SCENE

My Lady's Doings In And Out Of Town

Geraldine G. Brown's Personally Speaking

FAMILY REUNION HELD

The sons, daughters and grand-children of Rev. and Mrs. S. R. Spencer of 702 Quarry St. were here last week for a family reun-ion, From Philadelphia came Mrs. Ernestine Scott and son, Robert; and Mrs. Margaret Bradley and children, Roselyn, Kenneth, David and Joseph. Out of Washington, D. C. came Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Spencer and children, Lawrence, Calvin, Jr., and Cynth a; Mr. S. R. Spencer, Jr. and Mrs. Hattie Carter and grandchildren. The grandcildren were from New York and they were Misses Carolyn and Ernetta Lee. Mrs. Carter is the sister of Mrs. S. R. Spencer, Sr. Miss Salina Spencer also returned home after spending the summer in "Philly" and Dee Cee. Mr. Columbus Spencer and Mr. Eugene Weldon were the only two missing from this grand reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weldon of 614 Haywood Lane assisted in the entertaining of this vast group.

HOME ON LEAVE

A recent visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall of Coleman St revealed that they had a much welcomed guest in the person of Carl Haywood Hall, their son, who is a member of the United States Army. Carl is here on leave and enjoying some good home cooking, which his mother delights in doing

INVADING THE CITY

Already many have arrived for the last summer holiday - Labor Day. We are glad they could come and to those of you who are going out of the city, get an early start so as not to have to rush and you can really enjoy this coming week-

Also arriving in this growing metropolis are many new teachers and other who will be working in other capacities in our town. Students are coming in for our two schools of higher learning and our newly added Raleigh Business School. WELCOME - WELCOME-WELCOME to all of you.

THE BOYS ARE BACK

Mr. and Mrs. James Cassell of D-3 Washington Terrace along with Hotel Americana, Among the high-Lane and Steve motored to Char-lotte over the weekend to pick up the remainder of he Cassell brood, Michael and Darryl. These two boys spent the biggest portion of the summer with their grandparents in Charlotte and really lived it up. Now they are ready to get back in the harness for 'good ole school

LAST BEACH WEATHER

CAROLINAS — Tempera-tures Thursday through Monday will average near or somewhat above normal. A little warmer Thursday and Friday turning cooler over the weekend. Scatt-ered almost daily showers or thunder showers will average one-half to three-fourths of an

VIRGINIA — Temperatures will average near normal. Cool-er over the weekend followed

Showers late Thursday or Thursday night and near the coast Friday and again about Monday will total around one-

A WELCOMED SIGHT A welcomed sight to Wyatt Cum-bo on Saturday afternoon was the return of his wife, Gloria from Albany, Ga. Gloria made the trip to Ga. to attend the funeral of her stepfather, Dr. C. T. Stancil, who passed there on last Tuesday. Seems Gloria was kinda glad to see Wyatt too: The younger Cumbos live at C-3 Washington Terrace.

REPRESENT CO. IN DURHAM Representing the John W. Winters and Co. in Durham at a recent meeting of the Wrights Home, Inc were James H. Brown and Ronald Carter, local employees of the same. The meeting was held at the Jack Tar Hotel and the fellows report a very informative meeting was held as well as a delightful time of social activities. (H-m-m-m, that

DELUXE HOTEL Member of N. H. H. Clean, Comfortable Rooms Miss Lucille Griswold, Prop. 220 E. Cabarrus St. Raleigh Phone TE 3-6800

'social activity' part????)

BACK TO BALTIMORE

Returning to Baltimore on Friday night was Frankie Joe Williams brother of Mrs. Sandra Baker. Joe spent the summer here and decided that he'd return to Baltimore because that's where he'd like to be most. While here, he also worked in the mantenance department of Washington Terrace Apts., Inc.

FROM UP NEW JERSEY WAY

On their way to South Carolina to pick up their kids were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roach from up by New Jersey. Charles and his wife, Estelle stopped off here to visit his mother, aunts and grandfather at 315 S. Haywood Street, Mr. H. S. Baker, Miss Louise Baker and Miss Mary Baker are the members of that household. Also they had dinner with his cousin and family on Saturday, at D-1 Washington Terrace (James and Sandra Baker);

We are all manufacturers in a way - making good, making trouble or making excuses.

