

STUDENTS STILL MARCHING, SINGING

DOOMED BUS: Pahokee, Fla. — A wrecker tows out a bus in which 27 Negro farm workers drowned late one afternoon when it plunged into deep canal. The workers were returning from the fields. (UPI PHOTO).

Salassie High On Kennedy

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, who acted as host to the Adlai Stevenson Conference in Ann Arbor, recently praised President Kennedy for what the Senator termed Kennedy's "efforts to combat racial discrimination in the United States." Salassie told Humphrey that he planned to visit the President in Washington next year.

Alston To Be Tried For Fire

GREENSBORO — The story of how a big league baseball player "cracked" up and finally spent five years in the Cherry Hospital is expected to be told in the Superior Court of Guilford County when Thomas (Tom) Edison Alston is tried for the alleged burning of the New Goshen Methodist Church in 1958.

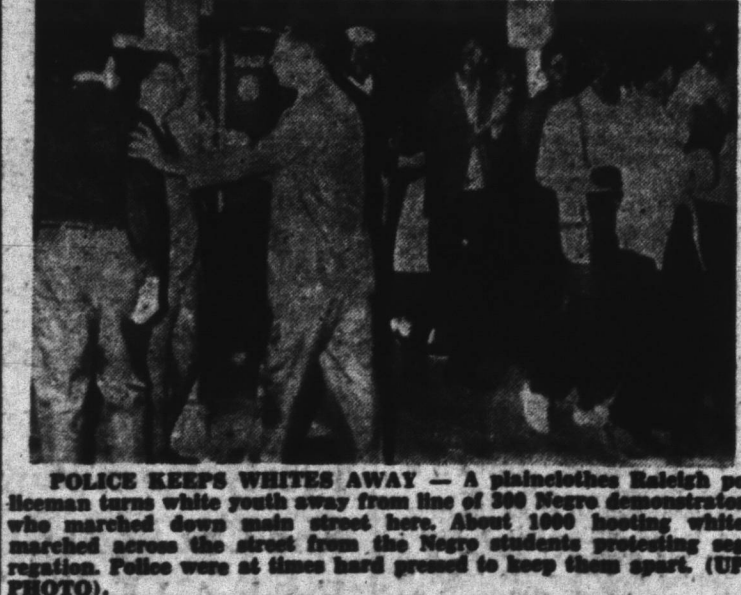

News Photos

GOV. STAYS TO PRODUCE — Governor James B. Hunt, left, and Mrs. Sanford, right, are seen in a photo as they stand with the West Charlotte Senior High School band and the subject, "Music, Friend or Foe?" Sunday here, right, received the Governor's felicitations for having won top honors in the North Carolina Academic Contest. His subject was in the field of music. He is also a senior of West Charlotte Senior High School. Both students were honored at a dinner given at the Executive Mansion with Governor and Mrs. Sanford as hosts.

PRINCIPALS AT DEDICATION — These are persons who took part in the dedication of the James Varick Memorial Auditorium-Music Building, during commencement exercises at Livingstone College, Tuesday. The building was built at a cost of $350,000, with an additional outlay of $150,000 for furnishings. L-r, Bishop H. B. Shaw, who presided over the exercises; Hilyard Robinson, Washington, D. C. architect, who designed it; Bishop W. J. Walls, who delivered the address and presented the key to Dr. E. E. Duncan, president, right.

POLICE KEEPS WHITES AWAY — A plainclothes Raleigh policeman turns white youth away from line of 300 Negro demonstrators who marched down main street here, about 1950 heading whites marched across the street from the Negro students protesting segregation. Police were at times hard pressed to keep them apart. (UPI PHOTO).

Harvard University Professor Contrasts Years Of Man's Life

"We are living in one of the truly great eras of history. We are living in the best of years and the worst of years," Dr. Harold C. Hunt, Eliot Professor of Education, Harvard University told Shaw University graduates Monday, May 27.

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays Offers God To St. Augustine's Graduates

Ninety-four graduating seniors of St. Augustine's College were assured of their Commencement that they may live and move in two interrelated worlds — one still tightly segregated and the other one partly desegregated.

BILL WOULD BRING GESTOPO

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly
VOL. 21, NO. 31 RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1963 PRICE 15c

In Fayetteville

CROSS BURNED

Legislator Seeks Law For Eatery

BY ALEXANDER BARNES AND H. I. FONTELLIO-NANTON
Rep. George Uzzell of Rowan Co. is said to have introduced a bill into the House of the state legislature Tuesday that would make the laws of the Gestapo a guide.

