selected for NBA's Western Division All-Star team last year. Excepting Chamberlain, no other player achieved so much in his freshman year in pro ball, and Bel-lamy did all that despite the fact that he had the Zephyrs on his back. He has still another value to the Zephyrs and the NBA. Dick Tiger Signs For Return Bout With Fullmer the Zephyrs and the NBA. Like Chamberlain and Fussell, Bellamy is a terrific box office attraction. Without him the Packers last year would have folded financially like a punctured accordian. He is the team's bread and butter

LAS VRGAS, Nev. (ANP) -World Boxing Assn. middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria last week hept his pledge to give Gene Fullmer of West Jorden, U-tah, a return bout when he signed a contract with Fullmer for the re-match here, Feb. 25. The Nigerian fighter gave Full-mer a had besting in winning the title from him in a 15-round bout in San Francisco last Oct. 23.

Coach Banks Has 42 Reasons Why Morgan Won CIAA Title

BALTIMORE, Md.--For the post-season quarterbacks who are trying to figure out how Morgan State College won the CIAA Champion-ship, Ceach Earl Banks can supply "forty-two good reasons" in a matty-two good reasons" in a of seconds.

ter of seconds. The 43 reasons the en-lows grid star ratiles off are the members of a the 43 squad, who, in Banks' opin-ion, "deserve the real credit for 1 the championship." "The boys did St." Coach Banks explained. "Our really fine obsches helped, but it was the boys who played. All the way, from the be-ginning of the seeson, they put forth a great tasm effort that wen the title size us."

The Bears' title-the 15 to be well oy a Morgan team-was ceptured on Thankagiving Day when Mor-gan best Virginia State College 54n 23-0.

steson record, top standing among the 18 teams in the loop, and us-disputed claim to the CIAA dia-dem. The last Morgan champion-ship was won in 1966, co-sharad with Delaware State and North Cambing College Carolina College. Not since 1960, when there was a Roosevelt Brown, great tackle of the New York Giants, to police the Bear line, had a Morgan eleven won title suttricht a title outright.

Team Majer Reason Morgan's return to the champion-ship circle she dominated for so many years can be aftributed to any number of factors, Coach Banks any number of fact believes. But the team flor reason, he thinks.

France's first attempt at space exploration will be in 1994. when its first space satellite will be loft-ed from the Sahara.

BY I. B. HARREN

crewned Mrs. Henderson. Beferees for the twe games were F. R. Sand-ers of Greenville; and Athoniel Parker of Kinston. Principal Maye has been at Rob-inson Censolidated High School for twenty years. He states an enroll-ment of over one thousand students with 300 of them in the high school

Scholarships Established By Pepsi-Cola

NEW YORK - The outstanding layers of 1962 in the National and players of 1962 in the resident and American Baseball Leagues, and the National and American Poot-ball Leagues, will have $000.00 schelarships donated in "their names to the colleges of their choice" by Pessi-Cola Comtany. Baseballs' Mest Valuable Players -Micky Mantle, Yankees and Mau-ry Wills, Dodgers, and Pro-Poot-ballers' Players of the Year - Y. A. Tittle, Giants, and Lennie Bewson, Dallas "Toxans," are the recipients of the first such scholarships by Pepsi-Cola in cooperation with the Sporting News. After each player has designated the "college of his choles" Pepsi-Cole will establish scholarships in the individuals name by contribut-ing to the scholarship fund of the college selected by him. Each col-lege will be solely responsible for the sward of the $00.00 scholarship on the basis of acod. rican Baseball Leagues, and

I be solely responsib rd of the $500.00 schol