

"Was Running Around With My Husband:"

Jealous Wife Kills Neighbor

MISTRIAL ORDERED IN BURGLARY CASE; 1 SENTENCED TO LIFE TERM

Alleged "Brains" Of Duo Must Face Judge Again

By CHARLES R. JONES

A faint smile of satisfaction was mirrored on the face of Richard Virgil, 34, last Saturday as he heard Judge W. H. S. Burgyrn order a mistrial in a first degree burglary case, involving Virgil and an accomplice, Oliver Lee Evans, 39.

Both were charged with burglarizing the Matthews-Gentry Store, eight miles south of Raleigh, in the early morning hours of February 9.

Evans, who pleaded guilty to the charge Wednesday, drew an automatic life sentence. He is now confined at Central Prison here. Virgil pleaded innocent, and the State indicated it would ask the death penalty for him. A date for his next trial had not been set at CAROLINIAN press time.

Evans testified he entered the store with the intention of burglarizing it, but was shot in the attempt.

District Solicitor, W. G. (Buck) Ransdell told the jury that the dapper Virgil was the "brains" behind the burglary, who drove Evans to the scene of the crime and left him there to die after Evans was critically wounded in an exchange of gunfire inside the store.

Evans further stated that he and Virgil went to the store in question and afterwards Virgil produced a sawed-off shotgun which he showed to Evans. The gun was reportedly under the front seat of the car and Virgil asked Evans if he needed it.

Evans said "I decided to take

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

M. D. Haywood Dies; Deacon Over 40 Yrs.

Milton Denton Haywood, 86, of 213 E. Cabarrus Street, a deacon for over 40 years, former school teacher and postman, died Monday afternoon at Wake Memorial Hospital. Funeral services were held Wednesday, August 14, at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Charles W. Ward, pastor, officiated.

taught in the public schools of the state for several years. For 33 years, he was a letter carrier for the U. S. Post Office, retiring in 1941.

Mr. Haywood joined the Springfield Baptist Church at Chapel Hill.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Knife Used To Murder Neighbor

LUMBERTON — Mrs. Mildred Brake Young, 35, of Lumberton has been arrested here and charged with first degree murder in the fatal stabbing of her next door neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Troy.

Mrs. Troy was pronounced dead at North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill Wednesday night from a stab wound in the neck, which she is alleged to have received on July 25.

The two neighbors had reportedly been "on the outs" for some time and police quoted Mrs. Young as saying that Mrs.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

MILTON D. HAYWOOD

PLAN 'MARCH' STRATEGY — Negro integration leaders plot route of projected August 28th "March on Washington," on a map in New York headquarters building August 3rd. A spokesman for the group said the "march" promises to be the largest civil rights demonstration in the nation's history. Shown (left to right) are: A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters; Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); and Mrs. Anna Arnold Hedgeman. (UPI PHOTO).

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 21, NO. 42

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1963

PRICE 15c

Succeeds Dr. A. Elder:

Massie Heads NCC

NCC PRESIDENT CONGRATULATED — Dr. Samuel P. Massie (left), president-elect of North Carolina College, receives the congratulations of Dr. John E. Larkins, Raleigh, a member of the college's board of trustees, after being elected to the presidency of the college last Friday. Adding his good wishes is retiring NCC president, Dr. Alfonso Elder (center). The 44-year old Dr. Massie will take office September 1, becoming the third president of the 52-year old institution.

First Demonstration Held On UNC Campus

BY HILLIARD CALDWELL

CHapel Hill—A group of 51 Negro and 16 white members of the Chapel Hill Committee For Open Business staged a half-hour protest march on the University of North Carolina Campus Wednesday, August 9.

Spokesman for the COB said the purpose of the demonstration was to draw the University's attention to the situation in Chapel Hill and to request UNC officials to take an active role in efforts to end discrimination here.

It was the first such demonstration held on the campus, the COB said.

