

RALEIGH AND WINSTON RETURN NEGRO OFFICIALS

McLEOD RESIGNS COMMITTEE POST SAYS IT SERVES NO USEFUL PURPOSE

Minister Reflexes; Gives Up

The Rev. J. Edgar McLeod, who was appointed to Raleigh's Good Neighbor Council upon the recommendation of the Raleigh Citizens Association, upon his resignation, said that he had come to the conclusion that the committee was not serving any purpose, for which he thought he could be useful, that he had tendered his resignation to Mayor W. G. Baker.

The letter of resignation, dated May 2, was read to the association and the group expressed its regret but advised the minister that it covered his letter. The letter is as follows:

The Hon. W. G. Baker, Mayor, City of Raleigh, North Carolina.

I have given serious thought to the functioning of the Raleigh Good Neighbor Council in recent weeks and have come to the conclusion that the committee is not now serving any purpose through which I can be useful. Therefore, it is with regret that I tender my resignation as a member of the Raleigh Citizens Association.

Negro political office workers did not give the well-known candidate throughout the state recently. Congressman John W. Winters, runner-up in his second and argued that his experience would enable him to do a better job, if re-elected, came in fifth, in a field of 18, which placed him a notch higher than when he ran in 1951, for his second term on the local City Council.

The young fighter, the son of Clarence Mitchell, Jr., head of the Washington Bureau of the organization, told the audience "I am somewhat due in the heritage he received from those who had been before him and the organization he was getting from those who were working with him in the fight for freedom."

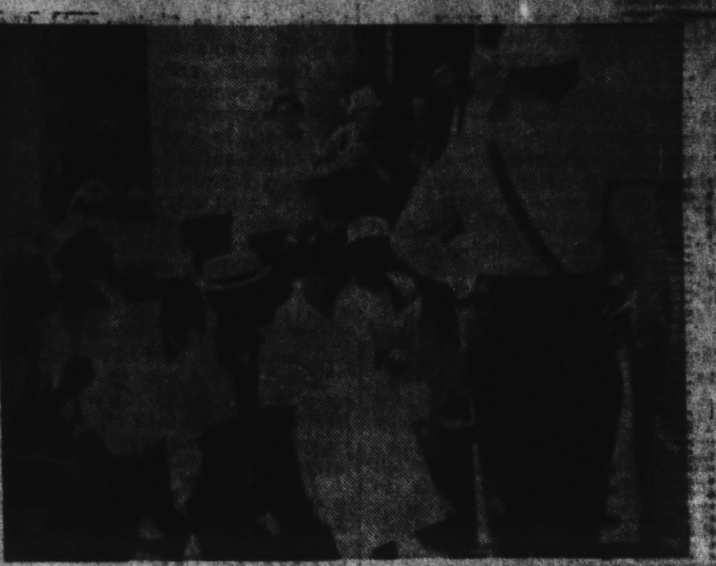

Youth Vows To Give Leadership To Fight

The young fighter, the son of Clarence Mitchell, Jr., head of the Washington Bureau of the organization, told the audience "I am somewhat due in the heritage he received from those who had been before him and the organization he was getting from those who were working with him in the fight for freedom."

Bishop E. G. Spiveywood, 6th district of the AME Zion Church and chairman of the Board of Directors, told the audience that the Negro must fight for total freedom in the second century with more vigor and vitality than ever before. He stressed those who would run for office on a liberal platform and then run for office when confronted with liberal demands.

The prelate struck out against Muslims, White Citizens Councils, John Birch Society, and any organizations or persons who would work for anyone race or group for dominance. He said this is America's fight and must be solved by all races, creeds and colors. Without calling Congressman Adam Clayton Powell's name he lashed out

Elks To Build Image In Civil Liberties

GREENSBORO—The members of the Elks, Civil Liberties Association, Incorporated, announced Tuesday that they are planning to build a new image for the Order and it was the belief of many that it was able to do just that.

Report Flays NC Practices

GREENSBORO—A bi-racial group reported recently that Negro pupils in city schools were being discriminated against in use of textbooks.

"Some editions of textbooks depicted by the state of North Carolina the use of the elementary grades are as much as 21 pages more racist than those available to some Negro children," the education committee of the Greensboro Community Fellowship said. "Other discrepancies in editions are evident in textbooks at the high school level."

"Principal and teaching staff of all schools are either all white or entirely non-white," the committee said.

ODDS-ENDS

"No Not Needed" RACE VERSUS PRINCIPLE Tuesday morning the pseudo-Moral News and Observer used a back door approach in its attempt to make a racial issue out of a DEMOCRATIC principle. Race was the winner.
