

NEWS AND VIEWS BY J. B. HARREN

CASWELL COPIES VA. CITY ROCKY MOUNT - News reports state that some 400 segregationists would not permit a lone colored man to remain in their meeting Sunday when they were planning to use the so-called "escape valve" clause of the "Pearsall Plan" to try to eliminate public schools and organize private schools in place of the schools which were last week integrated under U. S. Court order...

PLANNING NAACP DRIVE - Members of the local NAACP Membership Committee making plans for 1500 members in 1963. Seated (left to right): Mrs. A. P. Roberts, Mrs. Virginia Newell, Mrs. P. Jackson, Standings Mrs. H. White, Mr. Sanders, Mr. Reddick, Mrs. Edna Jones. Not pictured, Rev. D. N. Howard, Sr.

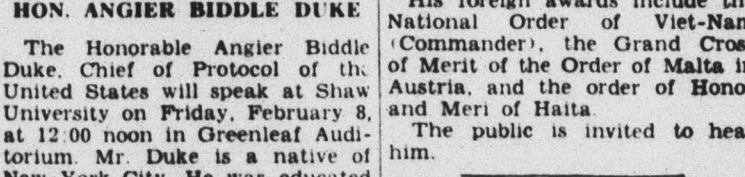

PLANS ANNUAL CONVENTION - The executive board of the Nationwide Hotel Association, which held its first meeting January 23, in Atlanta. Among other things the Board discussed its 1963 program and its 10th Annual Convention to be held in New Orleans, October 13-16. Seated (L to R) Mrs. Marion H. Jackson, Washington, D. C., Theodore R. Hagans, Jr., Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Dorothy Mason, New Orleans, La.; William E. Brooks, Chester, Va.; Mrs. Bonnie McEachin, Norfolk, Va.; Standing (L to R) Clennon M. Nixon, New Orleans, La.; Earl Towles, Washington, D. C.; Mr. O'Neal, Mrs. Lynn, and J. Austell Evans, Washington, D. C.

Hopping About TARHEELIA By Jay Bee Aytch

TRI-CITY LINKS HOLD CULTURE CLINIC ROCKY MOUNT - The Rocky Mount-Tarboro-Wilson chapter of Links, Inc., is engaged in a series of "culture" clinics to "condition" some three-score youths of the area who have been carefully screened for competition in the Spring Scholarship Contest.

Chief Of US Protocol To Speak At Shaw

As a former president of the International Rescue Committee, he conducted an on-the-spot survey of the refugee crisis in Viet-Nam, also went to Berlin to report on the Soviet repatriation campaign among escapees; flew to Austria to supervise IRC relief work along the border, organized the Zellerbach Commission, a citizens group which investigated conditions in refugee camps of Yugoslavia and Western Europe; also visited and conferred with nationalist leaders in every African state from Senegal to the Congo as a member of the Foreign Policy Advisory Committee of the Democratic Advisory Council.

HON. ANGIER BIDDLE DUKE The Honorable Angier Biddle Duke, Chief of Protocol of the United States will speak at Shaw University on Friday, February 8, at 12:00 noon in Greenleaf Auditorium. Mr. Duke is a native of New York City. He was educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. and at Yale University in his present position he has worked assiduously to create a better image of America in foreign countries, especially Africa, through Preventive Diplomacy—that is, trying to prevent embarrassing racial situations which might cause a feeling of Anti-Americanism in other countries.

ZEBULON BY MADDIE FLOYD

ZEBULON - Sunday School opened at 10 o'clock with the superintendent in charge. Subject of the lesson, "The Mighty Power of Christ." The lesson was reviewed by the pastor, Rev. Avery Horton. Morning worship began at 11:30 a. m. with Rev. Horton delivering the sermon. His subject was "The Secret Place of the Most High." The sermon was very inspiring and enjoyed by everyone present.

Raleigh, Cofield has also studied at A&T College, Virginia State College and Columbia University, having received a $3,400 scholarship from Columbia for 1961-62 where he received his M. A. degree and is working on an Education Doctorate degree. Mrs. Cofield, also a Shaw grad, is teaching in Lynchburg and studying toward her M. A. degree at Columbia University. While at St. Peter's, Weldon, the Cofields saw the church grow to becoming a "station church" and the membership grew to over 500 with renovations increasing the church property value from $3,000 to $50,000; no students in college to some 30 or more. The church also established a "self-contained" institute of family life, leadership and religious education," comments Rev. Cofield.

