

HIS FIRST CHRISTMAS — Little Samuel Tate, seven months old, knows nothing of the problems which his parents, Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, president of A&T College, and Mrs. Proctor had in the preparation for Christmas in Africa last year. This is his first.

CHURCH NEWS

SMITH TEMPLE FREEWILL BAPTIST—Sunday School began at 10 a.m. Sunday with the superintendent, Mr. Elbert Sanders, presiding.

At 11 o'clock, the Rev. J. D. Ray, pastor, made the call to worship with both the junior and senior choirs rendering music for the occasion.

The scripture lesson was taken from St. Luke, 2nd chapter, verses 1-7. The morning prayer was also given by Rev. Ray, who brought us a wonderful message, from the Book of St. Luke. His subject was: "No Room for the Master."

The Sunday School and YPCU will hold their Christmas program on Sunday, December 29. The public is invited. Mrs. Cornelia Sanders Moore is church reporter.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST—Church School opened at 11 a.m. The subject discussed was, "Born to Make Men Free."

Regular morning service started with the singing of "Silent Night." The scripture from the Book of John, 3rd chapter and 16th verse was repeated by all present. "O Come All Ye Faithful" was sung next. Scripture was read from Isaiah 9:1-7. The Missionary offering was lifted and announcements were made.

Our pastor, the Rev. Samuel R. Spencer, Sr., brought us a soul-stirring message from the Book of Isaiah. His subject was, "A Child is Born." We closed by singing, "Bless Be The Tie."

FUQUAY NATIVE VICE-CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Field Director assigned to the Schweinfurt Sub-post, Mrs. Askew co-ordinates the activities of the local Gray Ladies, Staff Aides, Nurse's Aides, and other Red Cross volunteers from the installation.

She continuously reviews local needs, as expressed by community leaders, and through the Red Cross volunteer program provides appropriate Red Cross services to assist in meeting these needs.

One of some 3,000 American Red Cross volunteer workers in the European Area, Mrs. Askew joins the more than two million Red Cross volunteers throughout America and at U. S. military bases overseas in furthering the humanitarian efforts of the worldwide Red Cross movement, which this year begins its second century of service to mankind.

Cops Baffled By Strangulation of Ex-NCC Student

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
of Callis W. Brown of Durham, whose lifeless body was discovered by a fellow tenant in the Mt. Royal Terrace apartment where she lived with a pink scarf knotted tightly about her neck.

Police theorized that she had been strangled several hours before her body was discovered, but were unable to find any evidence or clue to the murder. They ques-

THE CAROLINIAN
"Covering the Carolinas"
Published by the Carolinian Publishing Company
318 E. Martin Street
Raleigh, N. C.

Entered as Second Class Matter April 6, 1940, at the Post Office in Raleigh, North Carolina under the Act of March, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Six Months $2.75
Sales Tax08
TOTAL $2.83
One Year $5.50
Sales Tax14
TOTAL $5.64

Payable in Advance. Address all communications and make all checks and money orders payable to THE CAROLINIAN, 318 E. Martin Street, Raleigh, N. C. 27601.

Advertisement rates: 10¢ per line per day. Special rates for long-term contracts. Copy must be received by 4:30 p.m. for next day's issue. Postage paid at Raleigh, N. C. by special carrier service. The Publisher is not responsible for the return of unsolicited news pictures or advertising copy unless accompanied by return postage. Opinions expressed by columnist in this newspaper do not necessarily represent the policy of this paper.

BTU opened at 5:30 p.m. with the president, Mr. John A. Marks, in charge. "Why Christmas?" was discussed by the group.

We also enjoyed a wonderful Christmas program with Miss Hatfield Weldon in charge, later in the evening. Mrs. Jessie M. DeLoach is church reporter.

tioned several persons in connection with Mrs. Brown's death.

Mrs. Brown's body was discovered by Carter L. Bryant as he was on his way to empty a basket of trash. He had become concerned when he saw her apartment door slightly ajar, and went to investigate. He said he knocked on the door after calling Mrs. Brown's name and failing to get a response. The door swung open as he knocked and he was stunned as he suddenly came upon the body of the actress lying on the floor below her sofa-bed.

Bryant said he thought she had fainted and tried to revive her but couldn't, so he called the police and then notified the victim's mother, Mrs. Tommie Louise Winfrey.

Police found a claw hammer, a table knife, and a towel and sheet stained with blood in the apartment, all of which were taken to the crime laboratory for tests but have failed to yield any evidence. They said there was also indications of a struggle, but tests later showed Mrs. Brown was not criminally assaulted.

Employed as a credit clerk by a downtown mail order house, Mrs. Brown recently appeared in leading roles in two plays produced here by the Arena Players, a Baltimore theatrical group. The plays were the Arena Players' production of "Come Back Little Sheba" and "The Little Hut."

Mrs. Brown attended elementary school in Lynch, Ky., and was valedictorian of her graduation class at Union High School in Statesville, N. C., before going to North Carolina College. She also attended Hampden Institute in Virginia, before coming here.

