

Urban League Official Speaks:

'Training You Are Getting At Shaw Is Not Second-Class' J. H. Brown

John H. Brown, Jr., director of Vocational Services, Urban League, Washington, D. C., and a former dean of men at Shaw University told the men students Monday, January 6, that the financial situation which Shaw is now facing does not reflect on the type of training that is being offered at the institution.

Urge Traffic Court Clean-Up To Assure Justice To Drivers

More than 300 communities, including Miami, Fla., in the last 20 years have cleaned up their traffic courts and now give motorists true justice. Other places are urged to do so by James P. Economos, Director of the American Bar Association's Traffic Court Program.

N. C. Mutual:

W. W. Bolden Named Acting Manager Of Durham District

DURHAM—Whitley W. Bolden, Staff Manager on the Durham District of N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Co. has been named Acting Manager of this District effective January 1, 1944. He replaced W. L. Cook, who has been promoted to Assistant Agency Director and transferred to the Home Office.

Too many traffic courts, he writes, are merely fine-collecting agencies. For nine out of every ten of the thirty million Americans summoned to traffic court yearly, the experience is their only contact with our courts. All too often they leave court with contempt rather than respect for the "justice" dispensed.

W. W. BOLDEN

ner to New York, and to the Cloud-burst in Atlanta, all in the same year. He is a member of St. Joseph's AME Church, and is married to the former Miss Ruth Young, Assistant to the Treasurer in the Home Office. They are the parents of one child, a son.