Holly Springs BY MRS. THELMA MCLEAN

HOLLY SPRINGS - Feb. 3 at 6 p. m. the YWA Club met in its usual order at the church with Mrs. Georgia Betts as hostess. The president, Mrs. Pauline Arnold presided. After a brief business session, the club listen to reading of a St. Valentine's story and poem by Mrs. Georgia Betts which was enjoyed by all present. A "Weight Rally" was held at this meeting. The club will render a program April 28, 1963 at First Baptist Church, Holly Springs, 7:30 p. m. The public is invited. Some one will be crowned "Miss YWA." Mrs. Alea Booker will be the hostess for the next meeting. Mrs. Betts served a refreshing repast.

NOTICE: A Homecoming game will be at the school Friday night, Feb. 8, 1963, 7:30 p. m. Please come out and help your school. Sunday night, Feb. 3, 8 p. m. The Youth Union program was held at First Baptist Church of Holly Springs with nine churches being present and appearing on the program as follows: Bazel Creek, Chalk Level, St. Augusta, Roger's Chapel, First Baptist, Fuquay, Christian Church of Holly Springs, Prince Chapel, Sweet Springs and First Baptist, Holly Springs. Singers: a solo, Mrs. Libby Lee Lipscomb; the Sons of David, The Gospel Harmonettes and Chalk Level Chorus.

Cary-Asbury News BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON

CHURCH ACTIVITIES CARY - The first Quarterly Conference of the Lincolnville Circuit of the AME Church was held in Lincolnville, S. C. Sunday School opened at 9:30 a. m. with the superintendent, Dr. B. Besie Hall in charge. Worship service began at 11 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. J. H. Garrett. He presented the Presiding Elder, Dr. C. A. Stroud, who delivered an inspirational message. All reports were good.

STANDING IN LINE - Gloria Adams, (L), one of 5 Negroes to register at the formerly all-white Tulane University in New Orleans, stands in line with white students waiting to have their records checked. School officials said registration was routine, with no incidents of any kind. (UPI PHOTO).

FOUNDERS' DAY SPEAKER - Bishop W. J. Walls, New York, chairman of the board of trustees of Livingstone College who will deliver the annual Founder's Day address Wednesday, February 13. Service will highlight commemoration of Centennial of Emancipation Proclamation and dedication of new auditorium-music building on the Livingstone College campus.

Littleton News

HONOR ROLL RELEASED LITTLETON - First semester honor roll compiled and released by the principal's office at McIvor School shows 102 elementary and 37 high school students achieved an overall average of "B" or above during the first semester. Those making the honor roll are listed below: FIRST GRADE - "A" Honor Roll: Henry Faison, Jr., John Williams, Jr., Ricky Hill, Ester Johnson. "B" Honor Roll: Dexter Alston, Joseph Brinkley, Samuel Fogg, Thaddeus Jenkins, Andrew West, Willie Mae Alston, Nelida Bobbitt, Theresa Zollicoffer, Larry Dowlin, Gloria Norgins, Alfreda Taylor, Helen Faison, Wayne Vonzell Mitchell, Horace Palmer, Boyita Knight. SECOND GRADE - "B" Honor Roll: Clara Powell, Milton Solomon, Ronnie Powell, Brenda Clinton, Debra Lynch, Rudolph Pitchford, Ida Faye Hicks, Donna Manley, Melvin Brown, Jacqueline Hopkins, Doris Powell, Earline Williams, Samuel Dowlin, James Alston, Patsy Alston. THIRD GRADE - "B" Honor Roll: Etta Bernetta Lee, Margaret Snow, Doris Pitchford, Larry Williams, George Tillery, James Zollicoffer, Randolph Zollicoffer, Cynthia Alston, Sylvia Alston, Marilyn Johnson, Martha Johnson, Evelyn Pitchford, Eva Price, Carolyn Silver, Simone Solomon, Evelyn Wilkins, Veronica Yelty, Otella Lynch. FOURTH GRADE - "B" Honor Roll: Doris Burgess, Gertrina Coley, Eloise Dowlin, Shirley Lewis, Charles Lynch, Francis Hopkins, Mima Johnson, Mary Price, Richard Alston, Jack Brown, Junius Hill, William Powell, Clinton Powell, William Powell. FIFTH GRADE - "A" Honor Roll: Karen Denise Weaver. "B" Honor Roll: James Medlin, Essie Watson, Sandra Parker, Pamela Faison, Laura Brown, Charlie Zollicoffer, Kenneth Price, Jack Johnson, Gaynell Brown, Beryl Ponton, Walter Barnes, Jesse Alston, Joyce E. Alston, Dorothy Jones. SIXTH GRADE - "B" Honor Roll: Mrs. Lettie B. Page sang a beautiful solo just before the sermon, as it is a custom of First Baptist for a member out of each choir or chorus to sing a solo to each Sunday. Visitors worshipping with us were from Watts' Chapel Baptist Church. On Friday night Boy Scout Troops 121 - 168 and 163, all of the Apex Community, will have their annual celebration (A Cracker Barrel), at the First Baptist Church. All parents and friends are invited and potential boy scouts recently begun at First Baptist. A newly organized society was The first meeting was held at First Baptist Monday night. It is the Dorcus Society. Mrs. Docia Evans is president; vice president, Mrs. Ethel Lyles; recording secretary, Mrs. Minnie Jones; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ruth Hunter; Mrs. Maggie Cofield, Mrs. Louise Colder, publicity chairman; Topic leader, Mrs. E. H. Williams; program committee, Mrs. Frances Marrow, Mrs. Mattie Marrow, and Mrs. Mabelle Mangum. Twenty nine ladies are enrolled. Mrs. N. M. McMillion is the music director of the society. (A correction from last week; Mr. Charles Thomas of Raleigh, formerly of Greensboro was Emcee for the Male Chorus anniversary. The offering was $128.00. PERSONALS and Mrs. Dan Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Elliott, Mr. Jeremiah Elliott, Mr. Charlie Elliott, Mrs. Clara Elliott, Mrs. Mary R. Pennie, Mrs. Pauline Goodman, Mrs. Rosia B. Oates, Miss Mildred Smith and Mr. Jimmy Kirby.