While a student at NCC Mrs. Brown was one of the first persons to be arrested in sit-ins in Durham.

She and her husband were separated in May, 1962.

MAID ADMITS POISONING

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Local authorities sent samples of the strychnine to the Medical College Hospital in Charleston for further analysis.

YULE STRIKE OF PORTERS IS AVERTED

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
James J. Reynolds said three principal issues were at stake—the porters' monthly work schedule, job protection and wages.

About 2,000 porters employed by Pullman, the New York Central, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the Soo Line were involved.

JURY FREES FIVE WHITE COPS IN MISS.

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
groes of their civil rights, were set free here by a Federal jury last week.

The five were accused of beating five civil rights workers arrested in Winona, Mississippi after they entered a white rest room at a bus station there.

State highway patrolman John L. Rasmussen, Montgomery County Sheriff Earle Wayne Prtridge, and Winona Police Chief Thomas J. Herod, Jr., all claimed they were innocent of the seven charges brought against them by the Justice Department.

The Justice Department called six witnesses, including four of the Negro complainants, and two FBI agents.

Jessie Johnson, Elvester Simmons, Miss Pollymary Freeman, and

Lawrence Guyot, all testified that they had been beaten in the Winona jail.

Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer told the court that she was kicked by Sheriff Prtridge after he ranked her off a bus in front of the bus station in Winona. She testified that she remained on the bus while her four companions entered a segregated lunch room. All five were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct.

Miss Annell Ponder, a field secretary for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, testified that three of the defendants beat her in the Winona city jail on June 9. She said, "Any I'm not completely over it yet."

TWO ELDERLY PERSONS DIE IN HOME FIRES

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Sarah Newsom, went back after dinner late in the day. She is the one who also found the home in flames later.

Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined.

In Winston-Salem, fire partially destroyed a small frame house on the city's northeast side Thursday night, killing Mrs. Mary L. Gwynn, about 80 years old.

Mrs. Gwynn's body was dragged from her blazing parlor by a neighbor. It was discovered on the porch by authorities after Eugene Adams pulled her out, but she was already dead.

The cause of this fire could not be determined, nor whether Mrs. Gwynn burned or suffocated to death.

"REVERSE FREEDOM RIDERS" VISIT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Included in the visit was a trip to the resort island of Martha's Vineyard, off Cape Cod and a memorial service at the birthplace of the late President John F. Kennedy in nearby Brookline.

Rallies were held on Monday and Tuesday in Concord, Mass., and Rutland, Vt., on Wednesday (Christmas Day) before the group leaves for home in North Carolina.

NIGHT RIDERS BOMB HOME, SHOOT WORKER

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
E. Short ran three SNCC workers—Ralph Allen, Prathia Hall and Willie Paul Berrien—out of town at gunpoint. Short was later sued by the U. S. Justice Department but was acquitted. On October 29, 1962 three SNCC workers were jailed in Bronwood, near Dawson, on "trespass" charges after they entered a white-owned grocery store to canvass for voter registration.

In Atlanta, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee asked President Lyndon B. Johnson to "act immediately to halt bombings and shootings aimed at intimidating voter registration workers in Southwest Georgia." The SNCC protest from Chairman John Lewis quoted President John F. Kennedy's remarks after Mrs. Daniels' home was fired upon a year ago, and two girls were shot in Mississippi.

The late President then said: "To shoot . . . two young people who were involved in an effort to register people, to burn churches as a reprisal, I consider both cowardly as well as outrageous." In Albany, Slater King, president of the Albany Movement also protested the bombing and shooting to President Johnson. King said "the shooting and bombing will be repeated unless strong presidential action is taken."

RACIAL PEACE, GOODWILL PLEDGED IN CITY

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
complacency and peace of white people."

He concluded by saying, "we

TO ATTEND POST CHRISTMAS CONFERENCES—Eight students from Livingstone College will spend part of their Christmas vacation attending meetings. Six will attend the 19th annual Ecumenical Student Christian Conference Dec. 27 thru Jan. 2nd, at Ohio University, Athens, and two will go to Miami Beach, Fla., for the Mid-winter Beach Conference sponsored by the Southern Area Council, YMCA. Shown above, left to right, first row are Sandra Ann Smith, Washington, D. C.; Francis Inman, Washington, D. C.; and Clement Ugorji, Lagos Nigeria, West Africa. Back row, left to right are James Gavin, III, Mobile, Ala.; James McCoy, Lumberton; and Barbara Wright, Matthews. Not shown are Marie French, Salisbury; and Frank Davis, Rockingham.

"Ahmal And The Night Visitors"

Va. State Music Prof To Appear On Television Show Christmas Nite

PETERSBURG, Va.—A Virginia State College music professor will appear in the new NBC-TV version of Gian Carlo-Menotti's Opera, "Ahmal and the Night Visitors," to be telecast in color Christmas night (9 p.m. EST).