No incidents or arrests were reported. On Tuesday, UNC Chief of Security Arthur J. Beaumont issued an order that there will be no such activities on the UNC Campus because it would disrupt classes and the noon-hour traffic.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Chemist To Assume Post September 1

DURHAM — Months of speculation about the election of a president of North Carolina College ended Friday afternoon, August 9, when the college's board of trustees elected Dr. Samuel P. Massie as the third president of the 52-year-old institution.

He will take office on September 1.

Dr. Massie succeeds Dr. Alfonso Elder, who has been president since 1948 and who succeeded the college's founder, Dr. James E. Shepard, who died in October, 1957.

A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, the 44-year-old Dr. Massie recently completed three years of service as associate program director of undergraduate science education of the National Science Foundation. During the 1953-54 school year, he was also professor and chairman of the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry in the College of Pharmacy, Howard University, Washington, D. C.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Slays Girl Friend For Fifty Cents

AULANDER — An argument over 50 cents resulted in the death of Miss Alberta Rose Futrell, 36, of Aulander, and murder charges being placed against her boy friend, Thomas Lee, 35, also a resident of Aulander.

Edward Daniels, sheriff of Bertie County, said Miss Futrell and Lee had gone to a house occupied by Abraham Wheeler, located one mile from Aulander.

The couple allegedly began arguing over the 50 cents, which was the amount of a bill for a meal.

Dr. William Hedrick, county medical examiner ordered an autopsy performed on McCullum's body. Dr. Albert Chanson, pathologist at Rex Hospital, performed the autopsy which revealed that the dead man suffered a fracture at the base of his skull, causing death. The autopsy also revealed that the victim had been drinking.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

JAMES LESLIE MCCULLUM found dead in gutter

Local Man Held As Guest Dies

Bobby Dew, 25-year-old resident of 113 Seawall Avenue, was charged with murder early Saturday morning following a dance at his house that erupted into a fatal fight. Drinking of alcoholic beverages is believed to have been the cause of the battle which led to the death of James Leslie McCullum, 43, of 204 1-2 Selwyn Avenue.

Police officers reported that they discovered the body of McCullum lying in a gutter. The dance reportedly ended when it was made known that McCullum was dead.

Dew is being held in the Wake County Jail without privilege of bond. He is scheduled to receive a preliminary hearing in City Court this week.

Dr. William Hedrick, county medical examiner ordered an autopsy performed on McCullum's body. Dr. Albert Chanson, pathologist at Rex Hospital, performed the autopsy which revealed that the dead man suffered a fracture at the base of his skull, causing death. The autopsy also revealed that the victim had been drinking.

Dew told officers that he was asked to take McCullum out of the house because of his actions. He said that he caught McCullum from behind and dragged him out to the front porch where he was able to stand.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

News Photos

CHAINED — Chained anti-discrimination pickets raise arms skyward as they try to block entrance to construction site of Downstate Medical Center August 5th. Pickets who chained themselves to protest alleged anti-Negro bias in building trade unions, succeeded in blocking off the main entrance to the site for an hour, in Brooklyn, N. Y. (UPI PHOTO).

RACIAL DISTRESS IN NEW JERSEY — White hooded pickets hold him back, and angry picket yells at Negro policeman on duty Aug. 5 at the construction site of the Union County Courthouse Annex. The demonstrator hollered to the officer that he, too, should be on the picket line. Some 200 demonstrators were marching in protest over alleged employment discrimination, in Elizabeth, N. J. (UPI PHOTO).

HELD FOR DIFFERENT REASONS — In photo on the left, police struggle with suspect who was captured following a Boston shooting last week in which Patrolman James B. O'Leary was killed. The officer suffered two bullet wounds in the chest after gunplay. Miss Victoria Spencer is shown in right photo being carried away from construction site of New Jersey's Union County Courthouse Annex August 6th. She is a representative of an integrationist movement, protesting alleged discrimination in building unions. This occurred in Elizabeth. Miss Spencer, 17, was not arrested. (UPI PHOTOS).

Dunn's Mayor Asks Ouster Of Leader

DUNN — Mayor George Franklin Blacklock last week called on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to replace its local representative "in the interest of interracial harmony."

