

WILL SHE EVER WALK

Brenda, 2½ years, is one of 250,000 American children born each year with a significant birth defect. She receives care and treatment because you support the March of Dimes. She can not move her head, neither walk nor talk, and her sight is severely damaged. Delicate surgery and rehabilitation may help her live a useful life. Give dollars to the March of Dimes.

Odd Twists In The News

COMPILED BY ANP
SHE WAS BURNING MAD
CHICAGO — When Mrs. Lucille Hathorne, 41, gets mad, she really gets mad.
Angered recently by her husband, Jim 33, she went into the street outside the couple's Southside home where his gleaming 19-61 Cadillac convertible was parked. According to Sgt. Horace Noble, Mrs. Hathorne doused the car with gasoline, and set it afire.
When police arrived, the car was a total loss. Mrs. Hathorne was arrested and charged with criminal damage of property. Her husband posted bond and she was released.
When asked to explain the reason she made scrap metal of the convertible, Mrs. Hathorne said, "I just got mad."

NO SHOPLIFTER, SHE WAS JUST COVERING UP
MEMPHIS — Shapely Mrs. Barbara Kann said it was modesty, not larceny, that made her put a can of hairspray under her coat in a store.

The 23-year-old Mrs. Kann told City Judge Beverly Boushe she noticed the store manager's stare and "looked down and saw my blouse was open." She said she put the hairspray under her coat in a hasty attempt to button up, "but I certainly meant to pay for it."

Charles Dillon, owner of Dillon's food market, said he hadn't been staring at Mrs. Kann. "I didn't even notice the blouse," he said, "but I saw her put the hairspray under the coat."

Judge Boushe dismissed the shoplifting charge.
KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY
BRAZELTON, Ga. — Brazelton citizens have elected to keep their city government a simple one-family affair.

Voters last week re-elected J. L. Brazelton mayor. They also returned the town's four city councilmen — H. F. Braselton, H. B. Braselton, J. O. Braselton, Jr., and H. E. Braselton. All the councilmen are first cousins of the mayor.

The Braseltons were unopposed. About 25 of the town's 75 registered voters cast ballots.
Incidentally, approximately half of last week's voters are named Braselton, too.

JUST SAY "CHEESE"
CLINTON, Ky. — A youngster who had injured his arm in a fall was brought into the office of Dr. V. A. Jackson.

"We'll have to take a picture of that arm," the doctor said.
"Doctor," the boy asked, holding back the tears, "do I have to smile?"

"KISS-AND-RUN" BANDIT GETS $15

ATLANTA — A bandit with an unusual modus operandi broke into an Atlanta apartment and stole three pocketbooks, $15 - and a kiss.
Detective J. C. Smith said the man held a knife to a young woman's throat and demanded, "When she refused, the bandit kissed her anyway, then fled."

WISHES WOMEN WOULD LIE CONSISTENTLY
CHICAGO — Police Supt. O. W.

Wilson wishes women who lie about their ages at least would "lie consistently."

Age group classifications of women in police records, he complained, are constantly getting snarled up by women who blithely give one age one time and another age another time.

EXERCISES FEMALE

CLERKENWELL, England — Miss Betty Hartnett, 24, withdrew a summons or assault against Tom McCusker, 29, in court and told the judge, "I am going to marry him."
Magistrate T. F. Davis said "Isn't it marvellous She accused him of assault and then wants to marry him."

FROM TOOTHLESS TO TWO
COSENZA, Italy — Rosa Tieri of nearby San Sosti was as surprised as everyone else when two new teeth, an incisor and an eyetooth, appeared in her mouth.
She is 87 and had been toothless for years.

HEADMASTER SICK OF SOX
DARLINGTON, England — The headmaster at the Houghton school has ruled that girls will have to wear white bobby socks instead of the opera-length black stockings which are a teenage fad.

Headmaster Charles Craggs considered the stockings too sexy, but the girls complained that they had to wear them to keep warm.

"I don't want to say anything more about the stockings," Craggs told parents and the school board, "I'm fed up with them."

ZETA ZEST

The regular monthly meeting of the Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was held at the home of Soror Mary Carnage, January 19. Sorors present were Soror Mary Ligon, Anne Hawkins, Evelyn Pope, Nora E. Lockhart, Addie Logan, Dorothy Lane, M. P. Lane, Ellen Alston, Catherine Thomas, Blanche Rivers, Willie Howell, Emily Kelly, Hazel Sorrell, Vivian Brown, Mildred James, Ida Washington, Barbara Ligon, Rosa Lyons, Mills Vessey, Mary Carnage and Pauline Young.

tion was observed. It was very beautifully as well as impressively done. Soror Ann Hawkins and her committee were in charge. Sorors Hawkins, Ida E. Washington, M. P. Lane, Evelyn Pope and Emily Kelly were honored.

Soror Mary Carnage gave her report for the newly organized America Chapter. She stated the chapter has planned a tea to be given at the Tuttle Community Center, Jan 27 at 4 o'clock. Judge Mason Thomas will be the principal speaker. This club's function is to work with Prevention and Control of "Juvenile Delinquency." All Sorors were urged to contribute gifts, books, and money to help this cause.

Soror Lyons reported on the chapel program to be given at Shaw the 18th of March at 11 o'clock.

We regret the loss of Soror Winters' mother, Mrs. Susie Toni. She was always so cordial to the Sorors when meeting in her home.

After a delicious repast by the hostesses, Mary Carnage, Maye Ligon, Evelyn Pope and Dorothy Lane, the meeting was adjourned.

Vesper's Speaker Stresses Education In Shaw Speech

Education is the key to international understanding, and investment in human resources is far more valuable than investment in material goods for gain, Dr. Gladys P. Graham, clinical psychologist and journalist, New York, told Shaw University Students at vespers Sunday.

Dr. Graham spoke on the subject "Investment for Greater Service." She urged the students to prepare themselves for services on an international basis, as recruitment of promising professional specialist is now measured on an international level, regardless of race creed or color. The color curtain for the most part is being removed and
