

MURDER ON 'THE STRIP'

Man Slain Over Own Wife Here

Jealousy was believed to be the cause behind the death of Daniel Coley, 24-year-old resident of 1427 Sawyer Lane, who was stabbed in the stomach, back and shoulder last Friday at midnight.

DANIEL COLEY ... wounds prove fatal

The victim died at Wake Memorial Hospital Sunday from the effects of his wounds.

Weld in Wake County Jail, awaiting a hearing in the case is Walker Morgan, 19, whose address was listed as 230 Camden Street. Morgan was taken into custody Saturday night at 10 o'clock.

Following Coley's death on Sunday, Morgan was charged with murder. When contacted in his jail cell Wednesday morning, Morgan had "no comment."

The incident allegedly occurred in the 400 block of S. Bloodworth Street, according to investigating officers Detectives R. C. Covington and C. D. Gilbert.

This section of the city is popularly known as "The Strip"

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

After 'Black Sunday' Blast:

WALLACE DOUBLES BODYGUARD

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 21, NO. 48

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1963

PRICE 15c

'OLE MISS' STUDENT IS OUSTED; 'NO EMOTIONS'

740 In 'March'

Gun Found In Coat Of C. McDowell

OXFORD, Miss. — Cleve McDowell, the only Negro student at the University of Mississippi since

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WILBERT L. EVANS ... accused in knifing

JAMES L. COLE ... assault victim

Raleigh Teenager Stabbed By Youth

James Louis (Peter) Cole, of 12 Washington Terrace has reported to police last Friday night that he was the victim of a knife attack outside the Cave, a nightspot located near the corner of S. Bloodworth and E. Cabarrus Streets.

Police arrested Wilbert L. Evans, about 17, of Sawyers Lane and charged him with the deed. Cole was slashed on the face, hand and back with a hawk-bill knife about 11:15 p. m.

Evans was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Cole, who was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital here, sustained "slight" injuries according to a hospital spokesman.

Both Cole, the victim, and Evans, have previous records. Cole's arrest record dates back to June 18, 1957, while Evans was previously arrested Feb. 27, 1962. A hearing in the case had not been held at press time.

Mrs. Herbin Is Greeted By Local Citizens Body

Mrs. Sarah Herbin, appointed on Sept. 13 by Governor Terry Sanford as employment services representative for North Carolina, made her first public appearance in Raleigh last Thursday night, when she addressed the bi-monthly meeting of the Raleigh Citizens Association.

The session, held at the new Chavis Heights Recreation Center, was presided over by the Rev. Dr. Grady D. Davis, president. Although on the job less than two weeks, the energetic Mrs. Herbin has already made jaunts to several North Carolina cities, including Durham and Greensboro, and the response has been favorable, according to applications received from well-qualified persons.

After receiving a warm ovation from RCA members and guests, the veteran labor relations expert read

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER
Temperatures next five days through Monday will average 3 to 6 degrees below normal, with a slow warming trend. Rainfall will be heavy occurring mostly the latter part of the period.

CAROLINIAN
ADVERTISERS
BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2 Raleigh Business College
- PAGE 3 Dunbar's Eno Service Center
- Horton's Cash Store
- McLeod, Watson & Lanier
- PAGE 4 Sir Walter Chevrolet Co.
- Acme Realty Co.
- James Sanders Tile Co.
- Raleigh Funeral Home
- The Sign & Creamery
- Raleigh Paint & Wallpaper Co.
- Branch Banking & Trust Co.
- McLaurin Parking Company
- Smith-Johnson Flooring Co.
- PAGE 7 Bob Bernard
- Raleigh Seafood Co.
- Bawls Motor Co.
- Wade's Auto Sales
- Auto Discount Co.
- Brooks Appliances Co.
- PAGE 8 Colonial Stores

- Standard Concrete Products Co.
- S. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
- Lawrence Bros. Co.
- A&P Stores
- Taylor Radio & Electrical Co.
- The Capital City Master Barbers Ass'n
- PAGE 10 Carolina Builders, Inc.
- Warner Memorials
- Dillon Motor Finance
- Edgewood's Opticians, Inc.
- PAGE 12 Mechanics & Farmers Bank
- Carolina Power & Light Co.
- PAGE 14 Tire Sales & Service
- Homeowners Mortgage Co., Inc.
- Deluxe Grill
- Lightner's Funeral Home
- Lesiter's Enterprises
- Schultz
- Greene's Shoe Repair
- PAGE 16 Rhodes Furniture Co.
- Hunt General Tire Co.
- Community Florist
- Central Drug Store
- Lincoln Theatre
- Silver Horse Shoe
- Emma Jane's Dress Shop

Sorrow Follows Blast

BOMBING VICTIMS GIVEN LAST RITES — Shown above are several scenes recorded after the blast in Birmingham, Alabama Sunday, September 15, which took the lives of four young girls. Top left photo shows one anguished girl comforting another outside the Sixth Avenue Baptist Church, where services were held, since the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, where the bombing occurred, was under repair. Right photo shows a stained glass window, depicting Jesus Christ. The picture is intact, except for the face, at the Sixteenth Street Church. Center left picture records the families of the victims, some of whom were brought screaming from the building during the mass funerals for three of the girls. Woman in white dress (foreground) fainted and had to be carried bodily from the church. In the center right photo, a member of one of the families of the victims is led down the steps of the Sixth Avenue Church after the services on Wednesday, September 18. Bottom picture shows the estimated 6,000 persons who jammed the streets in front of the edifice for the services. The other victim was buried after funeral services earlier in the week. (UPI PHOTOS).

