

TAKES ISSUE WITH POWELL ON NAACP

Crowd Cheers Verdict In Court

THE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 21, NO. 22

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1963

PRICE 15c

Holly Springs Man Held In Bro.-In-Law's Death

WINTERS SEEKS 2ND TERM

FIGHTING EXTRADITION TO N. C. — After serving more than a year in jail Mae Malloy was freed on $15,000 bond although she is still fighting extradition to North Carolina where she is wanted for trial on a kidnaping charge. The 35-year-old woman's kidnaping charge grew out of a racial disturbance in Monroe. (UPI PHOTO).

WARNS WHITE MODERATES TO 'SPEAK OUT'

Silence Stiffles Progress

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Atlanta pastor and head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, urged moderate white southerners to "speak out" at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. King's address, sponsored by the Virginia Council on Human Relations, marked the initial appearance of a major civil rights figure at Thomas Jefferson's School. King told his listeners, "If the moderates of the white South fail to act now, history will have to record that the greatest tragedy of this period of social transition was not the strident clamor of the bad people, but the appalling silence of the good people." The integration leader asserted that the South's "native sons" can best lead the region "out of the social and economic quagmire." The voices of the white moderates are stifled because they fear "social, political and economic reprisals." If the white moderates face the challenge of this new day, they will permit great statesmen from the South to return to national leadership. "It's regrettable that severe sectionalism has made it impossible for a resident southerner to serve as President since the Civil War," said King. He pointed out that of the first twelve Presidents of the United States, nine were southerners, seven of whom were Virginians. The Negro community in the South "yearns for brotherhood and

VISITING CHIEF EXECUTIVE — Governor Terry Sanford is shown in his office, standing between George Mason Miller, brilliant young scholar, and his mother, Mrs. Geneva Burke Miller. His aunt, Mrs. Lillian E. Burke is seated on the left and his grand mother, 95, is seated on the right. The governor and George discussed both domestic and international affairs.

Gov. Is Host To Quiz Program Winner

George Mason Miller, phenomenal quiz program winner and an authority on the United Nations, was

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WITH BURROUGHS, CORP — Jee N. Norman (left), assistant professor of commerce at North Carolina College, gets details of an appointment of Carl High (right), a former pupil, to a position with the Burroughs Corporation. A summa cum laude graduate of NCC, with a major in accounting, High, who is currently completing a masters degree at the University of North Carolina as a Woodrow Wilson scholar, has been appointed to the Controller's Division of the Burroughs Laboratory at Paoli, Pennsylvania. He is a Raleighite and begins work April 1.

Family Fuss Ends In Death Of Mate

HOLLY SPRINGS — Mrs. Essie Mae Potter left here Tuesday night for Chipley, Fla., taking the body of her husband, James Potter, 40, who was slain, in the home, Saturday afternoon, by her brother, James Adams, 24. Funeral services are slated for the Florida town Sunday. Adams is being held in the Wake County jail, as the result of having waived a preliminary hearing, before Magistrate H. A. Bland, Monday. The CAROLINIAN learned Wednesday that plans are being

JOHN W. WINTERS

Attributes Experience To Decision

John W. Winters, City Councilman, and a member of the Public Works Committee of the Council filed Thursday for a second term. Mr. Winters is a real estate broker and developer. He is a member of the Governor's Good Neighbor Council and the Governor's Commission on International Student Relations. In declaring his candidacy, Mr. Winters had this to say: "The past two years has been a unique experience in serving the public. The surprising complexity of municipal

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

No Civil Action Is Expected

LAURENSBURG — This little Scotland County farming town has settled back to normalcy after the acquittal of Misses Truemiller and Pinkey Polston on charges of safe robbery and conspiring to rob a safe. The trial ended Friday night when the jury announced that the two sisters had been found not guilty by the 12 men selected to ponder the evidence. The two women, with other members of their household, are said to have been visited by many people. Some of them are reported to have come to see the house, reportedly built by the two women, and others are said to have come to congratulate the two women, on having won the court fight. It was reliably reported that the family would like to be permitted to enjoy the comforts of the fashionable home in which they recently moved. Attorney Gilbert Medlin, who defended the two women, told The CAROLINIAN that as far as he knew the case was closed and that there would be no further action on the part of either side to reopen or any attempt to bring civil damages. The verdict threw the courtroom in an uproar and the presiding judge had to rap for order so that the business of the court could be

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

BULLETIN!
Just before press time, it was learned the case of The CAROLINIAN vs. the Grand Lodge of F&A Masons, in which the newspaper was attempting to collect a past due bill, alleged to have been due for advertising, was dismissed by Judge Claws I. Williams, in Wake Superior Court, Wednesday.

