PRESIDENT KENNEDY forthright in speech

Condemns Those Who Hesitate

Persons who have watched the actions of President John F. Kennedy in the past two days and who have had an opportunity to study the speech made on civil rights Tuesday, say there is no doubt that the chief executive means to use every avenue available to end the double standard that has attended America.

Mr. Kennedy made it clear in his speech to the Alabama situation and his address that this was no

Integration Roundup

The CAROLINIAN in an attempt to get the reaction on the death knell of segregation around the nation found that it is being marked with blood shed, death, arrests, manhandling and force. Here are some of the happenings.

The Mississippi field secretary of the NAACP was shot to death outside his home early Wed., scant hours after a nationwide telecast

Both Men Reported Improved

James Mitchell, 413 Cannon Street, refused to give his version of an affray which took place at the home of Dr. W. F. Clark, 314 E. Cabarrus Street, last week, when shots were fired and the two ended up in Wake Memorial Hospital.

Mitchell told a CAROLINIAN representative that he was not saying anything until the end of the week. He gave no reason, but continued to say, "I will tell it all then." He was interviewed from his hospital room.

The entire matter is hard to understand, when one takes into consideration the events leading up to the shooting. According to Dr. Clark, an unknown man is alleged to have called his house, on the evening of June 6, and after being told that the doctor did not see or talk with patients on Thursday afternoon, began using obscene and abusive language, over the telephone.

The caller is said to have gone into a rage and said that his wife had died and that he wanted to go

Protest In Reverse

COLUMBIA, S. C. — A $25 fine was imposed Monday on a former Pennsylvanian who objected to the Columbia Hospital's segregated facilities.

Edwin Samuel Sloan, 29, a resident here for nine years, took his 13-month-old son to the Negro emergency room of the hospital Saturday night and was told to go to the white unit a block away.

"Black, pink, blue or white, my baby is sick and I want it treated," witnesses quoted him as saying. Ordered out, he went to the white unit, left the child and returned.

A white employe at the Negro unit said Sloan called him "a big fat slob" and threatened to strike him.

Solicitor Pou Taylor fined Sloan $25 for disorderly conduct.

Powell Dodges Arrest

NEW YORK CITY — The stormy Representative Adam Clayton Powell got some relief from a Supreme Court Justice here recently when lawyers for the women he is alleged to have defamed asked that he be arrested. Supreme Court Justice Abraham J. Gellinoff refused to sign an order presented by the lawyers.

The order had been sought by Raymond Rubin, lawyer for Mrs. Esther James, a Harlem widow who in April won a $211,500 jury verdict against the Congressman for defamation of character.

Mr. Rubin told the court that the judgment had not been paid and

Dignity Of All People Demanded

Efforts on the part of The CAROLINIAN to get a report from the Bi-racial Committee failed Wed. morning when Chairman Victor Bell could not be reached.

Dr. C. A. Lyman, a member and liaison man for the Coordinating Committee released the following statement for the Coordinating Committee:

The Citizens Coordinating Committee expresses grave and continuing concern regarding the slow pace of efforts to eliminate segregation and discrimination in Raleigh businesses licensed to serve the public.

We have been counselled to have patience and to help provide a quiet and calm atmosphere in which the bi-racial committee and others could work. We believe we have been patient and have exercised due restraint in this matter. Yet, the leadership of this community has failed to harness and consolidate the positive forces for good here that have made themselves clearly evident.

The bi-racial committee has been strongly silent since issuing its "famous" statement indicating that

Mystery Shrouds 2 Deaths

Raleigh is still trying to determine the cause of death for two of its well known persons, Richard Williams, 40, and Robert Lee Myatt, 35. The two died about 12 hours apart at Wake Memorial Hospital Sunday night and Monday morning.

Friends told The CAROLINIAN that the two had been seen riding together Sunday and appeared in the best of condition. Williams is said to have had a lingering illness and Myatt was said to have been told by a doctor that he should take it easy.

They were said to be friends and that Williams was employed by Myatt at his Southside Grocery, Bloodworth and Smithfield Streets. They are said to have been admitted to

Lexington Is Quiet; Sets Up Committee

LEXINGTON — Mayor C. V. Sink announced Tuesday formation of a bi-racial human relations committee to solve problems that set off a race riot here in which one white man was shot to death and another wounded.

The committee is composed of five prominent white men and five prominent Negroes. Sink said the committee would seek to iron out racial differences.

Rioting broke out here Thursday night and one white man died with a 22 caliber bullet in the brain. A white photographer was shot in the back with a 22 caliber bullet as he sought to photograph the slain man.

Several Negroes and whites were arrested Friday and Saturday in connection with the riot. At the same time he announced the formation of the human relations committee, Sink released a letter from two NAACP officials, who asked for complete desegregation in Lexington.

The demands included elimination of white and Negro restrooms and drinking fountains, upgrading of Negroes in city jobs, equal job opportunities and employment in city clerical jobs, integration of public schools on a geographical basis, more recreation facilities for Negroes and appointment of Negroes to various city boards.

The letter was from local NAACP President Clarence Roberts and R. F. Jamerson, vice president of the local chapter.

Sink also announced the appointment of B. K. Long, Jr., a Negro, to the City Golf Commission.

The mayor said he wanted to do all in his power to improve race relations and head off racial disorder. He said that while he thought time would solve the problem, the bi-racial committee was a step in the right direction.

He emphasized that the city has no ordinances pertaining to segregation and that Negroes interested in clerical jobs could apply like white persons.

In Goldsboro

Students Are Arrested With Theatre Tickets

GOLDSBORO — Goldsboro police arrested Negro demonstrators for the first time last Saturday. Thirty-three high school students were arrested when they refused to leave Robinson's Drug Store or entered the Paramount Theater even though they had tickets.

Rev. J. W. Simpson, spokesman for the group of students who went to Robinson's Drug Store, was asked to leave but refused saying there were white people being served and why should he be charged for trespassing when they were not

Rev. Simpson and the students remained in the drug store until they were arrested.

Milas Kelley, spokesman for the second group of students, at the same time was visiting the Paramount Theater. He and the students were arrested and charged for trespassing. At the time of their arrest, they were not questioned as to how they got their tickets.

All who were arrested were released without bond and ordered to appear in Mayor's Court Thursday, June 13th.