Cleric Lauds 'Passive Resistance'

BY CHARLES E. JONES

An actual count revealed 648 Negroes and 17 white persons on hand at 3 p. m. last Sunday for the "silent march" to the United Church, located on Hillsboro St. for a service of "contrition and reconciliation" in memory of four young Negro girls killed in a bomb blast at Birmingham, Alabama Sunday, September 15, while attending Sunday School.

Four young local girls, symbolic of the Birmingham four, led the procession up Fayetteville Street through the Capital Square and into the church. Approximately 50 Negroes and 25 whites were on hand at the church. When the services began, the church was filled to capacity.

Delivering the moving sermon was the Rev. Andrew Weyerman, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church.

"In our already battle-scarred lives, we are used to bombings, but what stuns us about this one is that it took place inside a sanctuary. Nothing seems to be sacred anymore," said the Rev. Weyerman.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Governor Receives Threats

MONTGOMERY (ANP) — Since Birmingham's tragic "Black Sunday," during which six Negro teenagers were killed, Gov. George Wallace has been beefed up his bodyguard.

The customary force of a uniformed State Trooper and two plain clothes officers has been

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Say Evers Prevented Slaughter

BIRMINGHAM (ANP) — Charles Evers, brother of slain Mississippi NAACP integration leader, Medgar, was credited with halting a march on "downtown" Birmingham that might have led to a clash with heavily-armed white police shortly marched silently last Sunday afternoon to a service in memory of the four young girls killed in Birmingham, Alabama on Sunday, September 15. Top picture shows the group assembled at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium at 3 p. m. They are being led by four young girls, symbolic of the blast victims. The girls are, left to right, front row, Deryl G. Davis and sister, Psyche Davis. Back row, left to right: Beulah Lewis and sister, Donna Lewis. Center photo shows a portion of the assemblage proceeding up Fayetteville Street toward the State Capitol. In picture at bottom, the shadows of four dead girls seem to follow the line of march, which ended in appropriate services at the United Church, Hillsboro Street. (UPI PHOTOS).

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

IN SILENT SYMPATHY — Some 750 Negroes and whites

10,000 In Session At Richmond

RICHMOND, Va. — More than 10,000 persons are now converging on this city as the 7th annual Southern Christian Leadership Conference convenes here from Sept. 24 through 27.

Attending from Raleigh, N. C., is the Rev. Dr. Grady D. Davis, president of the Raleigh Citizens Association.

Headlining the four-day sessions, which are being held for the most part on the campus of Virginia Union University, will be the appearance of such outstanding national figures as Senators Jacob Javits (R-NY); Paul Douglas (D-ILL.); Comedian Dick Gregory; Senator Leroy Johnson, State Senator of Georgia; Samuel D. Proctor, formerly an Associate Director of the U. S. Peace Corps, and now back in his post as President of A&T College of Greensboro; Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary; and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., SCLC president.

Considered to be the biggest civil rights meeting, next to the "Freedom March" in Washington, the conference is expected to attract many of the outstanding theoretical and political personalities that were active in the March on Washington.

Two outstanding examples of success and achievement gained by hurdling racial barriers were spotlighted at the SCLC's "kick-off" affair, a first within itself. The banquet was held in the spacious John Marshall Hotel's Virginia Room Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 8 p. m., marking the first time that this facility has been opened to a Negro

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NC Leaders Meet; Okay Big 'March'

BY STAFF WRITER

DURHAM — The president of the State chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was very conspicuous by his mere absence last Thursday night as many integration leaders from throughout North Carolina met here and decided to stage a mass civil rights "March On Raleigh" to emphasize the Negro's constant "fight" for complete equality. Kelly Alexander of the N. C. NAACP, voiced criticism of the proposal last week saying the "march" was inexpedient.

No mention was made of the celebrated publicity given an earlier announcement last week that the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., noted civil rights advocate, would lead the "march."

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NC Dentist Must Wait For Verdict

WINSTON-SALEM — A federal judge, in an unusual action last week, dismissed a jury that had been considering an anti-discrimination suit against the State Dental Society for denying membership to Negroes, and announced that he would personally issue a ruling in the case — sometime next year.

Dr. E. A. Hawkins, a Charlotte, dentist and integration

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Forsyth Man, 24, Kills Boy

WINSTON-SALEM — Clarence Lee Brown, a 24-year-old Forsyth County man, was arrested and jailed without bond here Friday in connection with the shotgun slaying of a teenager who accused him of assault only hours before the fatal shooting.

Brown was charged by deputies with the shooting of Phillip Hairston, 16.

Brown is alleged to have slain Hairston only hours after the teenager signed a warrant, charging the older man with assault with a deadly weapon. According to Deputy John Taylor bond on the assault rap, apparently went home for the gun and the young Hairston in the stomach near the victim's home.

Brown is expected to receive a hearing in the local court this week.

Dr. Charles A. Lyons, Parker At Virginia Meet

RICHMOND, Va. — Dr. Charles A. Lyons, executive secretary, and Lafayette Parker, president, of the North Carolina Teachers Association will represent their association at the annual meeting of the National Council of Officers of State Teachers Associations in Richmond, Va., Sept. 27-29.

The meeting will be held in the new headquarters building of the host association, the Virginia Teachers Association. Educators from 11 southern states, as well as representatives from New York and the District of Columbia, will attend this conference on current issues in American education.

Dr. Lyons, who is beginning his second year as executive secretary of the NCTA was Elizabeth City State Teachers College, Parker, who is president of the 11,000-member North Carolina Teachers organization, is professor of English, at Fayetteville State Teachers College.

"Educational Emphasis For 1963" will be the theme for the three-day gathering of leading educators from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Texas, Arkansas. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)