FOREIGN STUDENTS GREETED — Part of the 400 foreign students attending the International Student Day sponsored by the Governor's Commission on Foreign Students, being greeted by the Governor's reception at the Mansion. (Left to right): The Governor's wife, Mrs. Sanford, Arthur Huyler, St. Augustine's College student from Nassau, Bahamas; Governor Sanford; S. B. Mensal, N. C. College student, from Liberia, Africa.

Segregation Laws Attacked In Report

BY H. I. FONTELLIO-NANTON
The report stated that "there is some evidence that Negroes not only complete fewer years of schooling than whites but also that the education they do receive is for the most part inferior in quality." Studies were also made in the field of employment and compulsory segregation. The answer to the question Are Negroes adequately prepared to hold such jobs as are offered by state and government? was found in laying the responsibility for inadequate education on the steps of these agencies. Says the report: "If infrequent employ-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Freedom Wind's Blowing Says Rev. R. D. Abernathy

DURHAM — "Surely this age, in spite of all of its technology and discoveries, has failed in religion... we trail in Christianity... We pray and cry on Sunday in church and bomb on Monday," charged the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, pastor of the West Hunter Street Baptist Church, Atlanta, in a speech at North Carolina College Monday. Abernathy, secretary-treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and a prominent figure in the national civil rights

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CORE Redoubles Appeal For Food And Clothing

James Farmer, Nat'l CORE Director will be the main speaker at a meeting to be held Sunday, 3 p. m., at the First Baptist Church, the effort made to furnish clothing and food for Mississippi, will be redoubled and methods of getting the full cooperation of the whole community will be discussed. "A special appeal was made to the Raleigh Chapter of CORE by James McCain, Director of Organizations asking for food and funds urgently needed to help the depressed people of Mississippi Delta Region. The difficulty now being experienced by these people resulting from their efforts to vote. "They are now suffering a most vicious economic boycott, as well as being subjected to hazardous forms of intimidation," John Williams, chairman of the local chapter of CORE said. According to reports, several persons have been shot, while others

JAMES FARMER

WEATHER
The five day weather forecast for the Raleigh area beginning Thursday, March 28, and continuing through Monday, April 1, is as follows:
Temperatures will average above normal, with only small day to day changes. Rainfall will be light occurring as scattered showers about Friday night or Saturday.

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 3: Colonial Furniture Co., R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
- PAGE 4: A&P Stores, Standard Concrete Products Co., Lanier's Pick-up Station, Gem Wash Shop, National Budget Service, Inc.
- PAGE 10: Pepsi-Cola Co. of Raleigh, Carolina Builders, Inc., Deluxe Hotel, Warner Memorials, Dillon Motor Finance, Sidgeway's Opticians, Inc.
- PAGE 11: Carolina Power & Light Co., Acme Beauty Co., Central Drug Store, Community Florist
- PAGE 13: Lincoln Theatre, Charles, Hunt General Tire Co., Raleigh Federal Home, Glouster Beauty Shop, Wake Auto Service, Provident Finance Co., King Cole Motel, Dunn's Espresso Service
- PAGE 2: Horton's Cash Store
- PAGE 3: Town & Country Furniture, National Ass'n of College Women
- PAGE 5: Hudson-Brink-Elfr's, The Capital Cera-Cola Bottling Co., Mechanics & Farmers Bank, Bargain Box, Price's Shell Service, Emma Jane Dress Shop, Griffiths Food Store, Firestone Stores, John W. Winters and Co.
- PAGE 6: Stephenson's Music Co., Thompson Cadillac Oldsmobile, Sears, Roebuck & Co., Pine State Milk & Ice Cream, Raleigh Paint & Wallpaper Co., Johnson-Lambe Co., American Credit Co.
- PAGE 7: Curtis Equipment Co., AA Auto Sales, Raleigh Tractor & Equipment Co., Senter-Sanders Tractor, Corp., Raleigh Seafood, Davis Motor Co., Wade's Auto Sales, Weaver Bros., Rambler

ODDS-ENDS
BY JAMES A. SHEPARD
"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse."
HITTING THE NAIL ON THE HEAD
Without undo comment we would like to point up a few of the pertinent facts revealed in the 3 year study report just released by N. C. Advisory Committee of the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights. Under the heading, "Equal Pro-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)