Personals

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Dorothy Richardson of 1348 Branch Street, had as dinner guests recently: Mrs. Fannie G. Kirksey and Cleopatra Griswold of Chica-go, Illinois and Mrs. Lucille G. Paige and daughter of Raleigh. The menu was fired chicken, rice and gravy, turnip greens, pickles, corn, candied yams, ice tea, lime sherbert and cake. ATTEND DELTA CELEBRATION Among the 1,400 members of the Deta Sigma Theta Sorority attend-ing the golden anniversary celebra-tion in New York were the following members from Raleigh: Misses Margaret Bugg, Gloria Lester, Almena Nunn, Harriett Nunn, Eleanor Nunn, Vivian Davis, and Dr. Catherine Middleton. Also Mesdames Elizabeth Cofield, Vivi-an Sanson, Hazel Logan, Lillian A-bron, Jimmie Middleton, Gila Harris, Floriese Turner and Roberta

The celebration was held at the address by the U.S. Attorney General, Robert Kennedy. Twelve of the fourteen living founders were present. Among those inducted as honorary members of the organization was Mrs. Daisy Bates of Little Rock, Ark., and the Honorable Edith Green, United States Representative from Oregon.

VISITS ON E. EDENTON ST. Miss Inez Leach has returned to Washington, D. C. after visiting her mother, Mrs. Esther Leach, of 556 E. Edenton Street and other rela-

DINNER GUESTS Mesdames Maggie Bogues, Alice Debnam of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Naomi Clark and children and Miss Margaret Debnam of Brooklyn, N. Y. were the dinner guests of Misses Lillie Birdsall and Geraldine Oates

on August 22. VACATIONING
Miss Ethel Johnson of Fowle St.

VISITORS FROM NEW JERSEY Mrs. N. E. Pollard of 1005 Cannister St. last week had her sister and her husband, her niece and 3 daughters to visit her. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Arrington reside at 745 S. 14th St., Newark, N. J.; her niece, Mrs. Mary Hall and her three daughters, Barbara, 14, Yvonne, 13 and Regina Hall, 10 reside also in Newark, N J. While visiting their aunt, the girls were called upon by Miss Lucy Pollard of 1136 Walnut St., also one of Mrs. Pollard's many nieces. On the past Saturday Miss Pollard spent an enjoyable day with the girls while their aunt was out of town for the day. They spent an enjoyable week with their aunt, Mrs. N. E. Pollard. BABY BOY

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooke, 1420 Oakwood Ave. are the proud pa-rents of a son, William Cooke, Jr., born August 11 at Wake Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Cooke is the formal

RETURNS HOME Mrs. Pinkie Hall has returned home after visiting her niece, Mrs.

Dear Lord, forgive our lasi-ness in praying. Thou hast given to us the privilege of Sonship, but we have more the attitude of strangers because often we forget to be in communion with Thee. Teach us to pray in the Spirit of our Master. We thank thee for Jesus Christ, Thy be-loved Son. Help us through Him to trim our dim light that it may shine brighter in the darkness of this world. Help us to share with others the light which Thou hast so kindly giv-

> UNION BAPTIST - Church School began at 10 a. m. with the superintendent, Mr. Walter Price, in charge. Morning worship was at 11 with the pastor, Rev. E. Mason. The senior choir was in charge of WILLIAMS GROVE BAPTIST -Church School began at 9:30 with Superintendent Phillip Alston in charge. Morning worship began at 11 oclock with the senior choir in charge of the music under the direction of Miss Jacqueline Mitchell. A great sermon was brought to us by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Bryant. Everyone enjoyed it.

OBERLIN BAPTIST - Church School began at 9:30 with Superintendent Walter Curtis in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the junior choir in charge of music under the direction of Mr. Gaston tor, Dr. Grady D. Davis from the Pulley. A great sermon by the pas-Book of Amos, "Seek Freedom." MANLY STREET CHRISTIAN -

Church School began at 9:30 a. m. with Superintendent Mrs. Pearl McDonald in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the pastor, Rev. T. C. Hamans. The Lucious Minter's Morning choir was in charge of the music under the direction of Mrs. Mary F. Rogers. A soul-stirring mess e was brought to us by Rev. Hamans from the subject: "Don't Worry, God Has A Plan." Everyone enjoyed it very

YOUNG'S MISSIONARY TEM-PLE CME - Church School began at 9:30 wih Supertinendent Mrs. Della R. Ford in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the guest minister, Rev. Mr. Baker de-livering an inspiring sermon. Sub-ject, "O Ye Dry Bones." Everyone enjoyed it very much. The pastor, the scenes of luncheons and dinner parties, for their special guests, Mrs. Addie Brown of Philadelphia, last Wednesday while Mrs. Lang-ston held hers on Sunday. Mrs. Brown is the sister of Mrs. Rosa Parker. Those on hand to enjoy the repast with Mrs. Brown were: Mrs. Lela Strickland, Mrs. Hubert Mont-

Lela Strickland, Mrs. Hubert Mont-gemery, Mr. Montgomery of South Carelina and Mrs. Rosa Parker. WELL AGAIN Mrs. Eva M. Coadle is able to be out after a long illness. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Sa-death of her sister, Mrs. Florence Leach Surles.