YWCA CALENDAR

The following is the calendar for the Young Women's Christian Association, Sojourner Truth Branch, for the month of February: Sat. Feb. - Music, Piano, Voice and Organ Techniques, 9:30 - 12 noon; Hat Making, 4:5 p. m. Mon. Feb. 11 - Arts and Crafts, 10 - 12 noon; English Essentials, 7:8 p. m.; Parent Education Committee Meeting, 8-9 p. m. Tues. Feb. 12 - Clothing Construction, 11-12 Noon; Reading and Vocabulary Building, 7-8 p. m.; Typing, 7:30-9:30 p. m.; Y-Teen Committee Meeting, 8 p. m. Thurs. Hat Making 10-12 Noon. Voice and Organ Techniques, 9:30. Sat. Feb. 16 - Music, Piano, Voice and Organ Techniques 9:30-12 Noon. ODD TWISTS IN THE NEWS MORE TEETH, MORE MONEY CROWN POINT, Ind. - Clarke Hockney, a first grader at Solon Robinson school here, was quite excited each time he'd lose a tooth because of the money the "tooth fairy" would leave under his pillow. While staying a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Swart of Demotte, he saw his grandfather cleaning his denture plate and said, "Boy, Grandpa, I bet you'd really get lots of money if you'd put all those teeth under your pillow."

BUNN NEWS BY MR. H. M. SATTERWHITE

BUNN - Bunn Chapel Sunday School began at 10 o'clock with the superintendent, Mr. Phillip Dunston in charge. The lesson, "The Mighty Power of Jesus," was very inspiring. The Gethsemane Baptist Church service was held at 11:30 a. m. with the pastor, Rev. J. A. Watson in charge. The service was very enjoyable. Mr. J. Dickens of Henderson celebrated his birthday on Saturday, Feb. 2, with a birthday dinner. His sister, Mrs. Catherine Crudup cooked the dinner. Mr. Dickens along with his guests had a lovely time. Mrs. Curtis Jordan, Miss Trumel la Moore, Miss Onella Smith and Mr. Harvey Baker, left for New York last Saturday. We wish them a pleasant and safe trip. SIX AND SHUT-INS: Mrs. Mamie Clemmons on Ambassador St.; Mrs. Lelia Mae Thompson on East Johnson Drive; Mrs. Arlene Baugh on Walnut St.; Mrs. Alice Moore and two children on Evans Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Connie Reaves, East Johnson St.; Miss Patricia Perrell on Ferrell St.; and Mrs. Lucy Staten is home after being a patient in Wake Memorial Hospital. All are recuperating from the flu virus.

