Annual Music Festival For Catholic Schools Held

The Annual Musical Festival for Catholic schools in this Diocese was held on Sunday, Feb. 18 in the Father Price Gymnasium of the new Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh. Groups from the Cathedral School, Raleigh; Our Lady of Lourdes School, Raleigh; Saint Monica's School, Raleigh; Immaculate School, Durham; Saint Mary's School, Goldsboro; and Cardinal Gibbons High School, Raleigh. Each group sang numbers that showed all of the techniques of superior musical training. The voices were well blended, well modulated and the enunciation and pronunciation was outstanding in all groups. Each group showed a marked improvement over the previous years. The parents of the children of Saint Monica's School were very proud of the performance done by their children. They sang the following numbers: O Deus Ego Amo Te, 18th Cent. - Montani; American Hymn, Maxwell - Keller; Steal Away, Negro Spiritual; Orchestra Song, Trad. - Austrian. After the concert Bishop Waters, Head of the Diocese of Raleigh spoke. He congratulated the singers and praised the superior work of the good Sisters who taught them. He congratulated the parents for their cooperation with the Schools and Teachers. After the Festival, open house was held at the New Cardinal Gibbons High School Building which was recently opened in Sept., 1962. Outstanding features of the building are: the modern language laboratory, the modern Science Lab, music room and Library. All of the classrooms are light, spacious and well furnished. Another outstanding feature was the beautiful Chapel in the Administration Building. Many questions have been asked about cold damage to plants caused by the severe temperatures we have had this winter. More about this next week. PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS!

Geraldine G. Brown's Personally Speaking

The following article reached me too late last week to be included in that issue of the paper. However, I am grateful to the sender and hope she will see fit to let me hear from her again soon. Serving as host and hostess to the Saturday night Couple Club were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Scarborough. Following the serving of cocktails guests enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner. Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Blount and Mr. and Mrs. John Blount. Needless to say they had a delightful time. Sorts wish I had been there. February 18th was the birthday of my little friend and neighbor Trisha of E-1 Washington Terrace. I took her some cake. (I wonder who ate it?) Hope you have a very happy birthday Patricia and live to see many many more. Trish is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Albons Alston. Coming from Philadelphia, Pa. last Wednesday to spend some time with her grandparents and other relatives and friends was Little Miss Delores Darrell Smith. Why of course she brought her mama and papa with her. They are Delores (nee Johnson) and Purcell Smith. Grandparents visited were Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Smith of 1104 Hadley Road. Other relatives visited by them were Mrs. Bessie Byrd and family of 1017 S. Person Street, Lula and Charlie Simmons of Walnut Terrace and many others. They made the return trip to Philadelphia on Mon. Purcell is a postal employee in the city of Brotherly Love and Dee is doing substitute work in the school system. Hope they had a very pleasant return trip and an enjoyable stay while home. I would like to compliment personally the four young ladies who volunteered their services at Wake Memorial Hospital recently. They are members of the Candy Strippers Team in the persons of Reginald Smith, Billie Tucker, Dorothy Shaw and Frances Williams. Heartfelt their services were greatly appreciated, especially by Mrs. B. B. Smith. They gave up weekends of pleasure and fun for themselves and brought relief and pleasure to many others. (Could have been they still had fun, bringing joy to others) My compliments girls on being unselfish and a job well done. While on the subject of volunteer service - Sunday, Feb. 24th in Wake Fund Sunday and many women will be out to collect for this worthy organization. They are volunteering their services and I hope you will see fit to respond favorably. Many have contributed already perhaps through other sources, but please make it worthwhile for those who will give an hour or two Sunday and respond with a donation. No amount will be too small. Let me thank you in advance for your cooperation, especially to the folks in the Washington Terrace and Madonna Acres area. Want some tips on how to be a good hostess? Check with Mrs. Mary E. Smith of 3101 Rhambratic Road. She was a very gracious hostess on Saturday night to several couples that included me and mine. We had a very good time, eating, dancing and doing what