ATTENDS CONVENTION James Young, Jr., son of Mrs. Indiana Young, 312 Lee St. recent-ly visited New York, where he attended the Golden Anniversary convention of the National Alliance of Postal Employees. It was held Aug. 20-23 at the Henry Hud-son Hotel on 57th St. He also visited friends in Washington, D. C. and Henderson.

BALTIMORE VISITORS Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ray and daughter, Sheila of Baltimore, Md., were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore of 708 Cumberland St. They also visited Dunn and Chapel Hill.

BIRTHDAY PARTY Little Jacqueline Kay Montague celebrated her 7th birthday, Saturday, Aug. 24th at her home, 712 S. McDowell St., from 3 until 6 p. m., by entertaining a few of her friends. Games were played on the lawn where refreshments were enjoyed. Jacqueline received many nice gifts. Guests included Patricia Merritt. Annett Merritt, Gwendo-Mrs. Pinkie Hall has returned home after visiting her niece, Mrs. Catherine Watts and nephews, the children of the late Fannie Scott Hillery of Jamaica, L. I. She also visited a cousin, Mrs. Martha Hinton and friends of Patterson, N. J. She reported an enjoyable time.

SPECIAL GUEST

The spacious homes of Mrs. Pearl The spacious homes of Mrs. Pearl tague

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

— Church School began at 9:30 a. the morning worship service.

m. with Superintendent Miss NanMORNING STAR BAPTIS. nie Morgan. Morning worship be-gan at 11 with the senior cheir in rection of Miss Darlene Andrews. A wonderful sermon was brought to us by the guest minister, Rev. George Roberson. The Rev. O. W. Burwick is pastor.

TUPPER MEMORIAL BAPTIST - Church School began at 9:36 with Superintendent Mrs. Dorothy Allen in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the pastor, Rev. D. N. Howard, Sr. The senior choir was in charge of the music under the direction of Miss Valjean Myers. A great sermon was brought to us by the pastor from the Book of St. Matt. 10:39. Subject: "The Givers and the Getters."

After morning worship, the Rev. Howard, choir and congregation motored to Selma, where they were the guest at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Theo Carter is pastor. A wonderful sermon was delivered by the Rev. D. N. How-

ST. ANNAH BAPTIST - Church School began at 10 a.m. with Superintendent William Lyons in charge. Morning worship every first and third Sundays. Pastor, Rev. L. T. Ford.

FIRST BAPTIST -School began at 9:30 with Superintendent, Mr. W. H. Taylor, Sr. in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the pastor, Rev. C. W. Ward. The call to worship was made. The Mosley Jones Choir was in charge of the music under the direction of the minister of music, Mrs. E. M. M. Kelly. Responsive reading was led by the Rev. J. A. Lester. A very inspiring message was brought to us by the assistant summer pastor, Rev. C. L. Boyer. Everyone enjoyed it very much. Mrs. C. L. Boyer said goodbye to the pastor and congregation for the summer. We wish for them a safe trip. BTU at 6:30 p, m. with lead-er, Mr. Frank Hinton in charge. vening worship, 7:30, pastor, Rev.

LINCOLN PARK HOLINESS -Church School was opened at 10 with Superintendent Arthur Wil-

Rev. J. N. Leverette is away attending Conference. The senior choir by Miss Gloria Sanders. Our paswas in charge of the music under tor, Rev. Eli Rateliff was guest tor, Rev. Eli Rateliff was guest tor, Rev. the direction of Mr. James Moore.