Louisburg News BY MRS. ALVIN WILLIAMS

CHURCH ACTIVITIES LOUISBURG - Services at the Mitchell Baptist Church began Sunday, Feb. 3 at 9:30 with Sunday School. The superintendent, Mr. David Long, was in charge. Following the devotion the classes were arranged and the lesson was taught. Subject of the lesson: "The Mighty Power of Christ." Classes reassembled after the lesson was taught and Mr. David Long reviewed the lesson. A 5 p. m. BTU and regular worship service. Mr. James R. Davis, president of the BTU was in charge. The group discussed topics. After the groups reassembled BTU Director, Mr. Arthur Williams was in charge of the Bible Quiz. A most powerful and challenging sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Brodie. PERSONALS Mrs. Alice Pearce and Mrs. Earnestine Foster have returned to their home in New York after spending several days with Mrs. Mitt Foster and her family. Mr. Joe Sutherland, Jr. and sister, Mrs. Annie W. Fogg of New York City recently attended the funeral of their brother-in-law here. Funeral services for Mr. Eddie Perry were held at the Mitchell Baptist Church Jan. 28. Rev. E. L. Jones was in charge of the eulogist service. Mrs. Alice Fogg and her brother, Mr. Peter Foster and their mother, Mrs. Mitt Foster are recovering nicely from the flu. Mrs. Ida Solomon is sick and shut-in.

Riley Hill News BY CECILIA PERRY AND JUANITA MANGUM

RILEY HILL - The Sunday School began at 10 a. m. with the superintendent, Mr. Walter Rogers in charge. Subject of the Sunday School lesson was "The Mighty Power of Christ." Miss Joyce Crews from the intermediate class reviewed the lesson. The Vocal Union held its meeting Sunday at 2 p. m. with a musical program following the meeting. The program was enjoyed by all. The BTU meeting was held Sunday at 6 p. m. with the president, Mr. Leslie Jones in charge. The Riley Hill School PTA will be held Wed night. We are asking all parents to please attend the meeting. Mrs. Grace Hodge, president and Mrs. Mary E. Perry, secretary. The regular prayer meeting will be held Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to attend the service. Mrs. Michael Hodge and Mr. Leslie Jones celebrated their birthdays last week. We wish them a Happy Birthday. Mrs. Mable Rogers, Mr. Theo Hodge and Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Rogers are among the sick in the Riley Hill section. We wish them a speedy recovery. The intermediate choir of the church, attended Mary Grove Church last Sunday night, along with the Rev. John Mangum. Thought for the Week: Take ye heed, watch and pray, for ye know not when the time is. - Mark 13:33

Long Hill And Linden FAYETTEVILLE - Mrs. Otto Singletary and son, Curtis, who left Wed. Jan. 23 for Stuttgart, Germany, to join her husband Sp 5 Otto Singletary were honored at a going away dinner Tuesday night, Jan. 22 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Elliott. Good wishes on behalf of her friends and the community were said by Rev. Sister Rosetta Elliott. Mrs. Singletary was very active in community and church work. She is the former Cora Dobbins of Rt. 6, Fayetteville. Among the guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Williams, Mr.

Tabor City News BY MRS. GOLDIE M. JOHNSON

TABOR CITY - The "Jesus saith unto Thomas, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the father, but by me" - John 14:6. The First Baptist Church of Tabor City held its regular services Sunday, January 27. Sunday School at 10 o'clock with Mr. J. C. Williams, presiding. Many of the members of the faculty of Douglas High, and also our agricultural teacher, Mr. W. J. Walls, were present.

W. T. GRIMES' Barber Shop Agency Band Uniforms - Choir Robes Pianos - Organs Made-to-Measure Clothing 211 IVEY ST. DIAL GI 2-3343 ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. WRIGHT'S Chick-Shack Motel Raleigh Rd. at S. Grace St. On N. C. 97 between U. S. 301 and 301-A. Wines, Dines and Rests the Weary Traveler A. H. (Tuffy) BRYANT, Prop. Dial 446-9954 ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. FORD SALES and SERVICE ALLAN MIMS, INCORPORATED Telephone 2-2191 225 TARBORO ST. ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. J. B. HARREN'S SALES AGENCY Quality Photographs and News Coverage of School Programs, NAACP Activities, Weddings, Parties, Family Reunions, Conventions - Sent to your favorite Newspapers, Wholesale & Retail Beauty Supplies. 240 PENNA. AVENUE - Store: 243 ATLANTIC AVENUE ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.