The mayor reported that the Rev. B. B. Felder, NAACP president here, "has set up an intolerable condition which has caused both Negro and white citizens to lose faith in him." He made this comment in a telegram to State NAACP president, Kelly Miller Alexander of Charlotte, asking that the Rev. Mr. Felder be replaced and inviting Alexander, a mortician in the "Queen City," to come here and discuss the situation with Dunn's Bi-Racial Committee.

Alexander could not be reached by a CAROLINIAN reporter for comment on the matter at press time.

"I have no objection to the telegram," said the Rev. Mr. Felder.

"When you are fighting for integration, naturally there are those who oppose it," he continued. "As a result, I expect those kind of things."

Mayor Blacklock said nothing could be accomplished in Dunn as long as the minister remains in charge. Some 15 Negroes staged anti-segregation marches Friday at a local restaurant, bakery and lunch counter. No incidents were reported.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

For Students

On page 11 of this issue, The CAROLINIAN is happy to present to its readers the names of homeroom teachers and their prospective students in the junior and senior classes at the J. W. Ligon High School. This public service feature is being offered to help alleviate the usual rushing that accompanies the first days of school. Raleigh city schools will open on Thursday, September 5, for a half-day session. The first full day of classes will be Friday, September 6. Students should report to the teacher and room number listed on Page 11.

Brochure On Races Issued Here

The North Carolina Good Neighbor Council last week issued a 20-page brochure describing a wide range of activities which it has begun and suggesting several steps which might be taken by local Good Neighbor groups. According to the booklet, which was published in the office of Council Chairman David S. Coltrane, "notable progress" already

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Auto Kills Man Lying On H'way

GOLDSBORO — Wilmer Jones, a 24-year-old man, was killed instantly Friday morning when he was run over by a car on a rural paved road, six miles south of here.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Claim "Aurtherine Lucy Tactics" Used In Withdrawal Of James Hood From Ala. U.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (ANP) — It became more evident last week that elements in Alabama got student James A. Hood of Gadsden ousted from the University of Ala. in the same manner used to get rid of Aurtherine J. Lucy in 1956. In response to a newspaper report that the university might ex-pell him, Hood said, "I have never made any attempt to criticize anyone." Hood, who was attending the summer session, and pretty Miss Vivian Malone, over the second and third Negroes ever to attend classes at the University when they enrolled in June. Miss Lucy, now Mrs. Hugh

Foster of Houston, was admitted to the University of Alabama under federal court order in January, 1956, but was expelled after attending classes only three days. University authorities accused her of making false statements

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN
ADVERTISERS
BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2 Horton's Cash Store
- PAGE 3 Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Wayside Furniture House Standard Concrete Products Co.
- PAGE 4 Hudson-Bell-Efford's John W. Winters & Co. Provident Finance Co. Emma Jane's Dress Shop Dunn's Easo Service Lightner's Funeral Home Town & Country Furniture
- PAGE 5 James Sanders Tile Co. Raleigh Funeral Home Mann Piano Company Fine State Creamery Raleigh Paint & Wallpaper Co. Branch Banking & Trust Co. McLaurin Parking Company Smith-Johnson Flooring Co.
- PAGE 7 Raleigh Seaford Co. Wades Auto Sales N. C. Teachers Association
- PAGE 8 Colonial Stores Major Finance Co. Firestone Stores
- PAGE 9 E. E. Quinn Furniture Co. King Cole Motel
- PAGE 10 A&P Stores Central Drug Store Community Florist Umstead's Grocery & Transfer Acme Realty Co. Exiles Bar & Electrical Co. Wake Auto Service
- PAGE 11 Carolina Builders, Inc. Warner Memorials Dillon Motor Finance Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc. Deluxe Hotel
- PAGE 12 Carolina Power & Light Co. Barco, Inc. Mechanics & Farmers Bank Washington Terrace Apts., Inc.
- PAGE 13 E. & H. Used Cars Lincoln Theatre Auto Discount Company
- PAGE 14 Schiffs Beer Hunt General Tire Co.
- PAGE 15 Buffalo Battery Shop
- PAGE 16 Sanders Motor Co.