WILSON TEMPLE METHODIST Holiness Church in Method during

MORNING STAR BAPTIST -Church School began at 11 with the superintendent in charge of the lesson. Morning service began at the usual time with the junior choir in charge of the music, Mrs. Hood, accompanist. The pastor Rev. S. R. Spencer, brought a wonderful message from St. Mark 14:5. His subject was "The Last Supper." Communion was offered after service. Evening service began with the junior choir in charge of RUSH METROPOLITAN AME ZION — Church School began at 9:45 with Bro. Leslie Campbell, the superintendent, in charge. The junior church services were conducted by Rev. Bro. Taylor. The regular morning worship services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Harris. The senior choir furnished the music under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Jeffreys, our organist. Rev. Harris delivered a wonderful sermon from the theme: "All That Be Saved Must Enter in At The Straight Gate." At 3 p. m. Stewardess Board No. 2 of which Mrs. Minnie Degraffenreidt is president, sponsored a Talent Progra, It was guite a treest At 4.20 quite a success. At 4:30 p. m., Group No. 2 of which Mrs. Helen Mitchell is leader entertained at "A Musical Tea." It too, was a great success.

SMITH TEMPLE BAPTIST Sunday School began at 10 with Superintendent Elbert Sanders in charge. At 11 morning worship be-gan with the junior choir in charge of the music under the direction of Mrs. M. Mintz and Mrs. L. Holder. Rev. Ray brought us a delightful message from the subject: "Where Are The People That Were Healed

DAVIE ST. UNITED PRESBY-TERIAN — All Presbyterans will observe Layman's Day on Sunday, Oct. 20. The Men's Council of the Davie Street United Presbyterian Church will be in charge of the Annual Layman's Sunday Service on that date and plans have been made for a dynamic and interesting speaker to deliver the morning message.

sistant pastor, Rev. B. J. Johnson, men are invited to come and join conducting the service. He delivered the message for the day. Music breakfast.

Work it has done for needy fan lies, and the progress it has main is still making.

Forbes-Baldwin Vows Said In Church Rites

LAKE WACCAMAW — Miss Hazel Mae Baldwin and David Collins Forbes were united in marcause" and "Oh Promise Me." She lins Forbes were united in marriage Saurday, August 17th at 5 p. m. in the Little W Wheel of Hope Baptist Church. The Rev. James Forbes, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, officiated at the doublering ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Lonnie Boone, pastor of the church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pryce Baldwin of Lake and selections are selected as a grown of crystals and and Mrs. Pryce Baldwin of Lake Waccamaw. The bridegroom's parents are Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Forbes of Hollis, New York, formerly of the 900 block, S. Bloodworth St., seed pearls, and she carried a satin covered Bible topped with bride's roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor was Mrs.

and Mrs. William Smith, who were married at their home, 863 Hadley Road, recently. The bride is the former Miss Edith Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins of Cameron. Mr. from the Smith is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Smith Durham. of Wendell. A reception was held at the Sojourner Truth YWCA, E. Davie Street, tollowing the ceremony. Matron of honor was Mrs. Annie Jenkins, High Point. Best man was Pete Williams, of

Raleigh Community Club Celebrated 18th Yr. Sun.

The club's motto is "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." The club's song is "What A Friend We Have In Jesus". We dedicate ourselves to be charitable and to help those who are less fortunate than we are, spiritually as well as financially.

Mrs. Mary Peterson, reasurer.

P. R. Leazer

Appointed To

DURHAM - Perry R. Leazer,

public information assistant at North Carolina College, has resign-ment on the Fayetteville State College faculty as an instructor in the Commerce Department. He assumes his new duties September 3.

He leaves NCC after serving two years as public information assistant in the News Bureau and directing the colleges sport's publicity

A native of Salisbury, Leaser did his undergraduate and graduate work at North Carolina College, receiving the bache-lor's degree in 1958 and the

EYE GLASSES

OPTICIANS, Ise.

Come to Show Yard for selec-tion. See over 300 Memorials at Low Costs. You don't pay

1

25

.

WARNER

MEMORIALS

master's degree in 1963. He has taught at Kentucky State

FSC Faculty

BY MRS. ELIZABETH P. DAVIS The Raleigh Community Club ce-lebrated it's 18th anniversary Sunday, August 11, at the Raleigh Safety and Community Club building. Mistress of ceremony was Mrs. Es-sle Poole who is also chairman of the Edna Poole Program Commit-The present officers are: president, Mrs. Effic Rogers; vice president, Mrs. Semora Daye; recording

Devotional services were led by Mrs. Georgia M. Hinton and Deacon Blalock. Historian for the afwith Superintendent Arthur Williams in charge. Morning worship fellowed immediately with the assistant pastor, Rev. B. J. Johnson, men are invited to come and join work it has done for needy families, and the progress it has made and is still making.

and is still making.

A hearty welcome was given by Mrs. Lillie Blalock. The Rev. T. H. Harris, pastor of the Rush Metropolitan AMEZ Church was guest speaker for the evening. He preached a very splendid sermon, that was enjoyed by eveyone attending.