CONFERENCE — Jesse Jackson, left, Greenville, S. C., president of the AAT College Student Government, confers with Captain William Jackson of the Greensboro Police Department, during one of a series of student demonstrations conducted in Greensboro last week.

Bennett Professor Convicted

GREENSBORO — Dr. Elizabeth Laigner, professor at Bennett College here and four white college students, Richard C. Ward, 19; Hilda Elizabeth Taylor, 18; Elinor Elizabeth Dick, 18 and Charles O. Kelley Bugg, were arrested and convicted on trespass charges Tuesday because of demonstrations earlier this month.

Christian Crusade Gaining

SALISBURY — A report on the "Crusade of Evangelism" which is being projected by the AME Zion Church, in connection with "Continental of Freedom" revealed that the movement is paying off on its very beginning. It was planned for two years.

Thurman Visions New Frontiers

SALISBURY — Dr. Howard Thurman, dean, Morris Chapel, Boston University, told Livingstone College graduates Tuesday that the frontiers of freedom were being met to some degree, but the job was far from being done and that they had a part to play, in pushing the frontiers forward.

KKK Sign Planted In Driveway

FAYETTEVILLE — Attorney Arthur L. Lane told THE CAROLINIAN Tuesday afternoon that he had no idea what prompted the person, or persons, to burn a crudely fashioned cross in the driveway of his home some time Sunday morning.

Two Suspects Held In Robbery-Murder Of White Woman

BURGAU — The fact that Willie Pierce, husband of Mrs. Hazel Pierce, white supermarket owner, offered a reward for the arrest and conviction of the person, or persons, responsible for the 20-year-old daughter of the husband, the slaying of his wife, last Dec. 23, is said to be the moving factor in the arrest of James Thomas Murphy, 40, and Orelle Joyner, 36, in connection with the killing, both of Wilmington.

NAACP Files Suit To Limit Congress

BY E. I. FONTELLIO-NANTON
Negroes under all over the country have always deplored the fact that in spite of the wholesale de-

Bomb No Terror To Marchers

BY ALEXANDER BARNES
A survey of the trouble spots in the state, affected by attempts on the part of Negroes to defuse segregation, revealed that disorders are still impeding the onward march of democracy.
Bombs have exploded on one college campus, a cross was burned at the home of an attorney, whites and Negroes heeded at High Point and Raleigh await the decision of the bi-racial committee.
Victor J. Bell, chairman of the Raleigh bi-racial committee told THE CAROLINIAN Wednesday morning that the committee had made considerable progress, since he released a statement in the paper Friday, it was believed that the policy, which the committee will announce soon, would ease the tension that has existed in the state capital, for a number of weeks.
It is the consensus of opinion that the students have been satisfied that relief is in sight and that there will be no further need for picketing.
In Greensboro Mayor David Schick announced that good will gestures have been made and the temporary truce, effected Saturday, would remain in effect until the announcement is made.
In High Point a white demonstrator was beaten by a mob of 20 whites, estimated to number about 1,000, Tuesday as he joined about 300 Negroes, who staged a silent march, through the downtown district. The Negroes are said to have been pelted with rocks and bricks as they marched, for the first time since the night, High Point has a bi-racial committee.
Dr. A. A. Ragsdale, militant Charlotte leader, is said to have held demonstrations which were tear-gassed and then moved their barriers. Full integration is expected in the Queen City area.
Fayetteville, the scene of a bomb explosion and a cross burning in the two hours, Sunday, declared a curfew Friday when Mayor John Clark conferred with demonstrators.

Alston To Be Tried For Fire

GREENSBORO — The story of how a big league baseball player "cracked" up and finally spent five years in the Cherry Hospital is expected to be told in the Superior Court of Guilford County when Thomas (Tom) Edison Alston is tried for the alleged burning of the New Goshen Methodist Church in 1958.

WEATHER

Temperatures, Thursday through Monday will be below normal. Warmer through Friday turning to cooler over the weekend. Precipitation will average more than half inch, mainly as occasional showers about Friday.

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

PAGE 2	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 9	James Sanders Tile Company
PAGE 3	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 10	Stephenson's Music Co.
PAGE 4	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 11	Standard Concrete Products Co.
PAGE 5	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 12	Standard Concrete Products Co.
PAGE 6	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 13	Standard Concrete Products Co.
PAGE 7	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 14	Standard Concrete Products Co.
PAGE 8	Barton's Cash Store	PAGE 15	Standard Concrete Products Co.

ODDS-ENDS

BY JAMES A. SHEPARD
A GLOOMY STORY
The specter of upwards of 1,000 well dressed and well mannered Negroes making a protest walk on Fayetteville St. last Sunday was truly a glorious sight.
All the wildest thinking of the segregationists that the world and...