Willis C. Patterson, bass, assistant professor of music and director of the Opera Workshop at the College, is cast as King Bolthasar in the NBC-TV network.

Heading the cast in the title role is a 12-year-old boy-soprano Kurt Yaghjian. Martha King will sing the role of his mother. The other two new kids are Richard Cross, bass-baritone as King Melchior, and John McCollum, tenor, as King Caspar. Baritone Julian Patrick pher and principal dancer is Donald McKayle, assisted by Sylvia Waters and Louanna Gardner. Herbert Grossman is conductor.

"Ahmal and the Night Visitors" was commissioned by the National Broadcasting Company and was first performed on Christmas, 1951.

Washington School News

The Washington School Music Department presented a program of Christmas music at the PTA meeting Monday night, December 16. The program consisted of the singing of Cameron McGraw's "Three French Noels" done by the Ensemble. Two numbers, "Lo, How a Rose Ere Bloom," and "Sheep Safely Graze" were rendered by a special group from the eighth grade. Soloists for the evening were John Leak, Bernard Lassiter and Jo Anne Cannady.

Mrs. Jewel Lassiter, chairman of the membership committee presented cash awards to the following teachers whose classes were department winners during this year's membership drive: W. A. Rainbow, Mrs. Hazel N. Logan, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. O. H. Hill, and Mrs. Vera R. Morgan.

On Thursday, December 19th, Mrs. H. H. Coburn's 7-4 class presented "An Empty Gesture." The play told of a teen-age girl and her decision not to give any Christmas gifts. This was her way of revolting against the commercializing of Christmas. Her English professor convinces her that this is a somewhat desperate move and she finally decides to send gifts. The comedy was thoroughly enjoyed by the junior high students.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Obituaries

MR. JAMES MANLY

Main characters were: Mrs. Stanton, Claudia Reid; Mr. Stanton, Jay D. Ashbury; Doretha, Chie Handy; Lou Grimes, Marvin Bailey; Gwen Jones, Pauline Goza; Grandma Stanton, Barbara McNeill; Professor Neale, Harvey McCuller; Jimmy Lane, John Cannady; Joan Lane, Captains Johnson. The narrator was Michele Palmer.

Funeral services for Mr. James Manly, who died in Lumberton last Wednesday, were held at the Raleigh Funeral Home Chapel Saturday at 11:00 a.m. The Rev. T. C. Hamans officiated. Burial followed in Mount Hope cemetery.

He is survived by one brother, Mr. Robert Manly, Greensboro; four nephews and two nieces.

CARNATION COOKING HINTS

By Mary Blake

HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR AND HER STAFF

Hats off to the New Year! Make New Year's parties memorable ones by serving Turkey-Olive Curry. Double-rich Carnation Evaporated Milk insures lump-free curry sauce every time. Keep a few of the familiar red and white cans on your kitchen shelf. You'll use them often.

TURKEY-OLIVE CURRY (Makes 6 to 8 servings)

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon curry powder
- 2 cups undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1/4 cup minced onion
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup (2 1/2 ounce can) sliced ripe olives
- 2 cups sliced cooked turkey

Melt butter in saucepan. Stir in flour, salt, and curry powder. Gradually add Carnation. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly. Add parsley, onion, lemon juice, olives and turkey. Heat to serving temperature. Serve over cooked rice. Garnish with curry accompaniments such as: chopped salted peanuts, pineapple chunks, flaked coconut, chutney, crisp bacon bits or raisins.

MAKE A DATE NOW FOR NEXT YEAR!

JOIN OUR..

1964 CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB

Money For Santa!
Money For Fun!
Money For Gifts!

JOIN NOW	SAVE EACH WEEK	RECEIVE NEXT YEAR
	$ 1.00	$ 50.00
	2.00	100.00
	3.00	150.00
	5.00	250.00
	10.00	500.00

1964 CLUB OPENS MON., NOV. 18, 1963

What a wonderful feeling! Christmas without money worries! And it's so easy with one of our Christmas Club memberships. Select the membership that best fits your budget. Then save the small amount (an amount you will hardly miss) each week. This time next year, you'll be all set for your Greatest Christmas ever.

LARGE ENOUGH TO SERVE YOU...

SMALL ENOUGH TO KNOW YOU...

Mechanics & Farmers Bank

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

RALEIGH - DURHAM - CHARLOTTE

CARNATION COOKING HINTS
By Mary Blake
HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR AND HER STAFF

Treat both youngsters and oldsters to hot, steaming Mocha Mug. It's perfect to serve after skiing or skating. Carnation Evaporated Milk blends with other ingredients for extra body and smoothness. Do try it soon!

MOCHA MUG (Makes 8-ounce cup)

- 1 tablespoon instant coffee
- 2 tablespoons instant cocoa mix
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Boiling water, to make one cup

Scald mug. Measure instant coffee, cocoa mix and sugar into mug. Add Carnation and vanilla. Fill mug with boiling water. Stir and serve.

© 1963 Printed in U.S.A. (122)