Music was rendered by the Raleigh Community Chorus and the Rush Metropolitan choir.

Special suest for the evening was Special guest for the evening was Mr. Carmicheals, president of the Safety Club of Durham.

now hold a membership of 450.

The African-American Speaks By ANDY RAZAF for ANP
"America, down through the years
Tve given you blood, sweat and tears,

Helped make you what you are today
And never failed you on the way.

From Boston Commons, Bunker To beachheads far across the sea I've fought for you courageously I always have and always will.

Before Columbus found your shore My presence in this land was known And growing with you, I have

To love you—who could love you In ev'ry field that you can name, Although I had the slower start; I've played a most amazing part And climbed to glory and to

Most of these facts are new to you

The reason why, is plain to see; America, you have so few Who know my hidden history!"

Virginia Hagwood of Raleigh. Bridesmaids were Miss Malinda Johnson of Lake Waccamaw, and Miss Theresa Mobley of Hallsboro. MONUMENTS Since 1902-Marble-Granite Phillip Hagwood was the bride Our costs start at $35.00, includ-ing name and dates carved, groom's best man. The Bride's brother, Spencer Baldwin, ushered with Alphonza Baldwin, both of

The bride is an advanced sen-ior at Shaw University in Ra-leigh, where she will continue her studies this fall. The bride-groom is a graduate of Shaw and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and is presently employed by the Wilson City School System.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at her home. Later the couple left for a wedding trip to For traveling, Mrs. Forbes chose 1919 Hillsboro, Raleigh, N. C. Navy blue shantung dress with

Build Home Raleigh home builder John W. Winters attended a meeting in Durham, August 17 to get details of the State Fair Bonanza program being sponsored by Wright Homes, Inc. of Durham. As a Wright Homes builder-deal-er, John W. Winters and Company was one of more than 100 North Was one of more than low North Carolina, Virginia and South Caro-lina home builders invited to build a special model home being erected at the North Carolina State Fair by Wright. Plans call for the State Fair exhibit homes to be built in Fair exhibit homes to be built is about 75 market areas.

On Oct. 14, the model at the Fairgrounds in Raleigh will open and all local builder-dealers in the program will schedule the opening of their model to coincide with the opening of the Fair which runs October 14-19.

Winters Co.

Invited To

The house, called the State Fair Bonanza was designed by Wright homes to sell for about $8,500 in the Southeast, exclusive of lot cost. FHA and VA 35 and 30 year financing will have approximate monthly payments of about $45.00 plus taxes and insurance. The home is perfectly suited for rural lots, John W. Winters and Company

North Carolina furnishings and fabrics will be used in the decer of the home and local builders will be shipped a complete "package" from the Wright Homes plant in National Magazines and dozens of manufacturers have already in-dicated great interest in the State Fair Bonanza and regard it as the most ambitious undertaking in the manufactured homes industry.

NACWC Holds Open House In Washington, DC

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The National Association of Colored Women's Clubs held Open House at the Headquarter's Building, 1601 R Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. on August 28, the date of the March on Washingon.

Dr. Ross L. Grang patients and present the control of the March on Washingon.

Dr. Rosa L. Gragg, national pre-sident of the NACWC, had anstates of he NACWC requesting the number of persons expected to par-ticipate in the gigantic demonstration for civil rights in the nation's

Dr. Gragg also attended the meetings of the Leadership Council called by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NA-ACP, which were held in New York City. She accepted a request to serve as a vice-chairman.

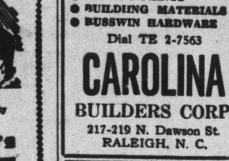

College, Frankfort, and at the Dur-ham Business College, Durham. Otions as office manager-bookkeeper, Service Printing Co., Durham, and interviewer with the Employe ment Security Commission, Dur-

A graduate of Price High School. Salisbury, Leazer is he son of Lee A. Leazer and a veteran of the

Everything For... BUILDING REMODELING REPAIRING • LUMBER

Dial TE 2-7563

• MILLWORK O ATHEY'S PAINTS

BUILDERS CORP. 217-219 N. Dawson St. RALEIGH, N. C.

Commercial

 Social Consult Us for Reasonable

Estimates Prompt * Service Phone TE 4-5558

—The— CAROLINIAN PUBLISHING CO.

> 518 E. Martin Street Raleigh, N. C.

Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Of Raleigh

3705 HILLSBORO STREET, RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA -:- TEL. TE 3-1071